CENTRAL VALE
 The Arbor day exercises last Friday afternoon were well attended and very entertaining. Instead of planting trees the children planted vines and bulbs and sowed flower seeds. The exercises were held out of doors. Several essays were read and recitations rendered, all in a very pleasing manner which gave credit to children and teachers as well. Mother Earth and her helpers gave a little dialogue, represented by eight little girls and boys dressed in crepe paper, each to represent their part, flowers, grass, etc. Then eight girls dressed in yellow and green gave a Maypole dance to the music of the Victrola, the colors of the streamers being yellow and green. It was a very pleasing performance and well executed.
 Mrs. C. A. Seeger and Miss Madaline Smith drove to Portland Monday to spend several days in the city.
 Mrs. F. A. Massee entertained Mrs. L. A. E. Clark, of Odell, one day last week.
 About 30 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Packer drove out from town last Saturday evening and spent the evening in dancing at the Packer home.
 The Mothers' Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. W. Gilkerson. Mrs. G. A. Hoffmann was again elected president by unanimous vote. Mrs. F. Ingalls, vice president, and Mrs. W. W. Gilkerson, secretary-treasurer. Committees were appointed to start preparation for a bazaar to be held next fall. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. B. Moss April 24.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilkerson drove to Portland Sunday to visit the latter's son, William.
 Mrs. Frank Smith and son and daughter, of Lebanon, spent the week end visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hazen.
 There was an accident on the Loop highway recently. Two Ford's meeting found the road not wide enough to pass, evidently, and the next morning Mr. Massee found two Ford's on either side of the road turned over in his orchard. One passenger was slightly scratched, but no one seriously injured.
