daughter, Mrs. Geo. W. Butts, and family. Mrs. Williams has been here some weeks with her daughter. Leslie Butler was in Salem last week to attend the dedication of "The Circuit Rider." Mr. Butler was a member of the committee in charge of the unveiling of the statue by A. Plimister Proctor. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wolfe were down yesterday from their summer home on the Upper West Fork, where Mr. Wolfe will be in charge of a portion of the Oregon Lumber Company's logging operations. J. R. Heaton has sold his Heights jitney business to William Tollman, who has already assumed active charge. Mr. Heaton and family have left for a two weeks' vacation in the Coos Bay country. Norman Richardson, of Portland, spent the week end with his aunt, Mrs. Chas. Rathbun, and Mr. Rathbun. Mrs. Myers, of Estacada, was here over the week end visiting the Rathbuns. F. M. Slavens and family have returned to the city from southern California, where they spent the winter. Mr. Slavens said the southern climate agreed with his health. He is looking fine. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Stranahan have left for Portland to spend some time. Mr. Stranahan will engage in contracting work. They expect to spend the week ends on their Oak Grove ranch. M. B. Webster, in charge of the Dead Point trout hatchery, was in the city Tuesday seeing about bulls and shrubs to be used in beautifying the order of a single manufacturer of the fishery one of the most sightly places of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clark have moved to the McGuire house on Cascade avenue. Mrs. Clark is recovering from a recent fall in which she injured one of her feet badly. She was forced to go to Portland the first of the week for treatment. While passing through the city the following Pacific Power & Light Co. officials stopped Monday to inspect the new local office: R. B. Bragg, district manager at Walla Walla; W. A. Lackaff, purchasing agent, of Portland, and J. C. Campbell, traveling auditor. Last Monday evening after rehearsal the Knights of Pythias band was pleasantly entertained by the wives of members belonging to the organization. The band is now preparing for the I. O. O. F. convention and will be ready to furnish appropriate music. Miss Flora Peters, of New York City, arrived the latter part of last week for a few days' visit with the family of her brother, A. W. Peters. Miss Peters came here to officiate as godmother of her little niece, Betty Peters, who was baptized Easter Sunday at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Hood River Amusement Co. wishes to state positively that cards issued last week and distributed to a limited extent absolutely had no authorization by the Rialto theatre. As soon as the management heard of the cards, their distribution was stopped and as many as possible recalled at the management's instance. Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Seeley, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McGee, motored down from Shanko to spend the week end. Capt. Seeley states that he is making good progress in road construction of the Dalles-California route. Both he and Mrs. Seeley declare they would like very well to be residing in Hood River, however. Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McDonald, Mrs. J. H. May visited the Homestead Inn last week. Mr. Hannum, the visitors reported, is actively engaged in making preparations for a busy season this summer. The popular hostelry is being refurbished and made as attractive as possible. Mr. Hannum is taking a keen interest in the Homestead. The place, however, this summer will be managed by his son. The men's quartet of the Asbury Methodist church will go to Portland Sunday, where they will sing at the University Park Methodist church. Rev. Gabriel Sykes, formerly pastor of the local church, is now in charge of the quartet. Members of the quartet are: J. M. Wilson, L. A. Bennett, Earle M. Spaulding and Mark E. Moe. Mrs. Wilson will accompany them. They will make the trip in the automobile of Mr. Bennett, who will spend the next two weeks attending the district convention of managers of the J. C. Penney Co. While attending the Masonic grand lodge meetings at Albany last week A. D. Moe had a pleasant visit with W. V. Merrill, who succeeded R. H. C. Wood as manager of the telephone office at Hood River in 1924. Mr. Merrill is now proprietor of a large seed store at Albany, where he has been located for several years. Mr. Moe enjoyed a ride through the farming district between Albany and Corvallis, and says that the country looks to be very prosperous. The farm buildings are very commodious and up to date, and diversity of products is the rule. Mr. Merrill says that on this account there is very little distress or complaining among the farmers of that district. Card of Thanks We desire to thank all of the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us by their kind deeds and words, of sympathy at the sudden death of our husband and father, M. D. Latham, and we also express our appreciation for the many beautiful floral offerings. Mrs. Emily Latham, Edith Missman, Jesse Latham, Della Sheilbon, Carrie Peters. Card of Thanks We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for their expressions of sympathy and kind aid during our recent bereavement at the time of the death of our husband, son and brother. Eunice West, Jos. West and Family. Bids Wanted For transportation of pupils to and from Oak Grove school and Hood River high school for the coming term. Particulars can be obtained from the clerk. F. Fenwick, a24m1 Clerk, School District 11. Runaway Girls Caught Hazel Hirsch, 17, and Minnie Taylor, 18, who slipped from the Louise Girls' home in Portland, gave themselves up to City Marshal Hart Tuesday night and were returned to Portland yesterday. The girls declared that they were eager to get back to the Portland institution after an attempt to make their own way.

PENNEY CELEBRATES 20TH ANNIVERSARY Twenty-two years of service to the public was completed by the J. C. Penney Company Saturday, April 12. The company was founded in 1902 at a small mining camp in Wyoming and has grown to the indisputable position of the world's largest chain department store organization. It was fitting that the company should give recognition to its birthday in some way and decided that the better way was to give another community the advantage and pleasure of economical shopping which this and several hundred other communities have been enjoying. Hamilton, Mo., was decided upon to be the home of the new store. It is interesting to note that J. C. Penney, whose name this great nation-wide institution bears, was born in Hamilton where after the usual public school training he secured his first mercantile experience in the same building and the very room where he is now opening store No. 500 in the great chain. Associated with Mr. Penney in the ownership of the Hamilton store are 14 men, all of whom were born in this Missouri town and are now connected with the company as stockholders and managers in other places. The store opening was the occasion of an enthusiastic home-coming and was attended by Mr. Penney, J. M. McDonald and others of the company. Announcement is made that nearly 100 additional stores will be added to this organization during the present year. Another interesting announcement was that made the other day by Manager Bennett, of the local store, to the effect that recently the company drew its check for over $2,000,000 to the order of a single manufacturer of shoes. This colossal payment indicates something of the quantity of different lines of goods required by this large combination of retail establishments. L. A. Bennett will leave Sunday for Portland, where he will attend a two weeks' convention of managers of the Northwest zone. WOMEN'S CLUB NEWS For a meeting of The Dalles Business & Professional Women's club Wednesday evening last week at the community rooms, a guest of honor was Mrs. Alice Maloney, state president of the organization, and other guests were members of the Hood River club. Dinner was served at 7, and was followed by short talks by Mrs. Maloney, Miss May Davidson, president of the Hood River club, and Miss Dora Sexton, president of The Dalles club. Miss Minna Schassen sang, "Little Stream of Duna," and responded to an encore with "With You." She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Lenore Kirkpatrick, who later contributed a piano solo to the entertainment of the club. Attendance prizes were given to Mrs. Homer Van Allen, of Hood River, and Mrs. John Miller, of the local club. Covers were laid for Mrs. Maloney and the following guests from Hood River: Miss May Davidson, Mrs. Wm. Monroe, Mrs. Edith Mills, Mrs. Harriett Blashfield, Mrs. M. E. McCarty, Mrs. Orva Wiley, Mrs. John Colandrea, Mrs. C. A. Richards, Mrs. Wm. Esselstyn, Mrs. Leslie Root, Miss Maymie Ferrelle, Mrs. Harriett Walte, Mrs. Henrietta Corvallis, Mrs. Florence Simonton and Mrs. Roy Johnson. The following members of the local club were seated with the guests: Miss Dora Sexton, Mrs. John Miller, Miss Gladys Hale, Miss Mary Hill, Miss Alta Hall, Miss Jessie Petrasche, Mrs. H. W. Brown, Miss Minna Schassen, Miss Lillian Schassen, Miss Tillie Rash, Miss Eunice Bolton, Miss Lenore Kirkpatrick, Miss Ethyl Gibson, Miss Violet Johnson, Miss Anna Becker, Mrs. Alma Collard, Miss Ruth Sheldon, Miss Elsie Gernow, Mrs. J. H. Freund and Miss Jean Strachan.—The Dalles Chronicle. W. C. T. U. NOTES The W. C. T. U. held a very successful meeting Tuesday, April 15, in the First Christian church at which there was a large attendance. Mrs. A. Nickelson had charge of the legislative program: Those taking part in the program were Mrs. Hawkes, Mrs. Nickelson, Miss Ella M. Davidson and Mrs. Schmidt. Miss Alice Carson sang solo. Plans were made to banquet the new members gained on the drive. The banquet will be held at the Riverside church Tuesday, May 6, at 7 p. m. Mrs. J. Graf has charge of the April. A splendid program is being arranged. After the meeting sandwiches and coffee were served in the basement. The E. T. L. meets every Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in Asbury M. E. church. Mrs. Ames urges all members to be present next week as something special is to be discussed by all members. COUNTY HEALTH NOTES Parents of the county availed themselves of the opportunity to have 18 children examined at the clinic held Friday afternoon at the library under direction of the public health nurse. Three of the children had attended former clinics, while 15 were new cases. Dr. V. R. Abraham examined the babies, assisted by Mrs. B. B. Perigo. Mrs. J. W. Inzalls took histories, and Mrs. Wm. Sylvester did the weighing and measuring. Large Crowd at Mount Hood Dance The "Dance of Easter Eve" was another live dance at which everyone had a live time. There was an extra large crowd, and everyone of them were wishing for more when Howard's Aces of Melody played the tune of "Home Sweet Home," but there is more than one way to get more live dancing and still have a real time—one way is to come to the Mount Hood dance Friday, April 25. This is the dance in which she says, "Hurry up, Tom, or we'll be late." And he replies, "Yes, I'm coming dear." Then they're off to the Mount Hood community hall for another evening's entertainment Friday evening. Judge Onthank Not a Candidate "I wish it clearly understood that I am not a candidate for any office," says Judge Onthank, who has been justice of the peace here for seven years. Judge Onthank has filled the office conscientiously. The position of justice of the peace, during the past several years, since the days of prohibition and the automobile with its grist of traffic cases, has become a trying one. Judge Onthank declares that he thinks he has held the office sufficiently long. Turn-A-Lum Furnishes Furniture The handsome desks, cases and paneling of the new Pacific Power & Light Co. office has created considerable attention since the office was opened. The furniture was furnished by the Whitehouse Crawford Co., of Walla Walla, Wash., the general office of the Turn-A-Lum Lumber Co. "The finish is called a French gray," says William Esselstyn, local Turn-A-Lum manager, "and we will be glad at any time to answer any question pertaining to this work, done at our general office."

STEELE TALKS ABOUT HOOD RIVER APPLES Approximately 80 per cent of the tonnage of Hood River apples shipped last year were handled by the Hood River Apple Growers Association, which has become one of the leading fruit marketing organizations in the country, according to A. F. S. Steele, who spoke before the luncheon meeting of the Advertising Men's Association last Friday in Portland. Mr. Steele said the growers established the trade mark and contracts in 1913 and that it now boasts of 1100 members, 750 of whom are actively engaged in fruit growing. "Meticulous care of the marketing of our apples and living up to our trade mark and contracts is the reason Hood River's product demands and gets a substantial price on the markets of the world," he said. "Whenever you go you will find the Blue Diamond apples from Hood River and in all these places they receive the fancy price." Mr. Steele explained the difficulties in exporting apples which had been overcome by the growers' association. He said that by proving the worth of the name of the association by honest dealing, the demand for Hood River fruit had been substantially increased in the markets of the world while the same of other brands of fruit had fallen off. The South American market is proving one of the most valuable to the Hood River growers at present. Apples there are sold for $1.50 and $2 a dozen, he said. WEDDINGS Bickford-Campbell A profusion of fruit blossoms and spring flowers formed the chancel before which Miss Elizabeth Campbell and Hayes Latimer Bickford were married at 2 o'clock Easter Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bickford, of Pine Grove, parents of the groom. Rev. Father Smith officiated. The bride was charming in an attractive gown of white silk crepe. Her veil of tulle was becomingly arranged with orange blossoms, and the Easter motif was carried out in her bouquet, which was a shower of Easter lilies, sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Miss Adah Laraway played the beautiful march from Lohengrin as the bride descended the stairway, accompanied by Miss Louise Knoll, maid of honor and little Patricia Chisholm, flower girl. Miss Knoll wore a lovely gown of rose silk, and carried sweet peas in pastel shades, and Patricia wore a dainty frock of blue. The groom was attended by his brother, Clare Bickford, as best man. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony, which was followed by a reception. Miss Ethel Bickford, Miss Evelyn Turney, Mrs. E. L. Bickford and Mrs. Robert Ireland assisted with the serving, and Miss Ethel Bickford caught the bride's bouquet. The guests were shown through the home adjoining that of the groom's family, which the young couple have prepared to occupy on their return from a short motor trip. Mrs. Bickford's going away costume was a smart suit in a mode shade of taupe. Out-of-town guests present for the ceremony were: Mrs. Colleen Chisholm, of Antigonish, Nova Scotia; Mrs. E. L. Bickford, of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ireland, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Aggers, Miss Doris and Miss Maud Aggers. George-Lofts At a very pretty ceremony, solemnized at 4 o'clock last Monday afternoon at St. Mark's Episcopal, Rev. H. Miller officiating, Miss Gillian Lofts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lofts, became the bride of Theodore E. George, of La Grande. The bride was given away by her father, Miss Marjorie Joy, sorority sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Ted Black was best man. The bride was attractive in a hand-some wedding gown of white broadened crepe. Her veil was becomingly arranged with a cascade of lilies and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a pretty frock of pink silk and silver lace and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. A reception followed immediately after the wedding at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. L. M. Bentley poured. She was assisted by Mrs. E. L. Scoles and Mrs. A. C. Lofts, Jr. Mrs. J. Graf has charge of the wedding with the serving were: Miss Alta Russell, Miss Catherine Carter, Miss Clara Partis, Mrs. Richard Seacore and Mrs. Neal Nunamaker. At the luncheon were A. G. Lofts, Jr., and Richard Seacore, Leonard Partis sang, "Bridal Song" and "I Love You Truly." The church was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. A. S. Kolstad played the wedding march. Mrs. George's going away gown was a smart gray cashmere suit with a hat to match. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. George will be at home in Astoria. They were the recipients of many handsome presents. Both are former O. A. C. students. Out of town guests included: Miss Marjorie Joy, Ted Black, Miss Alta Russell, Miss Clara Partis, Leonard Partis, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall, all of Portland. Park Grange Meeting Interesting The meeting at Park Grange Saturday before last was a very interesting one. Evening Star grange of Portland sent a large delegation, which conducted the degree work. Under supervision of a committee headed by Mrs. A. Kreig, a sumptuous dinner was served at noon. State Master Palmiter thanked Evening Star grange for participation. J. J. Johnson, master of the visiting grange, responded. Mrs. A. I. Mason presented Park grange with a gavel. In addition to Evening Star, granges of Lewis, Fairview, Russellville and Columbia of Multnomah county, and the Woodland and Mt. Creek of Waco county, were represented. All other local granges were represented. Traveler Praises Hood River Apples W. Schwartzberg, whose headquarters are in Portland, but who represents the American Trading Co., of San Francisco, was here yesterday calling on the Apple Growers Association and discussing the exploitation of the local fruit in European and South American markets. Schwartzberg, who has resided in numerous Oriental cities and who is well acquainted with European trade conditions, expects to leave soon on a long trip through Europe and South America," said the visitor. "Indeed, it is internationally known. You are likely to come on Hood River apples in any part of the world. I believe there is a great future for exploitation of the fruit in Europe and in South America."

SIR KNIGHTS AT THE DALLES SERVICE

A large motor caravan of members of the Hood River Commandery of Knights Templar visited The Dalles last Sunday afternoon for a special Easter service held at the civic auditorium there. Rev. M. L. Sanders, pastor of the Goldendale, Wash., Methodist church, delivered the sermon. A large delegation of Goldendale Knights Templar was present for the service. Local men attending declared the service one of the most impressive they had ever attended. A luncheon was served the visitors following the service.
