HOOD RIVER FRUIT COMPANY

MR. AND MRS. MILLS
MARRIED 50 YEARS

With a few close friends and relatives present for the jubilee event, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mills celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday at their home, 809 Columbia street. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mills are 73 years of age.

Mr. Mills was born in Salisbury, Md., in 1853 and lived there until after the Civil war, when he went to Wilmington, Del. There he met Miss Matilda C. Fredell. Miss Fredell was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fredell, of Jersey Shore, Penn. She was born in Jersey Shore in 1853 and came to Delaware with her parents in 1860.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills were married in Chester, Penn., August 19, 1874. To this union were born three sons, Jerome, William and Leslie, and one daughter, Velma. Death has taken the three sons, all leaving wives and children. Mrs. May Mills, the wife of Jerome, and her daughters, Gertrude, Alberta and Naomi, and sons, Harold and George, are residents of Hood River. The daughter, Velma, is Mrs. Henry Budd, of Big Piney, Wyo., and is the mother of two children, Pearl and William.

Mr. Mills learned the trade of a pamphlet worker. He was employed in the Harlin-Hollinsworth shipyards and served this company until 1878. He then went to Pennsylvania and joined the 12th Pennsylvania regiment, which was sent to Philadelphia as a body guard for President Grant at the opening of the Centennial.

In the spring of 1877 Mr. and Mrs. Mills went to Kansas with the second colony that settled in Osburn county. They took up a half section of land and worked through the hot winds and grasshopper raid in the early days.

In 1895 they immigrated to Wyoming and settled at Big Piney, where Mr. Mills and sons went into the cattle business. They remained there until 1915, when Mr. Mills and son, Jerome, came to Hood River and embarked in the dairy business. A year later he sold his interest in the business to his son and retired from active life.

Mr. Mills and his wife have enjoyed excellent health nearly all the 50 years of companionship and are to be congratulated upon their long and happy life together.
