

ODELL

Floyd McCoy spent the week end with home folk in Portland. B. H. Nickerson was a business visitor in Unatilla, Hermiston, Condon, Postville, Arlington and The Dalles last week. Members of the W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Job Shepard Tuesday afternoon, December 16. Remember the alumni play and program at the Grange hall Friday, tomorrow night. Students of Odell high school will appear in a rural comedy in three acts entitled, "Aaron Slick from Punkin Creek" at Odell Grange hall Friday, December 19. Hot cocoa was served in the grade school Monday. Mrs. Arthur McCoy prepared the cocoa. Each day this week a different hot dish will be served and hot lunches in the grade school may now be said to be established. Monday, the opening day, all were served by 12:10 o'clock. The bazaar of Friday afternoon and evening was one of the most successful ever. Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKeown were Portland visitors early in the week. Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Davis spent the week end in Portland. Sunday school at 10 a. m. next Sunday; preaching 11 a. m. Rev. G. L. Glaser will deliver the second of a Christmas series of sermons. The junior church will meet next Sunday at 4:30 p. m. in Charles Hall will be leader. There will be no Epworth League and no evening preaching service. This is in order that people of this church may attend services at Ashury Methodist church, Hood River, Sunday evening when Rev. C. B. Harrison, of Portland, will give an illustrated lecture on "Circuit Riders of Oregon." The program for Sunday school night, Thursday, will include a reading by Mrs. Loyal Rhoades, special feature by Mrs. J. E. Ferguson's class and addresses on "Making the Most of Christmas," "For Missions," Mrs. Johnson; "For Social Life," Mrs. G. A. Weber; "For Religious Life," J. H. Fletcher. These will follow the 6 o'clock supper. Odell High School Notes (By Dorothy Pemberton) Many students are trying out for basketball and a successful season is assured. A number of interclass and interschool games have been scheduled. A number of students have volunteered to carry on the Christmas seal campaign in Odell high school. "Aaron Slick from Punkin Creek," a three-act rural comedy, will be given at the Grange hall in Odell Friday, December 19, at 8 o'clock. Come and have a good laugh. For more than two hours local students witnessed an interesting basketball game between the high school freshmen and the Odell high school last Friday. The score was 11 to 9 in favor of the high school team. Six weeks' exams will be given Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Wish we all had As in all subjects. March Berrier is now attending Jefferson high school in Portland. In a letter recently March wrote that he prefers Odell to the city school which he is now attending. "We wonder why." So far Odell is comparatively free from scarlet fever, there being but a few cases in the entire district. However, the county health organization urges us to continue to use every precaution; they advise that children remain away from the moving picture shows and as much as possible away from Hood River. Mrs. D. E. Clark returned home Sunday. She and Miss Grace M. Chambers had visited friends in Portland since the day following Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Mull and daughter are now at home on their own property which Mr. Mull has enlarged and remodeled. Miss Grace Chambers is spending several weeks with her sister at Yakima, Wash. PINE GROVE Joseph Jeffries, of Honolulu, who with his family has been visiting his sister in San Diego, Calif., was called here last week by his father's illness. Mrs. Vera Sackett, of Buffalo, N. Y., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries, arrived Tuesday morning. Tony Mohr is ill at his home with scarlet fever. Mrs. J. G. Jarvis, who has been in the hospital for a month with a broken knee, returned home last Sunday. A reception for Rev. and Mrs. Lacey and for the teachers in the school will be held at the church Friday evening. A few Christmas articles made by the Ladies Aid will be on sale and a short program arranged. Everyone is urged to come. Light refreshments will be served. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lago and sons, Eldred, George and Charles, expect to leave tomorrow morning for a motor trip to California. Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark and family, of Condon, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Clark. Mrs. A. J. Mason, who has been visiting her brother, Will Magill, at Bend, returned this week. A very convenient kitchen has been fitted up in one of the buildings at the rear of the school house and hot lunches were started Tuesday. Mrs. A. V. Peters is in charge and the lunches will be excellently prepared by Miss Bertha Hoke. Miss Anna Palmer, of Hood River, spent the week end with Zoe Sobole. Mrs. C. H. Clymer and small son left last week to join her husband in Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. Gowlin, of Canada, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Walter Wells. Mr. and Mrs. Ceil Cutler are spending the winter with her parents at Ocean Park, Wash. The Epworth League will hold no meeting Sunday evening but will join with the service of the league at the Ashury church in Hood River. The Sunflower class at its last meeting voted thanks to all who assisted in their program at the hall last Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Otten, of Seaside, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Martin Drayton. Mrs. Otten was formerly Miss Eilers, of Portland. Mrs. Davidson, of The Dalles, is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Victor Thomson. The Aloha club will hold its Christmas meeting at Mrs. Bliss Clark's next Wednesday with Mrs. J. E. Andrews in charge. Each member is asked to bring something that will bring cheer to some family in need. The county nurse will assist in disposing of the gifts. There will be an all day grange meeting next Tuesday with a basket dinner at noon. Coffee will be served. All grangers are urged to be present as the election of officers will be held at that time. Don't forget to bring a well filled basket. BARRETT Miss Nellie Nesbit had Miss Mildred Crow as a guest the past week. The Ladies Aid of Valley Christian church had their annual bazaar and program Friday night. A good time was enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Guy Crapper has been suffering for several days from tonsillitis. Mrs. Geo. Easterly returned home Sunday from Portland, where she had been visiting a sister and her daughter, Blanche. Joe Hall, of The Dalles, visited at the Fred Gilcher home last Thursday night. Willis Thornsbury went to Portland Sunday. Mrs. Gilcher took her little son, Larsey, to a specialist Sunday. OAK GROVE The Parent-Teacher Association last week gave a party to get acquainted with the teachers. A short program was rendered, including a talk by Supt. Critch, violin solo by John Nuremberg, reading by Mamie Samuelson, orchestra selections by the Annala orchestra. After the program refreshments were served, following which dancing was enjoyed for a short time. The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held at the school house Friday of this week. Everyone is requested to be present as plans are to be made for the community Christmas tree and your help is needed. Mrs. Clyde Burke is recovering from an attack of rheumatism. Miss Denaida Stranahan, daughter of Chas. Stranahan and Truman Smith stole away from their friends and were married last Thursday. At present they are living on the Hodge place in Lovers lane. We all wish them a long and happy life together. Mrs. Jake Horn is home again from the hospital where she received treatments for inflammatory rheumatism. As Mrs. Wilson is busy getting her eighth grade class ready for mid-year exams, the Parent-Teacher Association has taken over the Christmas exercises and is planning a community tree this year. Relatives of Mrs. Z. Annala gave her a surprise dinner Sunday in honor of her birthday. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Moller and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wing and Mrs. Yeck, of Barrett, attended the P. T. A. party last Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hukari spent the week end at the Lindgren home in Odell. Mrs. O. E. Horn is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Fuhrman, in Lyle this week. MIDDLE VALLEY Lloyd Bird has gone to Rainier to visit his father, W. J. Bird. Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Keys are living at Parkdale. Mrs. W. J. Wilkins, daughter, Audrey, and son, Jimmie, are visiting in Portland. Mrs. L. Nex has gone to Portland to spend the winter. Miss Nina Montgomery, who is working in the L. C. Cobb Co. store at Hood River, visited her parents Sunday. There will be an election of Sunday school officers next Sunday after the Sunday school. Everyone interested please come. Sunday school will be held at 10:30 a. m. and there will be preaching at 2:30 p. m. At the school meeting Monday evening the tax budget for the coming year was accepted. MOUNT HOOD M. B. Campbell and family have moved to Hood River and leased their ranch to Mr. Hulse, of Vancouver, Wash. Kelsie Devin was a Hood River visitor Saturday. The regular afternoon meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held Friday. Mrs. Bostick and Mrs. Rumbaugh were appointed on the refreshment committee; Mrs. Filz and Mrs. Ringer on the committee to solicit articles for the bazaar; Mrs. Wyatt, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Langille on the pricing committee, and Misses Eiler and Krueger on the program committee. The articles for the bazaar are to be left at Johnson's store Wednesday, December 17. The bazaar is to be held at the Community hall Saturday, December 20, in connection with the regular Parent-Teacher social evening. Ross Ringer and family spent Saturday at Hood River. Joe Hess was at Hood River Saturday, being one of the many to cross the new bridge. Mrs. Ida F. Everson spent Sunday in Portland with her daughter, Miss Florence Everson. Several Parkdale people attended Pomona grange held at the Barrett district grange hall in the Barrett district last week. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Jay and son, peated will be sure to bring about serious unpleasantness. Your attention to the small boys is respectfully requested. Yours truly, Ferd. H. Dietzel. Notice of Equal Hearing Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executor of the Estate of Martha Barker, deceased, has filed in the County Court of Hood River County, Oregon, his final account as such executor, and that Friday, the 9th day of January, 1925, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., at the office of the County Judge, has been fixed by said Court as the time and place for hearing objections to said report and the settlement of said estate. Frederick W. Barker, Executor. Hood River Market Opening Saturday The formal opening of the new Hood River Market, established by A. F. Davenport on Oak street in the Keir building, will be held Saturday. That day all residents of the mid-Columbia, both on the Oregon and Washington sides of the Columbia, are invited to visit the new market. All visitors will be shown through the ultra modern refrigeration plant, storage rooms, sausage room and other parts of the market, characterized by experts as one of the finest in rural Oregon. Two Big Dances for This Month The dance held at Rockford Grange hall last Tuesday evening was well attended. On account of Pomona grange held Wednesday, including an evening session, the regular dance date was changed to Tuesday for that week only. Howard's, the most popular orchestra, will play at Rockford Wednesday evening, December 17th. These dances given by the Rockford grange dance committee are very popular; excellent music, fine hardwood floor, and efficient floor managers, assuring all a good time. December 31 being a regular dance night, the grange committee is planning to hold a New Year's eve watch-party dance. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. Howard's Aces of Melody orchestra will be there to play the old year out and new year in. A chicken pie supper will be served at midnight, after which dancing will be continued until next year. Cards, mah jong and other games will be provided for those who do not care to dance. Further details will be published later. Notice It is unlawful to cut trees and shrubs in the city parks and anyone found doing so will be prosecuted. The Common Council. Cascade Locks The following letter is self-explanatory: Portland, Or., Nov. 28, 1924. City Marshal, Cascade Locks, Oregon. Dear Sir: Last evening while I was motoring through your town one or more small boys threw small rocks at my automobile. It was a Hudson touring limousine; the windows were open and one rock went in through the window and struck my daughter on the hat. There was no real damage done but it is a fact that cannot be too strongly discouraged, for while being very disrespectful to people getting this kind of a reception, it re-
