

ODELL

Malman & Davis have added an ice-making machine to their storage equipment...

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. May were week end visitors in Portland.

Miss Irene Wickman, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her parents...

The January meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held Tuesday evening...

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hill and son, Bobbie, motored to California...

Dr. Elise, gopher specialist, stopped off Friday while on his way to Parkdale...

B. H. Nickerson went to Baker Tuesday night. He hopes he may locate in or near Baker.

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and her son-in-law, Archie McKeown, went to Portland Wednesday of last week...

Odell Athletic club basketball team won the Odell vs. Centerville game at Centerville, Wash. Friday night...

The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. W. S. Gleaser at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon, January 21.

Anyone in Odell voting precinct who has failed to receive a call from the government farm census enumerator is requested to call Odell 106 within the next 10 days...

Five new members have been added to the Junior church, bringing the total membership up to 40.

Sunday school 10 a. m. next Sunday at the Methodist church. At 11 o'clock morning service...

Odell High School Notes (Linda Udellus) Last Friday afternoon Dr. Elise, a gopher specialist from Portland, gave an illustrated lecture on the "Cause and Prevention of Gopher."

Miss Whitteker, the county health nurse, has made several visits to the high school, but thus far only one case of scarlet fever has been found within the school.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs. M. A. Scoobe Friday afternoon. All members are urged to be present.

A special meeting of the grange will be held next Tuesday evening to install the officers elected last Tuesday. All members are requested to attend.

E. E. Lage and J. P. Thomson went to Portland Tuesday on business. The Amicus club will meet with Mrs. E. F. Batten Thursday, January 22.

Mrs. Hans Lage is visiting her daughter in Portland this week. Tuesday evening the Sunflower class elected the following officers for the year: Miss Eunice Brown, president; Mrs. E. E. Lage, vice president; Miss Zoe Scoobe, secretary and Earl Moore, treasurer.

The W. C. T. U. held a special meeting at the home of Mrs. J. G. Jarvis last Wednesday afternoon. At this meeting Miss Lucilla Hunt was appointed to arrange for the sending of canned fruit and vegetables to the Children's Farm Home.

Mrs. W. C. T. U. will meet in regular session at the home of Mrs. Frank DeWan at 8 o'clock Thursday in February, when a program will be presented for Constitutional Prohibition day.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cutler, who have been in Ocean Park for some time, are expected to return home this week.

The Aloha club will meet with Mrs. Martin Dragseth next Wednesday, January 21.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Collier, of Portland, were Pine Grove visitors this week.

A benefit dance for the school hot lunch fund will be given at the grange hall Thursday, January 29. Howard's Aces of Melody will furnish music for a program, which will include both old and new dances.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dresser and family, who have been visiting at Seaside, returned last Friday.

Mrs. Victor Thomson entertained a Hood River bridge club last Thursday.

Walter Vannier is visiting friends in Bandon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gowan, who have been with their daughter, Mrs. Wallace Wells, have gone to Portland to be with their daughter, Mrs. Nelson.

are needed. Friday of this week has been selected for donation day. Contributions of cabbage, colts, carrots, beans, turnips, canned tomatoes, potatoes and chocolate are asked.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gilman, of Hood River, were guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shoemaker entertained the B. V. D. S. bridge club last Thursday evening.

There are no new cases of scarlet fever in Pine Grove. The children are examined every morning by the nurse, Mrs. Hayes Hickford, and all who have any increased temperature are sent home until all symptoms of illness are over.

Mr. and Mrs. Nat Scroggins returned home Monday of last week. A crowd of their friends charivariated them Monday night.

An all day meeting is to be held at the Advent Christian church again next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Preege spent a few days in Portland last week.

Born-To Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Keisar, Wednesday, January 7, a 6 1/2-pound son. The young man has been named Manuel Francis. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Word has been received that Miss Margaret Pierson, a freshman at O. C. G., has been pledged by the Beta Kappa, a local sorority.

O. C. Keisar is building a new house on Sunset Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Smith entertained about 20 of their young friends last Saturday evening.

Wm. Crapper made a trip to Portland last week and returned with a new Star car.

Mrs. W. T. Hukari is spending the week in Portland.

Mart and Jake Horn made a business trip to Forest Grove last Tuesday.

Mr. Kyllonen, of Brocket, N. D., is visiting the Jakka and Hukari families and also other friends in Oak Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Zack Annala are calling on friends and relatives in Odell and Pine Grove this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meashaw, who have moved to town for the winter, are enjoying a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Gordon Miller, of Edmonton, Canada. She expects to be with them about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Ogden and children left last week to go home about three weeks. Mrs. Ogden and Nancy will spend the time in Portland, while Mr. Ogden and Junior make a trip to Wisconsin.

A. H. Rees, of The Dalles, returned to his home recently after spending the holidays with his sister, Mrs. Earl Clark.

Last Thursday the car of Mr. Cutting, the mail carrier on Route 2, broke down in front of Clayton Fletcher's house, and rather than disappoint his patrons on the remainder of the route he shouldered the sack and walked the rest of the way.

The Mothers' club had a pleasant meeting last Thursday, although few were present, at the home of Mrs. Earl Clark. The next meeting will be three, instead of two, weeks from that date, the place to be announced later.

Miss Whitteker paid the school a brief visit of inspection last week.

Through error of the correspondent a sheet of copy containing the following three items was omitted from last week's envelope:

The McCammon home was the scene of great jollification New Year's eve when Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCammon were hosts to the Fortnightly club. The evening was spent at cards, dancing and just fun.

J. W. West made a hurried trip from Libby, Mont., to attend the wedding of his daughter, Thelma. On account of the uncertain weather, Mr. West returned to Libby Sunday night.

Mrs. J. N. Giesy, who has been visiting with her brother, W. F. Shannon, and family, has returned to San Francisco and Los Angeles to attend some important business matters. She expects to be away about four weeks.

Word has been received from J. L. Woods that he and his family will arrive today from a six weeks' tour of California. They say that though they have enjoyed their trip they are glad to be getting back home again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Van Wicklin are in Portland for the grand opera this week.

There is to be an important meeting of the Community club at Mrs. Parker's today. Don't forget it.

The Fortnightly club celebrated its first birthday anniversary Monday night with a no-host dinner party at the James D. Werrick home. A six-course dinner was served at a beautifully decorated table to the 16 members of the club, after which the evening was spent at cards and music. The club as a unit seemed very thrifty and quite able to partake of nourishment considering its tender age.

Misses Thelma Eller and Louise Krueger returned Sunday from Portland, where they spent their vacation.

Supplies for the hot school luncheon

Jean Langille returned from Portland last Sunday. She was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Horace Mecklin.

School began Monday after a three-week vacation.

J. B. Doggett has an Overland Bluebird and F. B. Hess an Overland. The deal was made through Geo. Hanel, agent.

Miss Gladys Aubert went to Dee Sunday, to take charge of her school.

Ernest Cummings started to Parkdale high school after the holidays.

Frank Wishart purchased an Overland touring car of F. B. Hess.

W. T. Wyatt has traded his Hudson Super Six to Chester Perkins for his Hudson Coach.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopper spent last Tuesday at Hood River.

Mrs. A. M. Butterfield enjoyed a visit from her mother during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Macintosh and Maryellen have returned to their home after a visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin moved to Pendleton last week.

Miss Isabelle Craven went to Portland last week, where she entered the nurses' training school of the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mrs. Tucker has gone to California for a visit.

Bishop Remington held special services in the church Sunday afternoon.

Col. W. S. Dowd was a Portland visitor Thursday.

Ralph Davies was confined to his bed the first of the week.

Ladies' Auxiliary met with Mrs. J. E. Van Nuya Wednesday afternoon.

The Boy Scouts have announced that their entertainment and box social will be held in the grade school January 23. There will be music, stunts and other features to amuse the crowd.

The entertainment committee of the forum will announce the date of the annual play given by that organization in the near future.

Ladies' Auxiliary are getting things lined up for the "big show."

The Young People's society of the Community church elected the following officers at their business meeting January 11: Lenora Miller, president; W. B. Stullin, vice president; Miss Alta Basler, secretary; Miss Harriet McIsaac, organist, and Miss Frances Stullin, social committee.

Miss Helen Wylie, of the grade school teaching staff, was unable to return for the reopening of school owing to the serious illness of her mother. Word was received Friday that the latter had passed away.

The sympathy of the community goes out to Miss Wylie in her bereavement.

George Hanel has purchased the stock of the Sheldrake store and will take charge of the business about February 1.

J. B. Doggett is the proud possessor of a new automobile.

You are most cordially invited to the services in the church next Sunday. Forum and church school at 10:15. Pulpit, Lenora Miller, president; W. B. Stullin, vice president; Miss Alta Basler, secretary; Miss Harriet McIsaac, organist, and Miss Frances Stullin, social committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meashaw, who have moved to town for the winter, are enjoying a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Gordon Miller, of Edmonton, Canada. She expects to be with them about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Ogden and children left last week to go home about three weeks. Mrs. Ogden and Nancy will spend the time in Portland, while Mr. Ogden and Junior make a trip to Wisconsin.

A. H. Rees, of The Dalles, returned to his home recently after spending the holidays with his sister, Mrs. Earl Clark.

Last Thursday the car of Mr. Cutting, the mail carrier on Route 2, broke down in front of Clayton Fletcher's house, and rather than disappoint his patrons on the remainder of the route he shouldered the sack and walked the rest of the way.

The Mothers' club had a pleasant meeting last Thursday, although few were present, at the home of Mrs. Earl Clark. The next meeting will be three, instead of two, weeks from that date, the place to be announced later.

Miss Whitteker paid the school a brief visit of inspection last week.

Through error of the correspondent a sheet of copy containing the following three items was omitted from last week's envelope:

The McCammon home was the scene of great jollification New Year's eve when Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCammon were hosts to the Fortnightly club. The evening was spent at cards, dancing and just fun.

J. W. West made a hurried trip from Libby, Mont., to attend the wedding of his daughter, Thelma. On account of the uncertain weather, Mr. West returned to Libby Sunday night.

Mrs. J. N. Giesy, who has been visiting with her brother, W. F. Shannon, and family, has returned to San Francisco and Los Angeles to attend some important business matters. She expects to be away about four weeks.

Word has been received from J. L. Woods that he and his family will arrive today from a six weeks' tour of California. They say that though they have enjoyed their trip they are glad to be getting back home again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Van Wicklin are in Portland for the grand opera this week.

There is to be an important meeting of the Community club at Mrs. Parker's today. Don't forget it.

The Fortnightly club celebrated its first birthday anniversary Monday night with a no-host dinner party at the James D. Werrick home. A six-course dinner was served at a beautifully decorated table to the 16 members of the club, after which the evening was spent at cards and music. The club as a unit seemed very thrifty and quite able to partake of nourishment considering its tender age.

Misses Thelma Eller and Louise Krueger returned Sunday from Portland, where they spent their vacation.

Supplies for the hot school luncheon

BEST QUALITY ALFALFA HAY TIMOTHY NOW ON TRACK $23.00 PER TON

This price is subject to market changes. At this time of the year weather conditions greatly affect the hay market. A snow storm would delay baling, hay hauling, etc., thereby affecting the hay supply and causing higher prices. Buy your hay now, or before you must pay higher prices.

PHONE 4251 FOR PRICES DELIVERED TO YOU

TAFT TRANSFER COMPANY HOOD RIVER, OREGON

revel of religion in Hood River more than anything else. Pray for the revival. C. H. Delepine, Pastor.

Asbury Methodist Church The preaching services will be held at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. Epworth League at 6:45 p. m. Prayer meeting held every Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is given to all to attend these services. Rev. W. N. Byars, Minister.

St. Mark's Church Rev. James E. Kimberley, of St. Vincent, Minn., will conduct the service and preach at St. Mark's church next Sunday morning at 11 a. m. Rev. Kimberley, who holds the degree of M. A. from Oxford, England, has ministered with conspicuous success and devotion to the physical, mental and spiritual needs of a wide region surrounding St. Vincent, a small town in a rural section near the Canadian border. During the winter months, at least, services are being held in the new parish house, which has been attractively arranged to serve the purpose and will be found comfortable in any weather. The church school will meet again January 25, the sessions having been cancelled on account of the sickness among the children.

Advertisement for Daylight kitchen light. Features a large illustration of the light fixture and text: 'Put DAYLIGHT in your kitchen! A convenience outlet, too! FREE TRIAL FREE INSTALLATION'.

MAKE your kitchen bright, light and cheerful. Did you ever stop to figure out that you probably spend a fourth of your waking hours there? But is your kitchen well lighted like your other rooms? It's so much easier and pleasant to work in light that's mellow, radiant and restful!

Gloom and glare go! The Daylite Unit fills your kitchen with sunshiny daylight. It banishes glare and gloom; it does away with shadows! Get the Daylite for the "workshop" of your home. It's all white and really beautiful. White enameled plate and white coated glass globe. Easy to keep spotlessly clean. Grey silk drop cord and nickel finished switch.

Try for two weeks, FREE Special renters' service

Try out a Daylite Unit for two weeks, FREE. The installation costs you nothing. The fixture is quickly installed and may be detached and taken with you when you move, if you rent. We'll do this for you if you move within ten months.

Only 75c a month For a short time only the price of the Daylite is only 75c a month added to your electric light bills until a total of $7.50 is paid. This is a lower price than in big eastern cities!

Call for a demonstration in your home, or see the Daylite in our store. Telephone 4211

Pacific Power & Light Company Always at your service

Advertisement for Daylite kitchen light. Features a smaller illustration of the light fixture and text: 'See this new switch! Light turns on and off here, at a convenient height. And there's an outlet in the bottom for your iron, toaster, vacuum cleaner or other appliance. Works entirely independent of the light. What the ladies say: "Daylite Kitchen Unit is a wonderful light. Would not be without it." - Mrs. G. H. Pendleton, Ore. "Your kitchen unit was so satisfactory we had one put in our dining room also." - Mrs. C. A. B. Dayton, Wash. "Would not think of using any other kind of light now." - N. C. B. Yakima, Wash. "With a Daylite Unit now in my family I can't see how I could get along without it." - Mrs. J. W. K. Pasco, Wash.