Clean Up and Paint Up

You ask: "What's a meat market and grocery store to do with such a campaign?"

We are morally behind it; and furthermore we want to tell you that we can furnish the fuel that will make you work.

Let us prepare the meats for your meals on the eve of spring and furnish you with groceries of quality.

Then eat heartily and work hard a part of each day out in the open air, engaged in that task of cleaning up and painting up.

You won't have spring fever.

O. A. C. Glee Club Coming

Alfred Reiman, of Hood River, a sophomore in commerce, is a member of the O. A. C. Glee club that will tour through eastern Oregon during spring vacation. The singers will leave Corvallis March 20 in two large buses chartered for the trip. Regular stops will be made at The Dalles, Pendleton, Baker, La Grande, Union, and Hood River where concerts and entertainment will be given.

Additional stops will be made at Hot Lake, Arlington and Umatilla. At Hot Lake the club will have the use of the swimming pool and the hot mineral baths. In Arlington they will be the guests of the chamber of commerce at its weekly luncheon.

Forty men are to make the trip this year, 30 of the regular glee club, an 8-piece orchestra, and the director and manager. The Glee club has made several tours of this kind before to different parts of the state and on each occasion was well received.

Copper Case Dismissed

On motion of District Attorney Baker, a grand jury indictment against E. J. Copper, Frankton rancher, formally charged with malicious and wanton destruction of property, was dismissed last week. Mr. Copper, it was alleged, shot a valuable bird dog, the property of George Mellon.

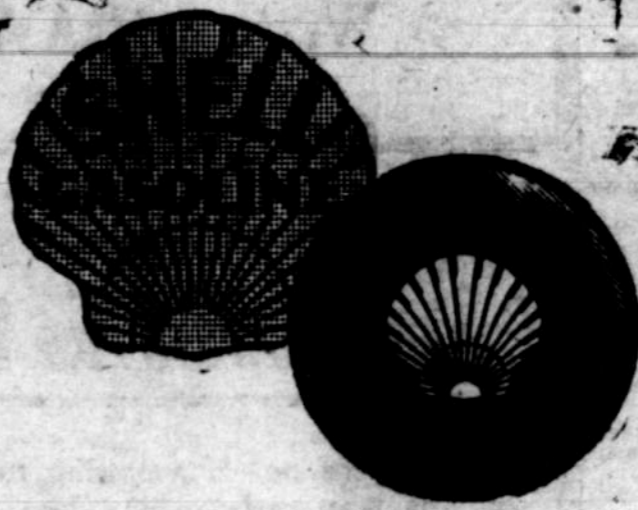

Mr. Baker, in presenting the motion for dismissal, stated that he found that the supreme court in 1920 had reversed a case, wherein a defendant had appealed from the circuit court on a set of facts very similar to those in the Copper case. He said that dogs had been killing Mr. Copper's chickens, and that the latter, after he had shot the dog expressed regret at his action.

Key Pavement Causes Skidding

A. L. Burns, en route Saturday from Tacoma, Wash., to Walla Walla skidded from the Columbia River Highway when his machine struck icy surfacing at Horse-Tail falls. The spray from the falls had frozen on the roadbed. Mr. Burns went over the embankment when he applied his brakes in order that he might see the falls.

After he had emerged from the wreck of his own car he was bruised when a second car skidded from the road striking him.
