WHITE SALMON

(By Will S. Bates)

Cooperative weather observer's report for 24-hour period ending at 5 p. m., Saturday, April 4: Maximum temperature, 51; minimum, 39; partly cloudy; westerly wind; precipitation, .01. April 1 a precipitation of .16 of an inch was recorded.

The Snowden highway has been put in very good shape for auto traffic. The Trout Lake road has been repaired and is reported in good shape. The recent heavy rains, of course, have caused all dirt roads recently graded to depreciate to a certain extent.

Mrs. E. L. Green and son, Eugene, of Portland, were up Saturday for a short visit with the Raymond Smith family, which resides on Burdoin mountain. Jack Prudham, of the St. John's Transfer Co., St. Johns, Ore., accompanied them.

Mrs. Matt Clark, Robert McDonald and R. J. Bates and family, of Portland, motored up the Columbia River Highway Sunday for a short visit at Bates Bros.' ranch, Burdoin Heights.

Many new buildings are being erected here by business concerns and private homes for newcomers are planned for the coming summer. At this time it is impossible to rent a house here, although some are available a short distance out in the country. One family, who came here recently to locate, was advised to try the Eyrie Inn, where several beautiful little cottages were available, as the inn will not reopen this year. Needless to state the fact that these good people were delighted beyond measure. Why not? The view would get anyone.

Mrs. J. L. Morris, of the Bristol trict, is making an extended visit in Chicago, her former home.

Bert Rath and family, of Burdoin mountain, will leave this week for Long Beach, Calif., where Mr. Rath will establish a permanent business of his own. The result of his auction sale, held at the ranch a week ago, was not very gratifying. The fine herd of cattle sold for a price that was considered ridiculous. This place was homesteaded by Mr. Rath many years ago.

Uncle Jimmie Law, former resident of Burdoin Heights at Laws Corner, is living with his sister at Long Beach, Calif. Mr. Law was seriously injured several years ago when a building collapsed, pinning him to the ground and crushing his ribs; rather serious for a gentleman of nearly 80 years of age. A few years ago this energetic little man made trips to Hood River and return in one day, hiking all the way. He claims that deep breathing and plain food were responsible for his splendid health, which he enjoyed up to the time he was injured.

The local baseball team crossed bats with Wasco Sunday, the first game of the season. The home grounds were in excellent condition and the game was well attended. The score will be reported in the next issue of the Glacier.

Mrs. Helm, daughter of Ed Fordyce, rancher residing in the Husum district, attempted suicide by shooting herself in the left side, the bullet passing clear through and out her back. She was attended by Dr. Zener, who reports fair chances for recovery, if no infection results. The young woman was about 26 years of age and had separated from her husband.

The dock grade leading from the North Bank Highway to White Salmon is now in fine shape for auto traffic. J. P. Tonsfeldt, who was in charge of the work, and all those participating in the work, both in cash and labor donated, are to be congratulated. The improvement work was difficult, as it was necessary to "shoot up" the road clear to the rocky summit in order to reduce and widen the grade. The ornamental rocks placed along the cliff several years ago were rolled off the grade by mischievous youngsters who loved to hear 'em drop on Bing-en. Fencing will come later. The scenic drive is attracting much notice among easterners visiting here.

Vandals have been destroying the signs erected by Walter Young, of the Baked Apple Pie cafe here. Wonder where the town marshal is? Quite evident that the authorities here do not believe in signs. Advertising pays, and full permission was granted Young to advertise his growing business without detracting from the beauty of the surroundings.

Harrison Bose, colored, passed away March 31 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. Thomas, in Canyon road district near the city limits. He was born in slavery in the state of Virginia in 1843, and was sold for $100 when but eight days old. When the Civil war broke out he and his young master served together, and when the latter was killed in action Bose returned home and was given his freedom by his young mistress. He was a refugee in the Carolinas, and was married in 1868. He is survived by his adopted daughter, Mrs. Thomas, his wife having passed away in Trout Lake in 1914, where they had resided since 1899. He was a member of the Trout Lake church, a Mason and an ex-master of the Masonic lodge (colored) in Ohio. Interment was held at Trout Lake Wednesday, Rev. Young, of White Salmon Methodist church, presiding.

Mrs. Stahl, of Yakima, (nee Anna Sloutier) was operated upon Monday of last week by Dr. Warner at the Morton hospital here.

The members of the cast of the Woman's Club are rehearsing vigorously and a splendid program is promised Hood Riverites, who will be welcome at this banner show to be staged April 17 at the Columbia union high school gym.

"Windmills of Holland" as presented by the high school students at the local gym. Saturday evening was great, grand and glorious; a credit to the boys and girls who have worked so hard to make it a success. The house was packed to overflowing. The "S. R. O." sign was out and the result was gratifying.

Good Crowd Sees "Capt. Rackett"

A good crowd was present last Thursday evening at the Rialto theatre to see "Capt. Rackett," brought back for a return engagement. The show was one of the best amateur productions here this season. The cast, trained by Mrs. Clyde Simpson, handled their parts well. There were a number of intriguing scenes. Paul Reed portrayed an intoxicated man to perfection.

The Pythian band, which presented the players, gave before and between-act numbers that were highly appreciated.

ROTARIANS ARE GUESTS OF GORGE

It was Rotarian week end at the Columbia Gorge hotel. A party of 60 members of the Portland Rotary Club, headed by Sol Blumauer, arrived Saturday night for a banquet and dance. Sunday 17 of the visitors were extended the courtesy of the links of the Hood River Country Club. The best scores were made by Henry B. Shofner and J. Roy Ellison, who tied with 81.

The visitors had the highest praise for the way they were entertained by Manager Tremblay, of the tourist hostelry, and his staff. They declared that they had seen no golf course finer or more appealing than that at Oak Grove.
