Confidence!

THE largest-selling tire made in any Pacific-Coast-owned factory is the C-T-C.

Today the largest-selling tire, a year ago C-T-C was "on its way up"! Two years ago it was a babe in the industry. Three years ago, an idea. Four years ago—an ideal!

Yet it has taken twenty-five years' tire-building experience to build C-T-C!

Behind C-T-C stands a staff of engineers whose experience in Akron factories runs back more than a quarter century! They know tires!

When you need new tires, let us show you what the C-T-C can do. Or, better still, call in now and get acquainted with this tire that has "made good" quickly because of remarkable mileage records.

SCHOOL NEWS

(Miriam Grow)

Supt. Cannon spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week at Spokane, attending the Inland Empire Educational Association meeting. The state of Oregon was well represented by delegates from nearly all districts of the first class, and from Portland. About 2,000 teachers from the four Northwest states were present. The principal speakers were Dr. Lewis M. Terman, of Stanford University; Hon. J. J. Tigert, United States Commissioner of Education, Washington, D. C.; Lathrop Stoddard, world lecturer, and a host of others. Mr. Cannon appeared before the accrediting commission of the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools and also attended the sectional meeting Thursday afternoon. There are more than 100 standard high schools of the Northwest in this association, in addition to a large number of colleges, normal schools and universities. Hood River high school was placed on the accredited list for another year, but warned against violations of Standard 9, known as the "class and pupil limitations. This standard requirement provides that the average number of pupils per teacher should not exceed 25, that no one class should enroll more than 30, and no one teacher shall have an aggregate of more than 150 pupils in six classes per day. In the Hood River high school we have several classes now of more than 30 each and several teachers have more than 150 pupils per day. It is quite likely that Hood River high school will lose its accredited standing after the coming year if it should not be able to meet the standard requirements.

The annual operetta under the direction of Mrs. Belle Henney was held in the Hood River high school auditorium last Friday. The presentation this year consisted of a double number. The first part was entitled "The Old Singing Woman" and was put on by the Girls' Glee Club. This was a riotous display of beautiful and gorgeous colors. Mildred Sheppard played the part of the Old Singing Woman, while Werdna Isbell was the fairy; others who had leading parts were Virginia Vaughan, Mabel Montgomery, Harriett Fuller and Lois Jean Sinclair. The second part was called "Captain Vander Hum," and it was put on by the Boys' Glee Club, with Prince Koberg as the bold, bad pirate, and Tom Clarke was the cockswain of the captain's gig, sent out to capture the pirate. Other leading parts were taken by Lee Garrett, Harry Weber, Fred Hillis, George Castner, Ed Naumes, Frank Pierson and Gordon Manser, crew of the captain's gig, and Tom Johnson, a landsman. Both numbers were led by the high school orchestra, with Mrs. Hollingworth at the piano. Between acts Clifton Emmel gave musical selections and Leona Van Allen put on a specialty dance, both of which were much appreciated.

At the dress rehearsal in the afternoon there were about 600 school children present at a special rate of 10 cents each. At the evening performance reserved seats sold at 35 cents, and a full house applauded the young people in their extraordinary records. The small admission fee of the afternoon and evening will net a larger return to the music department than several preceding operettas held elsewhere, because the expenses were so much less. The money derived from these affairs after all expenses have been met is used to finance the music department of the Hood River public schools and for any other special purpose which the board of directors approves. This includes music, etc., for the orchestra, the tuning of the several pianos, maintenance of the supply of school song books in the different schools, and for purchasing accessories, music and supplies for the high school glee clubs and grade school teachers. Last year the proceeds of the freshman girls' operetta were applied on the portable moving picture machine which is used in the several city schools and is also used by Mr. Follenius in the recreation program work. The program this year was up to the usual standard which Mrs. Henney has so long maintained and in addition presented the entirely new feature of having the boys put on one complete number.

News of the Golfers

Jack Routledge, in charge of the Golf and Country Club's Oak Grove links, has sounded an appeal for caddies.

"We want all of the youngsters we can get to work on the links this summer," said Mr. Routledge Monday. "I want all of the boys who can take up caddying to meet with me at the Country Club at 10 o'clock next Saturday."

With weather ideal the Oak Grove links was a lure for scores of local folk and many Portlanders Sunday. Eddie Gourley and Harold Spiers, Portland professionals, made the nine holes respectively in 37 and 38, the low scores for the season.

Forty-six men and 16 women qualified for the first annual goat tournament of the Hood River Golf and Country Club. Ratings and pairings for the first individual matches are as follows: Nos. 1 and 2, C. W. Hamilton and E. E. House; 3 and 4, N. P. Mears and G. W. Smith; 5 and 6, Earl Franz and C. Alexander; 11 and 12, Carl Epping and C. C. Anderson; 13 and 14, L. S. Boyd and I. H. Cedarwall; 15 and 16, Leroy Childs and E. C. Smith; 17 and 18, L. L. Murphy and Earl Weber; 19 and 20, Oram Woolpert and C. C. Crew; 21 and 22, Dr. Jenkins and John Annala; 23 and 24, James Collier and S. L. Banks; 25 and 26, Dan Pierson and J. C. Edwards; 27 and 28, W. A. Hackett and C. N. Ravlin; 29 and 30, Walter McDougall and W. L. Nichols; 31 and 32, W. J. A. Baker and E. R. Moller; 33 and 34, W. R. Woolpert and C. T. Dewey; 35 and 36, Harold Davis and C. M. Hurlburt; 37 and 38, H. G. Cooper and Dr. V. R. Abraham; 39 and 40, W. J. Knight and S. J. Moore; 41 and 42, Truman Butler and John Baker; 43 and 44, T. E. Smith and Ted Baker; 45 and 46, A. C. Lofts, Jr., and D. B. Cramer.

Women's Section

1 and 2, Mrs. C. W. Hamilton and Mrs. H. T. DeWitt; 3 and 4, Mrs. A. F. Adams and Mrs. J. R. Norton; 5 and 6, Miss Burteena Woodard and Mrs. B. E. Cobb; 7 and 8, Mrs. Leroy Childs and Mrs. John Baker; 9 and 10, Mrs. G. W. Thomson and Mrs. C. C. Crew; 11 and 12, Mrs. J. C. Edwards and Mrs. T. E. Smith; 13 and 14, Mrs. E. B. Mortimer and Mrs. C. N. Ravlin; 15 and 16, Mrs. H. G. Cooper and Mrs. Harold Davis.

All the above listed matches will be 18 holes each, playable nine at a time, if agreeable to both contestants, and must be completed by April 25. This is match play, by holes, but all medal scores must be turned in at club house for registration of winners and check-up on play. Goat medals will probably be ready for distribution by Saturday.

The qualifying round for the spring handicap tournament will begin Sunday and should be completed by Sunday, May 4. This will consist of 36 holes for men and 18 for women, playable nine at a time, if desired. All qualifying rounds must be declared at club house in advance, and card witnessed by opponent. Entry fee, 50 cents per person. The qualifying round will be scratch play, grouping the players in flights of 16 for the match play which will be played by handicap. Prizes will be given to the winner and runner-up in each flight. Handicaps will be based by the tournament committee on all individual cards available, plus its best judgment as to the ability of each player.

The first team match will be played with The Dalles Country Club at The Dalles course, Sunday, April 26. The Dalles players have invited the local club to bring as many players as desired. All men and women desiring to make this trip and play in the match are requested to turn in their names immediately to E. E. House, chairman of the local tournament committee.

MRS. AGGERS' FUNERAL HELD SATURDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Louise Korner Aggers, who died Thursday at her home on the White Salmon bluff, were held at the Bartmess chapel here Saturday. The Christian Science service was read. Mrs. Aggers was a native of Ohio, aged 76 years. She was married to Geo. I. Aggers, who survives, in 1871. The family formerly resided in Denver, Colo., and Seattle before moving to White Salmon. The body was taken over the Columbia River Highway to Portland for cremation.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Aggers is survived by two daughters, Misses Doris and Maude, who reside at home, and two brothers, George Korner, of Towhatan, O., and Louis Korner, of Pueblo, Colo.

Mosier Has Covered Wagon Pioneers

In Mr. and Mrs. Joe Osborn, Mosier has two "covered wagon" pioneers. Mrs. Osborn, who came to the state with her family in 1852, remembers when the big Meier & Frank department store in Portland was no larger than the store of E. M. Strauss at Mosier.

Mr. Osborn came over the plains with his family in 1864. He was seven years old at the time. There were three wagons in the party, two of them belonging to his parents and the other to four young men. En route the Indians captured the horses of the outfit twice, but they were well hobbled and the owners rescued them. The party started from Dubuque, Ia.

The Osborn family settled on a rented farm near Salem. Two years later they homesteaded a tract near Oregon City. Mr. Osborn remembers when Portland was but a small place. At that time there was only a store, a blacksmith shop and a livery stable on the East Side. The Osborn family moved to Mosier in 1906.

RHODE ISLAND RESIDENT HERE TO STAY

The lure of Oregon has won another "down easterner." Saturday Mrs. J. P. Middleton, of Bristol, R. I., called at the office of Secretary Baker, of the Chamber of Commerce. She announced that literature and correspondence received from the chamber the past winter had drawn her here. Hood River's record for schools and churches was a contributing factor.

Mrs. Middleton, who is accompanied by her 16-year-old son, soon after arriving purchased an automobile from the Bartel Motor Co. She and her son will spend the summer touring the scenic parts of the state.

"Then," said Mrs. Middleton, "we are coming back here and buy a small orchard place. My husband has remained in Bristol, where we have five apartment houses. Just as soon as he can he is going to dispose of these and come to Oregon to join us in making our home. I was never west of Chicago before. But I want to tell you that Oregon is even better than I had anticipated. I have never seen a place of greater beauty than Hood River."

STRANDED WOMAN IS HELPED ON WAY

Her funds cut to six pennies, Mrs. Jane Owen, aged 74, was discovered at the passenger station Saturday night by Night Marshal Conover. The aged woman, feeble from hunger, was making a meal from dry crackers. She was en route, she told the officer, to Pocatello, Ida., where a daughter, Mrs. H. M. Thomas, had been injured in an automobile accident and was thought to be dying. She exhibited a telegram received from a Mrs. Schiaderman, of Pocatello, who was caring for two small children of the daughter. Mrs. Owen recently had been brought from Ogden, Utah, to Portland by a son, Harry F. Owen. After three days the son had deserted the mother, and she had been making her living doing odd jobs, she said, in Portland. She had started on the trip to Pocatello with a capital of but $3.

The woman was taken to the Gem apartments for a rest after a good meal and a check of $25 was provided by the Welfare Association to purchase a ticket on the midnight train and provide traveling expenses to Pocatello.
