His cherry greetings will be missed at the power office, and he goes to his new position with the well wishes of many.

Motor Accident Victim Dies As a result of injuries received the morning of March 19, when he was run down by an automobile at Gray's crossing and East Eighty-second street, Paul Parevati, Italian laborer, who resides in the Mount Hood district, died Monday at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. Parevati was crossing Eighty-second street to board a street car when a machine driver by F. G. Martin, of White Salmon, Wash., ran said to have been traveling at a high rate of speed, struck him. Martin, the police learned, disregarded the railroad crossing bell, which was ringing loudly at the time to warn traffic of the approach of a train.

Parevati's body was taken in charge by the coroner. An attempt may be made to take Martin back to Portland to stand trial.

The facts of the man's death will be laid before the grand jury.

FOR SALE

We are offering for sale our Orchard Home located on the Mt. Hood Loop Highway, about four miles south of Hood River and one-third of a mile from Van Horn Station and the Pine Grove Store. One mile from a church and a five-room school.

The place contains 11 1/2 acres. The soil is of the best and there are no rocks, nor waste land. The buildings are good - house, apple-house, barn, pickers' house, etc. The well is excellent and there is a complete water system including 500 gallon pressure tank and electric pump with 400 gallons per hour capacity.

The orchard is a good producer, contains none but the standard varieties, is convenient to market and considered as among the best of the small tracts in the well known Pine Grove section.

The price is right, and convenient terms of payment may be arranged. It is your opportunity to secure a pleasant home and a good business. Will be pleased to go into detail with interested parties.
