

Hood River Glacier
ARTHUR B. MOSELEY
MAY 14, 1925

THE OLD GRINDER CHANGES
Do you remember the "grinder man" of 30 years ago? He walked up and down residential and business streets, crying, as he pushed a hobby horse of an axle, "Scissors, knives sharpened!"

Eventually Hood River will provide means by a moderate bond issue for paving arterial streets. Until such measures are taken, we will continue to spend large amounts annually on street repairs.

THE NEW KION PARK
We predict that those with leisure time to spend are going to like them away in numbers this summer to Kion National Park, down in Utah.

THE ZION NATIONAL PARK OPEN MAY 15
The scenic wonderland of southern Utah, which embraces Zion National Park, Cedar Breaks and Bryce Canyon, is now open to general travel for the first time, with full motor and rail transportation, national park lodges and other arrangements which will add the celebrated region to the notable groups of parks whose accommodations and transportation facilities make them great national recreational centers.

THE CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT
The members of the city fire department performed like veterans of a metropolitan organization Sunday morning. They attacked the fire calmly and with effect, when one considers the apparatus available here.

MUNICIPAL COMPETITION
Plans of Manager Huelat, who holds the municipal auto park under lease, receiving his remuneration for his labors on a division of receipts from campers, we understand, call for installation of a service station and the construction of a store.

High Ball Offended Here
J. P. O'Brien and S. A. Edmonds, high officials of the O. W. R. & N. Co., accompanying Traveling Freight Agent J. A. Nott, were here Tuesday to investigate the damages caused by Sunday's fire.

FORESTRY SERVICE OFFERS HOMESTIES
The Forest Service has surveyed two groups of summer home sites on the Mount Hood National Forest on the Hood River side of the Mount Hood Loop road.

The Baptist Church
Next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock Prof. Gustav E. Schlaug, of the Lincoln College, will preach the sermon, "Come and hear him. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. Subject of sermon, "A Christian Gentleman."

Riverside Church
Sabbath school, 9:45 a. m., classes for young and old. I. A. Schuch, Supt. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Christian Endeavor society at 6:45, to which all young people are invited.

The First Christian Church
The law of moral gravitation pulls a man towards that which he loves. That is why you serve God through the church. Our Bible school will be held at the usual hour, 9:45, Lord's Day.

Mrs. Guy Sears Wins Picture
Mrs. Guy Sears, of Pine Grove, was the lucky woman who won the Premier Duplex vacuum cleaner given as a prize during the Pacific Power & Light Company's vacuum cleaner campaign.

Mr. Shogren Exhibits Fine Picture
F. A. Shogren, of Mosier, former photographer of the Oregonian, the past week has exhibited at the Kresser drug store a handsome photograph of Mount Hood. The picture, which attracted a great deal of attention, was taken from Brooks meadows.

No More Sunday Tournaments
On account of the congestion on the course the Hood River Golf and Country club directorate has announced that Sunday tournaments with out of town teams will be discontinued after the tournament with The Dalles next Sunday.

Liquor Parolee, 23, was Arrested
Reuben Farnsworth, 23, was arrested Tuesday night by Night Marshal Conover on a charge of intoxication. He was relieved of a bottle of moonshine.

THE ZION NATIONAL PARK OPEN MAY 15
The scenic wonderland of southern Utah, which embraces Zion National Park, Cedar Breaks and Bryce Canyon, is now open to general travel for the first time, with full motor and rail transportation, national park lodges and other arrangements which will add the celebrated region to the notable groups of parks whose accommodations and transportation facilities make them great national recreational centers.
