The opera given at the school house last Wednesday night by the pupils of the Central Vale school was very well performed and very entertaining, and a credit to the teachers and children alike. In spite of a disagreeable night the school house was packed and many had to stand during the performance. The need of a community house in which such entertainments could be given with more ease and better effect was very clearly emphasized.

The membership drive for the Hood River County Health association has been well launched and we hope that by the end of the week a larger percentage of the families in the community will be members. Almost everyone who has been approached on the matter has seen the advantage of stirring up public sentiment and cooperation in keeping our community and county healthy. Each 25 cents which makes a family a member is kept by the community in which it is raised for use in promoting the health of that community.

News of the Golfers

Though beaten by the women's team of the local Golf club Sunday 29 to 10, the local women's team pleased their backers very much by the good showing they made against a much older and stronger aggregation. It was the better balanced strength of the visitors which won for them, their lower players averaging much closer to their leaders than was the case with Hood River.

Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, captain of the local team, captured low score honors for the day with a very fine 89, beating Miss Eleanor Brodie, the best of the visitors, on all three points. The caliber of Mrs. Hamilton's performance is better understood when it is stated that Miss Brodie was beaten out last summer for the women's state championship only by the winner, Mrs. L. W. Palmer. Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. E. De Witt, Mrs. Adams, Miss Woodard, Hood River's four leaders, defeated the four Portland leaders 8 to 2. Mrs. Leroy Childs, playing the best game of her life, was able to win two points for Hood River. The showing of all the other women was better than expected.

Mrs. DeWitt had a fine 98, Miss Brodie 96, Mrs. Rooks a 98. All other scores were over 100. Detailed results: Mrs. Hamilton 83, Miss Brodie 90; Mrs. DeWitt 2, Mrs. Stater 0; Mrs. Adams 2, Mrs. Callan 1; Miss Woodard 1, Mrs. Franklin 0; Mrs. Norton 0, Mrs. Hunt 3; Mrs. Edwards 0, Miss Archambeau 3; Mrs. Crew 0, Mrs. Nichol 3; Mrs. Cobb 0, Mrs. Christiansen 3; Miss Nichol 0, Mrs. Adams 1, Mrs. Franklin 0, Mrs. Rooks 3; Mrs. Thomson 0, Mrs. Tipp 3; Mrs. Baker 0, Mrs. Newland 3; Mrs. Childs 2, Mrs. Northrup 0.
