OUR BIRTHDAY

This is our birthday. The Glacier is 36 years old today. We are just a little older than the predominant fruit industry of the valley.

Then came the boom years of orchard profits, with land soaring to unheard of prices. The mountains, the climate, the lure of scenery was used to sell the apple industry.

Each year, as we have pondered through old files of the years further back than our memory could take us...

With celebratory our birthday by quietly setting about work of getting out a good weekly newspaper for next Thursday.

than a year ago, will not be so great as to create overproduction. If shipping practice wisdom in distribution.

The California Valencia orange crop, which comes on early, will not be in serious competition with the early sales of apples this year.

The outlook for Hood River's export tonnage of Newtowns is especially promising, because of the shortage of export fruit in California.

THE SCHOOL BILL The United States supreme court, in a sweeping decision, has declared unconstitutional the Oregon initiative bill that would have taken from parents the right of directing the education of their children.

It is peculiar to note that in the days of our infancy, at a time when Cloud Cap Inn was built, the community's lure to tourists was to the forefront.

Then came the boom years of orchard profits, with land soaring to unheard of prices. The mountains, the climate, the lure of scenery was used to sell the apple industry.

Join the Legion caravan to the disabled veterans' hospital Sunday. It will be a pleasant jaunt for you, made doubly pleasant by the knowledge that your visit will carry sunshine to those who paid to the utmost for their country.

Hood River has whooping cough. The news should be a warning to parents of young children. Whooping cough is dangerous for young children.

MUSIC A FEATURE OF CLUB MEETING It was such a corking good meeting of the Tuesday Lunch club at the Hotel Waukena this week that before the guests departed Earl Weber was inspired to suggest a vote of thanks to Chairman Coderwall.

JAMES W. MOTT TO ADDRESS GUIDES Hon. James W. Mott, of Astoria, representative in the legislature from Clatsop county, yesterday accepted an invitation to be the chief speaker at the formal institution of the Hood River Guides next Tuesday night.
