JAPANESE ORCHARD 200,000 LIVES

A. Kouchi, Doc. Japanese orchardist, engaged with assistants and crew Thursday when his truck, west over a steep embankment, slid off on Hood River along the long highway just south of the city. Kouchi, who was driving to town, to have his steering gear, engine, stuck by the wheels, and assistants, attempted to take his dead body from the wreckage. The car bounded from embankment and struck the bank, and crashed through a fence around the power-house of the Pacific Power & Light Company.
