Friends Pay Tribute to Leslie Morton

Editorial: The following tributes were paid to Frank Leslie Morton by his friends and his sister's friends at Merter & Frank's, Portland:

"I cannot say, and I will not say that he is dead—he is just away! With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand, He has wandered into an unknown land. And left us dreaming how very fair It needs must be, since he is there. And you—oh you, who the wildest yearn For the old time step and the glad return. Think of him faring as dear In the love of there as the love of here; Think of him still as the same, I say: He is not dead—he is just away." (James Whitcomb Riley)

Signed by Mary Myer, Mae Walbert, Edna Wolf, Eva Wade and twenty others.

There were many beautiful floral tributes, among which was one beautifully wreath by the little girl whose life he saved, with the words, "He gave his all for me." (Jerrine Smith)

Male Quartet Coming to Ashbury

Thursday evening, tonight, at 8 o'clock, the Immanuel Male Quartet and Saxophone Club, of Los Angeles, will give a concert at the Ashbury M. E. church. There will be no admission charge, but a silver offering will be taken. This quartet comes highly recommended by other pastors in whose churches these boys have appeared.

Berry Growers Warned

C. E. Barnes, state fire warden for this section, has issued a warning to strawberry ranchers, now engaged in topping their plants, against burning the dried cuttings before 4 p. m. Mr. Barnes also instructed growers to notify him when the berry runners are burned. Otherwise, he declared, the smoke from the fires creates much annoyance for forest lookouts.

Card of Thanks

On behalf of myself and family I wish to thank each and all of the many friends who so willingly and kindly gave their assistance at the last rites of this noble son, brother and friend to all mankind. We are proud of his record in war, and none the less in time of peace.
