Boxed Apples

Steamer space is absolutely essential for proper foreign marketing. We have secured space on practically all steamers sailing from the Pacific Coast direct to foreign markets.

Requests made to our Portland office for space reservations will have our immediate attention. We urge early reservations in order to avoid disappointment at the last moment.

Cooperative weather report for 24-hour period ending at noon Saturday: Maximum temperature 68, minimum, 45½, clear, west wind.

Mrs. E. L. Greene and son, Eugene, of Portland, and daughter, Heights, visitors during the middle of the week, when final arrangements for the transfer of the Greene-Smith orchard property to a Portland contractor were made. Consideration, four modern residences located in desirable Portland district. The tract consists of 40 acres, 25 of which are in commercial orchard. It is a part of the old Teal homestead adjoining the M. L. Kilian place, first sold to J. Wiley Easham, former manager of the Willard and Mallory hotels in Portland, who in turn sold to F. O. Wolf, wholesale tobacco merchant of Dayton, O. About 11 years ago Mr. Wolf disposed of the property to W. H. Hall, former president of the Hall Safe and Lock Co., Cincinnati, O., who retired from the orchard game three years ago. O. B. Ramey, of Portland, was the purchaser. Early this year he traded the slightly place to Green & Smith for their interests in the St. Johns, Ore. Transfer, Co., which he is now operating. The new owner's name has not been learned, and it is understood that he will place an experienced fruit man on the place at once.

A representative of the Hood River office of the American Fruit Growers, Inc., is waging an active campaign for business throughout this district and is meeting with gratifying results.

The Independent Growers Association will start packing at their Ringen warehouse in a week or 10 days, according to Avery B. Hayes, manager.

Miss Nancy Bates, of Burdoin Heights, returned from Portland Friday, where she attended the wedding of her cousin, Frank J. Towle, Jr., son of Mrs. Mary Belle Towle, of San Francisco, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Clark, of Portland, who was united in marriage Thursday to Miss Dorothy E. Bates, also of Portland. The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon motoring and are expected in Hood River and White Salmon at an early date. The groom is a grandson of the founder of the Towle Maple Syrup Co., St. Paul, Minn., and was formerly connected with that company in their San Francisco office.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake, of Seattle, were Saturday and Sunday guests of Bates Bros., Burdoin Heights district.

Ralph Ryberg's father and mother motored from Portland Saturday for a short visit at their ranch home on the mountain.

We were chided Friday on the absence of a shovel in our Henry, which we usually carry on our trips to White Salmon, which fact was mentioned in last week's issue of the Enterprise. Five minutes' work in filling in holes on the road helps mightily. Saturday we fell down and felt chagrined when we found that a falling down by a nice little lady in Heaman's store. She said: "Howdy, uncle! Where is the scoop you wrote about and boasted of. Answer me that, Mr. Man! Spose this court on Saturday, the 12th day of September, 1923, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Court Room of this Court in the County House, in Hood River City and County, State of Oregon, and there show cause why any order should not be made for the sale of the real and personal property described in the petition herein filed, to-wit:

Let 4, in Block 7 Pleasant View Addition to the City of Hood River, Oregon.

Also a pair tin shears; rip-saw; crosscut saw; panel saw; level; brace; square; jack-plane; block-plane; jointer-plane; hatchet; oil-stove; grind-stone and three chisels, and that said sale may be made at private sale, for cash or on terms; and

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for three successive weeks before the said day of hearing, in the Hood River Glacier, a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in Hood River County, Ore.

Witness my hand hereto this 18th day of August, A. D. 1923.

SHOP, ENGINE BURN

Fire of unknown origin at 1:45 a. m. Friday destroyed the blacksmith and car shop of the Oregon Lumber Co. at Dec. A logging locomotive, in the shop for overhauling, was burned. The total loss was estimated at more than $20,000, partially covered by insurance.

The shop, located across the East Fork of Hood river from the company's mill, was oil soaked, and efforts of fire fighters were futile.
