Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smullin and son, William, motored to Portland and Salem the first of the week.
The movie for Friday evening (tomorrow) will be "Code of the Sea," a thrilling sea story of a young man who was a coward as his father before him and the decision he makes which makes the picture a success. Next Wednesday will be "To the Ladies," a comedy. This is more than a domestic story; it is the life story of millions of average Americans that make up the army of men and women employed in offices, stores and factories, salaried folks, their wives and families.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Keeney entertained the teachers at dinner at the Homestead Inn last Thursday evening.
Hood River Post No. 22, American Legion, and Auxiliary held their meeting in Parkdale Monday evening. The drum corps plainly demonstrated that they were masters. The Auxiliary met in the Sheldrake hall while the Legion held their meeting in McIssac hall. After the business meetings, refreshments and dancing were enjoyed by all. Welcome to the "Town Nearest the Mountain."
A reception to the teachers was held in the grade school Tuesday evening.
Mrs. M. Miriam Rasmus, author and interpretive reader, of Los Angeles, Calif., will give a recital of one of her latest books, "The White Robed Stranger," at the Community church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Rasmus is recognized as one of the most talented women on the lyceum platform. And at this time when the peoples of the world are reaching out for a better understanding between each other, this story of war and peace is especially pertinent. It is filled with spirituality, striking climaxes, sentiment and dramatic appeal. No admission charge will be made but a silver offering will be taken. The church choir will contribute to the program. Everybody most cordially invited to attend.
S. G. Babson will lead the forum session next Sunday morning and will give his impressions of European conditions. The meeting will commence at the usual hour, 10 o'clock, at the manse.
Excellent congregations greet the pastor every Sunday morning at the Community church. There's a reason. You will enjoy the sermon and the music too. Church school meets at 10 a. m. Classes for all ages. Worship hour, 11 to 12. Young people's devotional service at 7 o'clock. "The White Robed Stranger," a dramatic recital by Mrs. M. M. Rasmus, of Los Angeles, will be given at 8 p. m. Come and bring your friends.
