Mrs. Katherine Barger, 81 years old, familiarly known to her friends as Grandma Barger, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Metzger, in Bend, September 22. Hibbard, Mrs. Ellis Wylie, all of Portland, and Fred Metzger, of Bend, and Franklin Barger, of Hood River. She is also survived by three great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held at Bend, interment being in the Greenwood cemetery. Phone 1014 and have Meyer Cleaning Works call for your suit. It will be cleaned and pressed and returned ready for immediate wear.

ODELL

Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Bowerman and their small son and daughter arrived Friday night, having motored from their home near Los Angeles, Calif. They made the trip in four days and expect to stay for an extended visit at the home of Mr. Bowerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

Mrs. G. E. Bowerman and daughter, Miss Irma, were business visitors in Portland Friday.

Mrs. Eleanor D. Hull has written here expressing her appreciation of the messages she received from local friends upon her birthday anniversary. There were 38 cards and Mrs. Hull does not feel equal to the task of replying to each one individually, but wishes all who remembered her to know that their thoughtfulness gave her great happiness.

Mrs. G. W. Lafferty is expected home soon from a summer vacation trip to her old home in Missouri. En route home she has stopped over with relatives, the last stop having been with her son, J. B. Lafferty, at Weiser, Idaho.

Miss Lucile Atkinson and Miss Meta Higginbotham, both stenographers, of Portland, stopped for a very short call in Odell Sunday morning. Both young ladies have enjoyed a two weeks' vacation motoring and visiting relatives in eastern Oregon and eastern Washington. They were returning home via the Mt. Hood Loop highway. Miss Atkinson was a former resident of Odell, this being her first visit here since 13 years ago.

Miss Howard, of the high school faculty, is spending the apple vacation at her home near Seattle, Wash.

Miss Eloise Reed, also of the high school faculty, has gone to her home at Salem for the vacation.

Rev. W. S. Gleaser, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Byars and sons and Miss Eloise Reed, motored to Eugene Tuesday to attend the annual conference. Mrs. Byars and children stopped off in Portland and Miss Reed in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weber, of The Dalles, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hanson Sunday.

Up to and including Tuesday of this week the Apple Growers Association had shipped from Odell 20 cars of pears. Tuesday the first cars of apples, two cars of Crisp and Spitznberg, were shipped from the local warehouse of the Apple Growers Association. W. F. Young is manager of the warehouse; Mrs. W. F. Young, stock-keeper, and John Annala, of Oak Grove, in charge of pear packing and sorting.

After having spent the past several weeks in a hospital in The Dalles, Mrs. J. C. Duckwall returned home Saturday. Mrs. Duckwall submitted to a mastoid operation and has suffered severely.

Mrs. L. Plog has been brought home from Hood River hospital. She is not able to be about but friends hope soon to hear encouraging reports regarding her condition.

Mrs. Fleck-Clark of New York city, vice president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, with her daughter, also Mrs. Levens, representative of International Interdenominational missionary work, and ladies of Riverside church, Hood River, were present at last Sunday evening's meeting which they helped in making very interesting.

Sunday school 10:15 a. m. at the Methodist church next Sunday. The first Sunday in each month is set apart by the Sunday school as Missionary day. Mrs. J. E. Ferguson has been requested to arrange a program and she promises special musical numbers and other selections, appropriate. It has not been definitely decided whether this program will be given as an opening service or at close of Sunday school. As this is Conference Sunday there will be no morning sermon. At 6:15 p. m. Junior church, Vera McCoy, leader. At 7:15 combined Epworth League and church service, observing the annual apple harvest festival. Miss Meryl Oliver, Miss Longbotham and Miss Olga Plog, committee in charge of program, announced that at 8 o'clock a miscellaneous program, consisting of an address, readings and musical numbers including solo work and community singing, will be given complimentary to the apple workers who are for the time being at home in our community. This has been for the past six or seven years an autumn event in this church and growers are urged to notify their help of its date and purpose.

CENTRAL VALE

The apple harvest being in full swing, there is little sociability to note. The transients are so numerous in the school, especially in the lower grades, that there are not seats enough and some are forced to sit two in a seat. This crowded condition is very undesirable both from a health and from an educational standpoint and some way should be considered to solve the problem, at least before another year.

Harold Hagon and young Pemberton, of Odell, spent last week hunting, but although they enjoyed the sport they did not have the luck to bring home any trophies.

Mrs. C. E. Schweizer left Wednesday morning to spend the rest of the week at Salem. She went as chaperon for the girls of the county who are fortunate enough to have a free trip to the state fair. The three girls to go from our own community are Mary Lewis, Elene Downing and Ruth Ingalls. We are all glad that they are able to go as they deserve this reward for their efforts.

Mrs. H. A. Sylvester substituted for Mrs. Schweizer for the three days she was away.

Mrs. L. E. Allen is teaching the room for transients at Pine Grove this fall.

PORTLAND WAY

September 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hankins were visitors at the Pendleton Round-Up last week.

Apple picking here and in Oak Grove has begun in dead earnest now.

Mrs. Pearson, and Mrs. McGraff and two children, from Portland, were week end visitors at Dr. Diamond's last week.

Gordon Burke has returned from eastern Oregon and is now preparing to haul apples. Mr. Burke came here from Canada seeking health and we are hoping our wonderful climate will restore him to his usual state of health and strength.

Miss Ruth Purdy, who has been visiting her parents and relatives here, was called to The Dalles on a case of nursing.

Mrs. Chas. Ellsworth is a Portland visitor this week.

Miss Maurie Mitchell, of Danville, Ill., niece of Dr. Diamond, has accepted a position as teacher in the music department of the state normal school at Monmouth. Miss Mitchell, a graduate of Northwestern University, Chicago, has been teaching in the east with great success, but after visiting our wonderful west decided she would like to remain out here. Radio messages are coming in very clearly these nights. One can scarcely become used to the fact we can sit in our homes isolated as it were, and hear wonderful concerts and programs from San Francisco, Los Angeles, Denver, Ogden, the north and the east quite as plain as though one were in the concert rooms. What will be the next great achievement of man for man? Orchardists are hoping this nice weather will continue until the apples are harvested.

Trucks have been utilized last week in transporting 200,000 eastern brook and rainbow trout fry from the Dead Point hatchery near Dee to Lost Lake. The Dead Point hatchery has propagated more than 1,500,000 of eastern brook and rainbows this season. The remainder of the fry was distributed in tributaries of Hood River and the White and Salmon rivers.
