 Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McGuire will leave next week for Portland, whence, after the stock show is over, they will leave for a 4-month stay in southern California. Mr. McGuire, who has been ill for several months, is showing a marked improvement, and it is thought the visit in California will further improve his health. His string of Jerseys will be cared for during his absence by Howard Hollenbeck, who will also maintain his milk route.
 The members of St. Mark's parish are to have a get together dinner Tuesday, November 3, at 6.30 p. m., in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Miller's return from the general convention at New Orleans. A full attendance is requested.
 Fielding S. Kelly, whose hobby is gardening, is exhibiting a huge winter squash that is a curiosity because of its unique shape. The squash weighs about 60 pounds. It looks like a huge turtle. It is rounded normally on top, but the under side is concave.
 Mrs. Fred Ries, who now resides at Santa Paula, Calif., has been here the past six weeks visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Ries brought messages to numerous local friends from A. A. Jayne, pioneer local attorney, who is now residing in Santa Paula.
 The Elks lodge is planning a big social event for all the members of families of Elks in the near future. It is anticipated that a large number of the lodge members will be present at the exciting tomorrow night when the plans for the social affair will be discussed.
 The O. W. R. & N. Co. is engaged in making repairs to its water system here. Standpipes are being refitted and improved. The huge tank, fed by the water system of the Apple Growers Association, is being repainted inside and out. A temporary wooden tank is being used while the painting is under way.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hovey, who have been making their home at Eagle Point in the Medford district, where Mr. Hovey was superintendent of a large orchard tract, have arrived here and are now at home on the B. E. Helfer place in the Belmont district. They purchased this place last spring.
 Another of the historic oak trees of Hood River was sacrificed this week as a safety measure. The tree stood on the lawn of the home of S. F. Blythe. It was known because of a huge hole several feet up from the ground. Mr. Blythe is endeavoring to find someone who wishes to make use of the hole for furniture making.
 Mrs. C. A. Bell and a party of friends made a motor trip last Friday up the Loop Highway and thence by way of Wapinitia cut-off back down to the Columbia River highway. The journey was declared to be very appealing. The foliage of various trees, it was said, is now vari-colored, setting the landscape aflame.
 A crew of six men are now engaged in the reconstruction of the Pacific Telephone company's line between here and Mosier. J. W. Johnson, former University of Oregon student, is with the crew. The line passes from the city to the East Side orchard district and thence by way of the old wagon road to The Dalles into the neighboring orchard section.

 J. L. Carter, East Side pioneer, whose orchard place is now owned by John Rath, was here the first of the week from Portland visiting the family of his son, Miles C. Carter. Mr. Carter was en route to Heppner, Pendleton, Baker and La Grande and Walla Walla, Wash., where he will visit relatives and friends for a month before returning to Portland.
 Dr. and Mrs. H. D. W. Pines left Thursday for Vancouver, B. C., to attend a family reunion in celebration of the golden wedding of Dr. Pines' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Pines. Sons and daughters from all parts of the United States and Canada will be present for the jubilee event. Mr. and Mrs. Pines lived in Hood River for a number of years.
 One Hood River student, Miss Marguerite Ferrin, has completed a correspondence study course in the extension division of the University of Oregon. Miss Ferrin studied modern civics. That the people in Oregon are making increasingly good use of the correspondence courses is indicated by the fact that completions of courses thus far in 1925 show a gain of approximately 40 per cent over last year.
 Tuesday evening, October 20, Mrs. John Zolls entertained with a birthday dinner in honor of her daughter, Miss Marie Elizabeth Zolls. The dining room was decorated in real Halloween style, and there were clever favors and sassy caps for the guests. A lovely dinner was served at 7.30 p. m. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Byers, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wetts, Miss Eleanor Hoover, Miss Agnes Emmel, George Zolls and Mrs. Zolls. Miss Zolls received many lovely gifts.
 Last Sunday the First Christian church of this city celebrated the 20th anniversary of its organization with an appropriate service. W. A. Wood spoke on "The Past," A. B. Cash spoke on "The Future," and the minister followed with a brief talk on "The Present." Anniversary offering was received to pay for the newly installed furnace which cost $308. The offering totaled $330. Mrs. Reed, representing the organized Women's Work of the church in the state, spoke at the evening service.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moe, accompanied by their son, Roger W. Moe, and family, motored to Metzger Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Axel N. Rahm. Mr. and Mrs. Moe, Jr., and baby visited a sister of Mrs. Moe, Mrs. A. A. Baldwin, and family. Mrs. Moe and baby daughter remained for a more extended stay, the others of the party returning home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Rahm are comfortably located at their home at Metzger. Spacious grounds surround their home. Mr. Rahm's hobby is his garden. Residents of the section declare that he has grown the finest garden in Oregon this year. He produced abundant crops, despite the dry season, although his tract was not irrigated.
PINE GROVE TO HAVE HARD TIMES PARTY
 The Pine Grove grange will celebrate the end of the apple harvest season with a hard times party at the grange hall Saturday evening. Since the date falls on Halloween, the refreshments will smack of this autumnal event, and those who are at the pleasant party will feast on pumpkin pie, cider and doughnuts.
 A double fine will be assessed, all who attend the party wearing modern clothes.
PORTLAND WAY
 Robert Beck, of Portland, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rankins, is making his home with them, attending high school here but going to Portland every week and to take lessons on pipe organ. Mr. Boone, organist at First Christian Science church is his teacher.
 Miss Georgia Carter, who had been visiting at the home of Dr. L. H. Diamond and working in the apples, has returned to her home in Portland.
 Most of the orchardists have finished with their apple crops and have taken advantage of the fine weather to finish their spraying.
 Mrs. Roy Cornell, a former resident on Portland Way, was calling on old friends Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Cornell have purchased a Star coupe, Mrs. Cornell driving the car with ease and comfort.
 Chas. Schunkneck escaped a near accident Saturday night while leading his horses alongside the highway. An automobile being driven without lights ran into the horses, knocking one down and doing a bit of damage to the machine. Mr. Schunkneck managed to get one side in time to avoid the impact of the machine but had no chance to protect the horse. So much for no lights.
 Clyde Burke has finished his apple crop and spraying on his own place, and is now spraying for other orchardists.
 The first fall mist made its appearance yesterday in our neighborhood, although signs of the coming rains have been noticed across the Columbia.
 Many of the orchardists have enjoyed the Navy Day exercises and programs over the air, and what a wonderful pleasure to those who have no other way of hearing concerts or programs. Who could call a radio an extravagance? The one must have food as well as the body to help keep peace of thought and activity. What a blessing to country folks to have a radio—one that is clear and distinct, void of static and mysterious noises.
 Floyd Rankins expects to finish with his apples this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Nate Emmett were callers at their orchard and on friends on Portland Way last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stranahan were callers at Dr. Diamond's last Thursday afternoon.
Card of Thanks
 We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kind aid and sympathy during our recent bereavement attendant on the death of our son. Their ministrations will be kept in sacred memory. John Losler and Family.
