day: Maximum temperature 42; mini-

The Merry Widow dance at Legion hall Saturday night was a most enjoyable affair and the attendance was beyond expectations. Bud's Aces furnished excellent music for the occasion and a silver loving cup was awarded to the winners. The dance heralds the presentation of the popular film bearing the above title, which will be shown at the Dewey movies Thursday and Friday. There will be special music. All the "merry" widows will be there and in seats well forward.

Richard J. Bates, of Portland, was a visitor at his Burdoin home Thursday. He has sold his garage business, Coast Motors, Inc., located on Fourth and Harrison to a Portland man.

Alpe Miller, pioneer homesteader in the Pine Flat district northeast of here, is reported as being confined to his bed, the result of a stroke several weeks ago.

The Guild will hold its annual bazard and dinner at the I. O. O. F. hall December 12.

N. A. Ingram was appointed inspector of the city election to be held next month, and Mrs. H. H. and Mrs.
Braunman judges at last week's session of the town council. Councilmen Colburn and Braunman are boldovers on the council.

Mountain Brook Community hall will be taxed to the utmost Thanksgiving day when the good folks will gather from all "round" for a big turkey "n" everythin' dinner, followed by a big dance in the evening. Fine music too.
The dinner will be given by the ladies of the Mountain Brook club.

Mrs. Tom Norbury, Jr., Mrs. Orgolis Thomas and Miss Catherine Wilke narrowly-escaped serious injuries when a Ford coupe in which they were riding skidded in the loose gravel and turned over several times on the North Bank highway near the Standard Oil plant Score due for the closed car.

Orval Zumwalt has inaugurated taxi service between White Salmon and the depot, which was discontinued by R. R.
Foster some time ago.

Mrs. L. K. West, of Seattle, grand matron of the Eastern Star of the state of Washington, and Mrs. Lena M.
Patchell, of Ellensburg, associate grand matron, were guests of the local chapter Saturday evening, November 14. A number of the members of the Trout Lake chapter were also present, as were members from Lyle and several Oregon chapters.

W. T. Newby, of the North Bank Laundry, has transferred the management of the plant to Mrs. Geo. Rankin.
It is not known what Mr. Newby's plans are for the future, or where he will reside.

Members of the Bridge club were entertained by Mrs. W. H. Warner at a luncheon Tuesday afternoon.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jewett gathered at the Jewett home on the bluff November 4 to help celebrate the 80th birthday of Mr. Jewett. Several out of town guests were present. Mr.
Jewett settled here many years ago, when there were practically no white settlers in this district. The spacious property was formerly known as the Jewett Farm and is located at the top of the Dock road.

Mrs. David Shore entertained the members of the 500 Card club Tuesday at her cozy home on the White Salmon river. Mrs. A. T. Reid won high honors and Mrs. Braunman consolation.

The Woman's club of Husum gave a New England supper and program at the Husum school house Saturday evening. The attendance was gratifying and the weather sublime.

Floyd Brown, of North White Salmon shot a five-point buck deer in the Dry Creek district in the hills above Camp 5 last week. The going is hard up there and some difficulty was experienced in packing the animal down to the front Lake road. Two other hunters from Washougal killed a buck a piece during the afternoon Saturday.

I. Kidja, Japanese weather prognosticator, who runs a perpendicular farm in the mountain district northeast of here, says: "Winter he be in full brast rather part November."

UNDERWOOD

A fire started from an oil stove in the summer cottage of Mrs. Packard last week. The cottage was being used by the Ladies' Aid society, and it was while the ladies were at lunch in the other building that the fire was discovered. The presence of mind and good use of a fire extinguisher saved the building. Some of the contents were lost and a new quilt that the ladies were making.

Mr. and Mrs. Aleck Silas are recovering from their very serious auto wreck of last week. It was thought at first that Mrs. Silas had a fractured skull, but proved not later. The wreck took place on the Cooks grade in a heavy fog which caused Mr. Silas to drive the car off the grade. The car, a new Ford, was a complete wreck.

Stevenson Ships Christmas Trees

Price Bros. of Stevenson, Wash., will ship an approximate 30,000 young fir trees to southern California and western Oregon and Washington this season. The men have begun the harvest of the trees and now have about 7,000 at their sorting yard. In a number of cities, the Christmas tree dealers stated, they will sell trees in large quantities to wealthy men who will place them in the homes of the poor.
This order alone, it was stated, will require 18,000 trees.

Stevenson Sawmill Proposed

Lumbermen of this section are interested in plans for establishing a large sawmill at Stevenson. The Chamber of Commerce and citizens who own water front property on the Columbia river are boosting the proposed mill.
It is estimated that a billion feet of logs lie within an economic radius of the Skamania county seat. It is proposed to truck many of the logs from upland country and float them down to the new mill.

two days before, for Mrs. Nancy God-followed at the Clackamas cemetery.

Kentucky. She made her home here for several years, leaving in 1911 for Portland. The ritualistic rites of the Rebekahs were observed.
