Don't forget the radio carnival Saturday evening, when the ladies will serve a chicken dinner and have on sale just the Christmas presents you want to get for mother, father, sister or brother. There will be a splendid program free.

The movie next Wednesday will be "Ruggles of Red Gap," with Lois Wilson, Louise Dresser, Ernest Torrence and others equally as good in the cast. This is a comedy and you will enjoy it.

After spending the Thanksgiving holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Keeney, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fastabend returned to their home in Astoria Sunday.

Thursday, November 19, the high school students were very much interested in an address by County Superintendent Crites on the educational conditions and people in the northern part of Kentucky, where he spent several summer vacations.

Beginning Monday, November 30, the hot lunches were again begun in the grade school. These lunches, made possible by the local Parent-Teacher association, are very much appreciated by the students.

Friday, November 20, through the kindness of R. J. Melsane and others, two films, one on the wheat industry and the manufacture of flour and one on the lumber industry, were shown to the students of the grade and high schools.

During the first three days of last week the teachers of the local schools spent Monday in visiting schools that were in session and observing methods and Tuesday and Wednesday at Institute at Hood River.

Fourteen young people represented the Christian Endeavor society from the local church at the county rally in Hood River Sunday evening.

The Orthophonic concert in the grade school given in connection with the radio carnival is free to everybody. You cannot afford to miss it.

What are your plans for Sunday? Why not bring the whole family to church? Teaching session and forum at 10 o'clock, worship with sermon by the pastor at 11. Young people's devotional meeting, 7 p. m. Preaching service in the Mt. Hood church at 8.

The young people's society presented W. B. (Billy) Snullin with a Christian Endeavor emblem Sunday morning. Before entering Willamette University he took a prominent part in the activities of the society.

Do your Christmas shopping at the radio carnival Saturday evening. By doing this you will solve your own problems and help a worthy cause.

Christmas seals are being sold this week by the Boy Scouts. In case you are missed call R. A. Hutchinson, phone 322, and he will see that you are supplied.

Don't forget January 3, 1926.

LEGION NOTES

Next Monday night we will hold our annual elections. Let's have a real gathering at that time. This is the time when you line up your post for next year's work. Get out and take a hand in it. You have a long list to select from. Do your crabbings before the election instead of after. Here is your list:

Commander, Herschner, McLeod and Frey; vice commanders, McLeod, Baker, Hettlinger, Lofte; adjutant, Baker, Bentley, Lofte; Gunn; finance officer, Gunn, Bentley, Whetzel, Joe Horn, Hunter; chaplain, Abraham, Fraser; sergeant-at-arms, Barker, Benson, Morrison, Whetzel, Lenz, Bins, Miller; historian, Bill Cochran; executive committee, two to be elected, Lee, Frey, Lofte, Abraham, Blackman, Hettlinger, Wilson, Joe Horn, Hurlburt.

The success of the post during 1925 depends a lot on the officers you select. Pick your men, then get out and work for them. Let's have the 200 worn out ex-gobs, soldiers and horse-marines present at the meeting next Monday night. Also we will have cats. There are several other important matters to come before the meeting, and it is bound to be an interesting session.

Monday is a dedication night for the Auxiliary. Here is the list they have to pick from:

President, Mrs. May Walcott; Mrs. Lois Sutton, Mrs. A. L. Anderson, Mrs. A. D. Ramsey, Mrs. A. L. Schmidt; vice president, Mrs. F. L. Backman, Mrs. Geo. R. Wilbur, Mrs. F. E. Kingdon, Mrs. L. M. Bentley, Mrs. Lowell Nickelsen, Mrs. Robt. Frey, Mrs. Walter

Pumpkins Put Out Fire
Pumpkins for fire extinguishers! That is the latest use for them in the Willamette valley. Harry Dorman, Portland traffic man, and a friend recently were driving from Portland to Corvallis when their automobile caught fire. There was no water near and no time to lose. For several miles they had been leaving a trail of smoke that called forth excited comment from those they passed, but they had no idea what the trouble was until smoke began pouring up between the floor boards. The men jumped out and looked around for aid. Beside the road lay a field of corn and pumpkins. The two men gathered all the pumpkins nearby and smashed them on the pavement. The moist chunks were applied and the car was saved. There is no record of how many Thanksgiving pies were ruined.

K. of P. Take Notice
Don't forget the district convention at Wasco Friday, December 4. The banquet will be served at 7:30. The convention and contest being held immediately after at the new high school and auditorium. A full attendance of grand lodge officers is expected and the Hood River Pythian band will be there to furnish the music.

Chancellor commander, R. O. Clark; vice chancellor, L. R. Alexander; prelate, Julius Johnson; master of work, F. G. Coe; keeper of record and seal, H. M. Wood; master of finances, P. F. Bucklin; master of exchequer, W. H. Edick; master of arms, L. O. Barton; inner guard, Newton Clark; outer guard, A. J. Stranahan; trustees, L. L. Gooch.

Just Little Stories
The children in the Sunday school at St. Mark's Episcopal church each Sunday offer a prayer for some high officer of the nation or state. They have prayed for the president, the governor and others. Last Sunday when the time came for the customary prayer for a state or national official the teacher asked members of the class to name someone in authority who should have the support of the children's prayers. One little boy lifted his hand, and when the teacher asked him for his suggestion he said:
"Let's pray for the speed cop. He is a man of authority."

He Was in Wrong Store
Fred Mortensen, who will wrestle Ted Thye, world champion light heavyweight, here Saturday night, tells a good story on "Farmer" Burns of Omaha, Neb., known as the world's greatest wrestling teacher. The Farmer has a neck that measures 22 inches. One day he went into a haberdashery and asked for a soft collar.

"What number?" asked the clerk.
"Twenty-two," replied Farmer.
"My good man," said the clerk, "You're in the wrong place. The haberdashery is three doors down the street."

Commandery Elects
Officers of Hood River Commandery of Knights Templar were elected Tuesday evening as follows: A. M. Cannon, commander; C. H. Jenkins, generalissimo; A. F. Howes, captain of the guard; E. O. Blanchard, treasurer; W. M. Irwin, recorder; Levi Whetzel, prelate; H. E. Baker, senior warden; G. B. Marsh, junior warden; Arthur Johnson, sword bearer; Walter Nack, standard bearer; Tom Fisher, warder, and C. G. Cornelius, sentry. The business shop is three doors down the street.

U. of O. to have New Coach
While no football coach for next year has been hired by the University of Oregon, it is announced that delicate negotiations will be brought to a close by December 10.

Rumors that a coach has already been secured are unfounded, according to Virgil Earl, director of athletics. Mr. Earl is in touch with one or more prospects, and, after his recommendation has been made to the executive council, a coach will be elected by that body. It is expected that a decision will be reached within a week.

Local Man in Shrine
C. E. Copple was one of a large class initiated into the mysteries of Al Kador temple of the Mystical Shrine in Portland last Saturday night. Nobles from here at the big ceremonial of high Masons were: Ed Wolfe, E. O. Blanchard, O. B. Nye, L. E. Carson, Walter Nack, George Sheppard, H. O. Kresse, Arthur Johnson, C. C. Anderson, Dr. Abraham C. H. Castner, Lee Whetzel, Walter Woolpert and B. A. Woolpert.

Sida Wanted
For clearing of the brush, stumps, logs, leveling and plowing of about four acres of the High School grounds at Parkdale. All living fir trees to be left and the work to be finished by June 1st, 1926. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, which must be in the hands of the Clerk on or before December 14, 1925.
H. H. Hann, Clerk.
