Birthdays, it seems, mean more didren and old folks than to th in the busy hey dey of life. The Gla-cier has passed childhood and hasn't yet reached old age, and we came near forgetting that today is our birthday. We are 37.

We want to celebrate ft in a very in formal way by calling attention of our readers to the fact that the original road to Cloud Cap was completed in 1889 on the week of our first in 1889 on the week of our first issue. The name, "Glacier," was selzed on by in the Mid Columbia league, and all the best teams have been played. Ex-pectations are that the local boys will the late John H. Totals: Hood River 4 runs, 8 hits and 7 errors; The Dalles 7 runs, 8 hits and 3 errors.

With the closing of the school year the local baseball team is contemplating starting a second team to play the teams in the valley who are not strong enough to take on the first team.

At the recent business meeting o the baseball club discussions were in order concerning the Fourth of July elebration for Hood River. The firemen are not going to have a show her as has been the usual custom for the past few years, and so there will be no big program arranged unless some other group takes it in hand. Many of the faus were ir favor of asking for a franchise from the city council to put on an oldtime celebration, featuring horse races, Indian dances, log burling Hood River business firms. horse races, Indian dances, log burling and all the amusements that were pop-horse races, Indian units, were popular here a decade ago. Pine street would, if arrangements are satisfactory, be used as a race track and much of the amusements could be held at the ball field, where a three-day base hall series would be held. DEDICATE LOOP

The Hood River Guides will take prominent part Saturday in the formal dedication of the Loop highway by the Portland Ad club. The local uniformed Fortland Ad club. The local uniformed body will meet the visitors, who will come over the loop by way of Govern-ment camp in a big motor cortege, and will escort them to the Billy Sunday ranch for a strawberry luncheon. Bob Robinson, chairman of the at-tendance committee, reported that at least 50 automobiles would be in the caravan. They will carry city and caravan. They will carry city and state officials, foreign consuls, repre-sentatives of various organizations and members of the Advertising club.
