Queen Marie, of Rumania, is coming to America. She will visit the midolumbia and dedicate the Rumanian ing for a couple of weeks. Som in Sam Hill's international mu-Born—To Mr. and Mrs. mbia and dedicate the Rumanian seum at Maryhill. We suggest that Hood River dignitaries invite her maj-esty here to see the real gem of all the visit with her sister, Mrs. A. M. Butter-Cascades.

Great and momentous are the changes now in process on this old globe. The Fascists are planing to change the habits of the Italians. They are going Sunday. to substitute potatoes for macaroni and spaghetti. It will rain the Italian restaurant business.

It was very refreshing the other day, when the temperature was 103, to read that the Argentine was experiencing the worst winter in years and that the snow was burying houses on the base of the Andes.

Strawberries are gone, but they have been succeeded by Hood River peaches. The fruit was never finer, and the routine of an afternoon's work is made less boresome by dreams of peaches and cream for the evening meal.

Indeed, and it is an age of speed In less than 29 days the globe is encircled by two intrepid men. Means of communication have been so developed that we have been able to watch con stantly their every move.

We reaffirm all we said two weeks ago about chewing tobacco while work ing in or on vacation trips in the forest. Leave your cigarettes at home and take a plug. Splitting is safer in the woods than puffing.

Where is the savant who last winter prophesied that the summer of 1926 would be characterized by wintry blasts and frosts? He's probably up in the mountains, escaping the heat.

Roofs are dry, and the dry grass of vacant lots is like tinder. Be careful,
