Pythian Notes

Plans for the delegation from all lodges of District No. 7 to visit the Pythian home at Vancouver Sunday, August 29, are completed. All will leave at will and plan to arrive at the home at 11.30. After picnic dinner of the grounds the band will render specially prepared program which will be interspersed with vocal solos and dramatic reading by some of Hood River's best talent. A good interest is manifested and a large delegation Knights, their families and friends is expected to go. Anyone not having a way to go will be provided for if the committee is notified.
