

The board of directors of School Dis-trict No. 3 will meet in special session next Monday, August 30, to open bids on the new high school. If the bids are accepted the contracts will be let immediately and work begun; it is ex-pected that the concrete walls will be finished and the roof put on before The greatest gathering of Oregon Agricultural college people ever assem-bled off the campus will be at the Ruby golf course near Portland Wednesday afternoon, September 1, for a reunion, picnic and dance, from 12.30 o'clock to midnight. pected that the concrete walls will be finished and the roof put on before bad winter weather arrives. Supt. A. M. Cannon was in Mon-mouth last week attending a state con-ference of educators, on the use of educational tests.

educational tests. The Business of Going to School The enthusiasm of school promotion is past. Removed from that occasion by a three months' period, parent and child face a new school year. There arises the alternative, back to school or get a 'job.'' If the child is young there is no choice; if older, and be considerations are additional income for the home; in chination and capabilities of the child the general value placed on education the accessibility of school privileges, on the one hand, and the cost of going there is how chool, on the other, and suc-tiens will be determining factors. History might record many a story of the parting of chums. One goes to work; the other the investment of time for the other the invest History might record many a story of the parting of chums. One goes to work; the other continues in school. One follows the lure of "ready money"; the other the investment of time for future returns. The one has a set vision and uninspired hope; the other an enlarging horizon and increasing appreciation of service. The one may be held by the deadening influence of routine; the other moved by a desire for greater initiative, the satisfaction of independent thinking and the thrill of being creative. Their parting, based on similar hopes, may lead them poles the day with fun. -Archery tournaments are to be or-ganized, and Doug McKay, '17, will manage a marble tournament. Cries of "vent dubs" will mingle with "fore" and "three hearts."

Any friend of O. A. C. who has a chance is requested to join the re-unioners and bring their friends in the midsummer reur on similar hopes, may lead them pole WHITE RIVER BRIDGE

Every community boasts one or more large industries, factories for building citizenship. This business is somewhat seasonal, running at capacity usually from nine to ten months in the year.

apart.

Sometimes, unfortunately, operations are as low as four, five and six months.

Sometimes, unfortunately, operations are as low as four, five and six months. With the beginning of the year come promotions in business. Similarly, with the beginning of the new school year, the schools pass around their oppor-tunities for a higher grade of learning. In business there is a ceaseless evolu-tion to produce men and women of pradeces, of leadership in that business. rent, laden with heavy silt, carrying before it boulders as large as automo places, of leadership in that business. It is so in the schools. With the prometion in business comes biles, was declared a sight worth see

The White river bridge on the Mount added earning power. Figures are not ing. The washout caused much incon wanting to demonstrate the same re-sults from increased school training. To wanting to demonstrate the same re-sults from increased school training. To quote Dr. Everett Lord, of Boston uni-versity, "Labor begins its activities at the age of 14 and arrives at its maxi-mum earning power at 30. This aver-broke. In order to reach home they age is $1200. From this point on it dwindles and falls below the point of self-support at 50 years. A high school Columbia river highway.

I'm simply wild about them and they took to me like fire. They'll rest for me or anything. They took to dad, too. He could do anything with them. Or-ville and Carl Zimmerman came up after awhile with their great Dane. I graduate begins activities at the age of an earning power of $2200. The college graduate begins activities at the age of the age of the the second to be the an earning power of $2200. The college and the second to be the second

CAMP FIRE NOTES Camp at Limberlost, Lost lake, has

nate at 60 is $6000." much. There has been a great deal of parents owe it to their children to building the past year and it is still three mins down to where they were. I had to drop back because of a nose bleed, and the boots were hurting like everything by that time, but I caught up with them at the Forks. The dogs

REV. LOUGHLIN TO PICNIC AT RUBY'S SPEAK HERE SIN

Rev. G. G. Loughlin, Baptist evangelist, will give an address the Hood River Valley. Young Po the Hood River Valley. Young Po will also be in charg

THE DALLES FOLK BUY MUSIC SHOP

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Mummey, of Th Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Mummey, of The Dalles, have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Corson the music business formerly operated by them on Oak street in the Cobb building. Mrs. Mum-mey will have active charge of the store, and Mr. Mummey will be en-gaged in the field the most of the time

OPEN TO TRAFFIC Both Mr. and Mrs. Mummey are well known to mid-Columbia musical folk. They have been at The Dalles with G. E. Corson, who has a large house there.

Mr. and Mrs. Corson plan on leaving spon for California, where they will locate

CHURCHES

Pine Grove Community Church

Bible school at 10 o'clock a. m. Wor-bip at 11 o'clock. Sermon by the pas-tor. We will be glad to see you. A. F. Lacy, Minister.

Riverside Community Church

Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Dr. Boddy will preach. A cordial welcome will be given to all. This is the only opportunity we will have of hearing Dr. Boddy this summer. Sunday school

First Church of Christ, Scientist

Services in church building Sund 11 a.m. Sunday school the same ho The reading room is maintained in Davidson building. Room 8 is o week days from 9 to 5, with an atte Mrs. Gill Tells of Tacoma So. Tacoma, Wn., Aug. 19, 1926, Editor Gincler: I just wish to say "Hello" to all my friends, also the St. Mary's Catholic Church Regular Sunday services : Low M 8 a. m. ; High Mass, 10.30 a. m.

their needs. No effort should be en-conraged to get away from the disci-pline that results from work, but to get back to it. Idleness and mis-directed energy are a menarce to devel-opment. Education acquired at the ex-contract of the state of the were making a lot, of racket and 1 quieted them and then they slept a while. They had followed the scent to the river, but Sloat said the trail was too old to take them across. We could do no more and it was late so we went adquarters. I had had four hours' sleep in 60 and ired dogs on them.

Those dogs are wonderful brutes!

pense of the will-to-work is superficial pleasant. We are proud to hear so -a handicap. The schooling which is many of them express their liking for well spiced with a liberal supply of toil as an avocation will prove the most effective. my feet were like two great big blis-ters. I had hiked (behind a bloodhound most of the time) something like 40 miles and I was beginning to feel it.

We ate some more and then the boy was brought in. We had heard them yelling that they had found him when we were on the way from the Forks to headquarters, and had heard the signal shots, and when the kid came in he said he was good for three more days! He'd eaten raw fish and huckleber-

Stoat brought us home in his Hup

The summer vacation is rapidly drawing to a close and the school as an avocation will prove the many effective. Let our boys and girls acquire their education in this environment and the business of life will take care of itself. They will be better citizens, more able workers and hold to more wholesome ideals.

the news. Anyone from there is always welcome in our home. Mrs. Kathryn M. Gill.

Farewell Party Given

closed. Our two weeks' camping sea-son was a happy time for the girls and A farewell party was given Monthay evening, August 16, for Miss Nellie Nes-bit and Alfred De Hart at the home of a success for those who worked hard to make a girls' camp possible. The craft work in basketry and clay modeling was a treat to the girls as few camps offer these handicrafts. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. De Hart by their daughter, Jessie Mae. Guests were: Florence Gerrish, Ethel Pyles, Mildred Crow, Gladys few camps offer these handicrafts. Almost every girl completed one article in her chosen craft, Hanging baskets, candle sficks, napkin rings, etc., were Catherine Vaughan, Carla Vaughan, Irene Lakin, Jessie De Hart, hostess, Carl Ray, Virgil Colvin, Ronald Dreske, listed among the woodsy articles. A trail to the meadows (playground) geles, Calif., for the winter. Mr. De Hart is returning to Longview, Wash., after spending his vacation with his using the newly made trail the next day. parents in this city.

during the free periods and dramatics hour. A Bible pageant from Esther was given the first Sunday; the next Steps were taken Monday night to turn the Hood River Crag Rats, which has up to the present been an informal large life boats, with Huckleberry association of local young men inter-ested in mountaincering, into a formal mountain and Lost lake as scenery The costumes used were tie-dyed by organization. A committee, composed of Kent Shoemaker, A. L. Anderson and L. M. Baldwin, the latter one of the girls.

The times spent around the camp fire in the evening were our gayest times. Stunts, individual and tent and counthe finders of Jackie Strong, was appointed to draft by-laws and a constitution and to make nominations for officers.

A cabled message, received by the head office of the Christian church day evening at 7.30 in St. Ma church. All who may be interested such are cordially invited. Futher Hugh J. Marshall, Paston

English Lutheran Church

Sunday morning we will celebrate our annual Mission Festival. Rev. H. Messeril, from Albany, will deliver the sermon. Services will be held in the grove of C. G. Cochran's ranch and will begin at 11 a. m. The Sunday school picnic will be held in the afternoon, A cordial welcome to all. Rev. P. Hilgendorf, Pastor.

The Baptist Church

The Baptist Church Bible school at 9.45 a. m. The Bible is the text book. Morning worship at 11; subject of sermon, "An Empty Heart! Whom will it Invite? Jesus or Satan?" Singing led by the men's choir. Evening worship at 8. This evening service will be in the care of the Hood River County Young People's union, which will hold its quarterly meeting at the Baptist church. Let all the young would come Smells!

the young people come. Special music by the Baptist young people's choin led by F. Fisher. Union young people's meeting at 7.30. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday. C. R. Delepine, Pastor.

St. Mark's Church

The 13th Sunday after Trinity will be observed with the Holy Communion at 8 a. m., Sunday school at 10.30, morning prayer and Litany at 11 a. m., morning prayer and Litany at 11 a. m., with the rector's sermon on "The World's Great Teachers." The Sunday school teachers and officers will meet tomorrow, Friday, at 2 p. m. to plan the annual picnic, to be held Thursday, September 2, at Koberg's beach, and the fall Fally and Promotion day Sen. the fall Rally and Promotion day, Sep-tember 12. The Children's corner will be open today as usual. The Guild will hold a bake sale under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. N. Ravlin at the Book & Art store Saturday.

Pythian Notes

Waucoma Lodge No. 30 will be well represented at the gathering of Dis-trict No. 7 at the Pythian home at Vancouver, Wash., Sunday. A carefully prepared musical program con-sisting of band music, interspersed with vocal and dramatic numbers, will be presented for the benefit of the resident guests. Also some will take fruit for their use. A basket lunch and cups should be taken along as coffee will be made at the home for the visitors. A large delegation is expected from The Dalles and Wasco and those from Cascade Locks will join the caravan en route.

Tourists Become Settiers

The little girl was named Myra Anna-belle. Electric Company Thanked Trout Lake, Wn., Aug. 23, 1926. To whom it may concern: As presi-dent of the Trout Lake Good Boads club, I take pleasure in acknowledging receipt of $73 from the business inter-ests of White Salmon and $50 from the Northwestern Electric company, to be ent of the final Jub. I take pleasure in a receipt of $73 from the business many receipt of $73 from the business many ests of White Salmon and $50 from the state sports of new settlers of the state reports of new settlers for the month of July total 134, with 190 addi-tional arrivals looking for locations The new farm owners report a capity investment for the month of $326,050. Malhoeuf Coming Here Interview of the apple

Miss Miriam Flagler is home from Portland spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flagler, on Belmont road. Wow! See Tom Mix and Tony at the Rialto theatre Thursday, September 2.

PEGGY LAKIMEK TELLS OF SEARCH Peggy Larimer, 15-year-old disc park, and when we got there the men were convinced that I could hike, as I was the least tired of any of them. I could hear them saying things about in the dogs out to the barn to rest. Then we are and they gave me a clean shirt and socks, and the little boy's sister-in-ing strength and endurance, and they called me Peg-I knew that was a good if found she had been hiking around a great deal, too. Then we went down-Miss Peggy Larimer, 15-year-old Portland high school girl, in an inter-esting detter in the Telegram Monday tells of the part played by herself and Glen Sloat and Officer Banks, of this city, in the search for Jackie Strong. It was 6.20 when we arrived at the stairs and everywhere I'd go I'd hear mobile and we tumbled into our beds park. It was supposed to be six miles from there on to the place where the people say, "There's the girl that fol-lowed the hounds," or "That's the bloodhound girl." Sloat said that bigger girls than 1 (I suppose he meant older) had tried to follow the hounds and they couldn't stay 10 minutes. Well, that was the boy was lost, but we knew by bitter ex-perience that it was farther than that, and there was no trail. I let Sloat have his dog again and became famous. Everyone was so sure crowning blow ! we started on. After a half mile Banks strained his knee, and I took the dog he had. Pochohontas. I had had Char-lotte before, and she is by far the bet-ter dog, but Poco is harder to handle. Of the country we went through her the starter with me but a blistered toe, which was bandaged for me. The story is told in a letter from Miss Larimer to her mother, Mrs. J. C. Larimer. Portions of the letter follow: SCHOOL NEWS dise park, and when we got there the the dogs out to the barn to rest. The

I suppose you have read about me in Hood River American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps at Longview, Wash., where first honors were won.

the papers, though I begged the report-ers not to say much. I was interviewed

MISS PEGGY LARIMER

I suppose you have read about not in the gapers, though 1 begred the reduction is rapidly in the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have the papers, though 1 begred is have been and the school to the papers, though 1 begred is have the paper school to the papers, though 1 begred is have the paper school to the papers, though 1 begred is have the paper the papers, though 1 begred is have the papers, though 1 begred is

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

been completed. Mrs. Allen, who was married during the summer, will not return to the high school office but her The girls who received the highest cillors, were very interesting. But the best camp fire treat was Theodore Acland Harper, Oregon author, who has written "The Mushroom Boy" and "Singing Feathers." His stories held na smillbound Little Girl Born in Africa week a water pageant, written by Edetha Hartwig, the stage one of the and Lewis Hart. Miss Nesbit is motoring to Los was made in the camp craft period just the day before it rained. We welcomed the rain but were disappointed in not Stunts and pageants were prepared

A good time was reported by all.

Crag Rats Organize

