Anderson, 24, arrested by local police authorities last week when he was found living with Bernice Lancelford, Walla Walla, Wash., girl, has been taken to Portland to await trial of the federal grand jury on a charge of violation of the Mann act. Anderson was taken to The Dalles and committed by the United States commissioner there. Anderson's arrest followed advice by local authorities from Walla Walla that the Lancelford girl was wanted on a forgery charge, which was later dropped when friends made good her financial delinquencies. The girl was taken to Portland to be held as a witness. Weber's Fear Is Biggest. The largest pear from a Hood River orchard this year grew on the Odell place of R. H. Weber. Tuesday Mr. Weber exhibited the large specimen, a P. Barry, which weighed 20 ounces. He had a J'Anjou that weighed 18 ounces. EARLY FRUIT FILLS MARKETS OF EAST

Apple business continues moderate in the Northwest, according to a report of the federal bureau of markets. Hood River reported the sale of extra fancy Newtowns at $1.50, fancy at $1.25 and Grade at $1.15, prices about a dime better than prevailed last week. Yakima Winesaps brought $1.35@1.40 for extra fancy and $1.30 for 10 per cent Boveas, and Yakima Jonathans $1.25 and Grade at $1.15, prices about a dime better than prevailed last week. Yakima Winesaps brought $1.35@1.40 for extra fancy and $1.30 for 10 per cent Boveas, and Yakima Jonathans $1.25 and Grade at $1.15, prices about a dime better than prevailed last week. Most of the eastern apple markets are oversupplied and prices have tended a little lower than last season, early varieties ranging from 50c to $1.50 per bushel, compared with 75c to $2 a year ago. Sales of late varieties on contract have not been numerous, but the indicated range is slightly lower than in 1925. Prices at northwestern wholesale points also are some 20 per cent below last season on various leading varieties. The apple situation in Canada seems to be much the same as in this country. The Canadian northwest has a large crop which grades to large sizes. The export trade opened well with some fairly high prices quoted for early red American apples. The English apple crop is very light, according to reports, but business conditions are unsatisfactory and the extent of the season's demand is uncertain. The apple crop in continental Europe seems to be very light, according to reports, but business conditions are unsatisfactory and the extent of the season's demand is uncertain. Very high prices were realized at the Liverpool apple auction Wednesday, September 22, according to the cable received from Edwin Smith, the department's fruit specialist in Europe. Only light supplies of Gravenstein, Winter Bananas, Jonathans, York Imperials and Winesaps were available and the demand was brisk. Virginia King Davids brought as high as $10.46 per barrel. In the boxed varieties Oregon Gravenstein topped the market at $8.50. This same variety at Glasgow brought $4.62 a box. Jonathans sold in Glasgow at $5.11 a box. The prevailing prices, said Mr. Smith, do not reflect an unusual demand since prospective future values. These prices are a result of a scarcity of good fruit of all kinds, caused partly by the closing of the English plus season, and in part by an unusual demand since the unsatisfactory economic conditions prevail in the principal consuming centers. The coal and cotton industries about Liverpool, for example, are in a very depressed state and shipping on the Clyde is 25 per cent below last year's level, according to Mr. Smith. The United Kingdom can absorb only limited quantities of apples at present prices, and Mr. Smith's opinion, and lower prices can be looked for upon the arrival of heavier supplies.

MARIE EVANS BERRY FUNERAL SATURDAY

No death for years has caused more profound sorrow and genuine regret than the untimely passing of Miss Marie Berry which occurred in Des Moines on September 14. Two years ago her health failed and she went to Colorado with the hope that a change of climate might prove beneficial. Her letters to friends were always so cheerful and optimistic that those who knew the seriousness of her condition or realized that she was playing a losing game with the grim destroyer. Marie came here with her parents as a child and spent most of her life in this valley with the exception of the two years which she passed with her uncle, Mr. Evans, in Chicago. Wherever she has become acquainted her genial disposition and charming personality have made her a host of friends who extend heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing relatives. Marie will always be remembered as a handsome, clear-eyed girl whose actions were prompted by the impulse of charity and good will, cheerfulness and an intelligent appreciation of all the finer things which make life worth living both for herself and for those with whom she came in contact. Her energy and ambition were boundless and during her long illness in a sanitarium her hands were not idle, but she made as constantly engaged in fashioning dainty gifts for her friends. Cut off as she was from participation in useful and social activities to which she had always been so fondly attached, she made a complaint but seemed to delight in hearing of the happy doings of her young friends. Marie Berry was a real heroine and manifested as much courage in fighting disease as she did when she faces the cannon's mouth. Measured by years her life was short but she has left to the world an example of courage, thoughtfulness and noble character which will be remembered late. May the relatives of this lovely girl take comfort in the words of Longfellow when he said: "Death brings us again to our friends who are waiting for us and we shall not be long. They have only gone before, and are like the angels in heaven. They stand upon the borders of the grave to welcome us with the same radiant affection which they were upon earth, yet more lovely, more radiant, more spiritual."

ANTELOPE FAMILY IN MOTOR WRECK

Antelope, en route to Portland Tuesday, suffered painful bruises when their automobile collided with a wagon. The machine was overturned and badly wrecked. Agnes, their year-old daughter, escaped with only a slight cut behind one ear. The motorists approached the wagon about a mile and a half west of the city on the Columbia River highway. John Hendrich, of Zillah, Wash., was driving a car east on the highway, and in attempting to pass the wagon became confused and struck it. The horse-drawn vehicle was thrown across the road, catching the Brogan car. Mr. Hendrich's car was also smashed. Mr. and Mrs. Brogan and baby returned to the Waukena hotel. Blasting Powder Available. The Hood River Experiment Station has a limited supply of government blasting powder which will be available in the near future. Anyone interested in this should communicate with the Experiment Station. H. L. Haslam, chemist.

MERRY MORAINÉ

The Port Worth Sunday Star-Telegram and Record-Telegram has been conducting a slogan contest in which various advertisers ran their slogans, and readers were asked to compete for prizes, applying the names of the firms advertising, identifying them through the slogans published in the various ads. Among the advertisers was the distributor for Packard motor cars in that city. One morning his phone rang, and here is the conversation that ensued: "Lady's voice: 'What is the slogan of your car?'" "Distributor: 'Ask the man who owns one.'" "Lady: 'But I don't know any man who owns one.'" In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Hood River County. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Hood River County. State Land Board of the State of Oregon, Plaintiff, vs. William Galloway and Naomi Galloway, Defendants. To William Galloway and Naomi Galloway, the Above Named Defendants: In the Name of the State of Oregon: You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: on or before November 5th, 1926; and if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in its complaint, to-wit: For a decree foreclosing that certain mortgage made, executed and delivered to the plaintiff by you, dated the 30th day of September, 1922, and recorded in Volume 14 at Page 463 of the Records of Mortgages of Hood River County, Oregon, covering the following described real property, situated in Hood River County, Oregon: The Southwest Quarter of Section 31, Township 2 North, Range 10 East of the Willamette Meridian; excepting the way of the Hood River Lumbering Company, The Valley Improvement Company, and the Mount Hood Railroad Company, containing 130 acres, more or less; which mortgage was given to secure the payment of the promissory note of the defendants of even date therewith, for the sum of $4,000, due one year after date; for plaintiff's costs and disbursements in this suit, including $250 attorney's fees, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem equitable. This summons is served upon you by order of the Hon. Fred W. Wilson, Circuit Judge of Hood River County, Oregon, made and entered the 23rd day of September, 1926, and in accordance with said order is published in the Hood River Glacier, a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published at Hood River, Hood River County, Oregon, for six successive weeks, the date of the first publication hereof being September 23rd, 1926. A. J. DERRY, Attorney for Plaintiff, Hood River, Oregon.

PLANS FOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA ARE UP

All musicians interested in a symphony orchestra are invited to meet at the residence of the organizers at 10:30 p. m. on Friday, September 24, at the parlors of the Christian church to discuss the necessary details of organization. Considering the large number of players in Hood River and the valley, it should be very easy to gather them together to produce a music of a symphony type that would be a pleasure to all participating and a credit to our town. There will be a place for everyone, and it is hoped that every person having any type of instrument, whether it be string or wind, will attend this first meeting, so that it will be possible to get an early start in rehearsal. It is the hope of the organizers as well as others now interested to rehearse this winter and present two concerts this spring. That looks like an incentive for anyone who likes good music and is willing to put in a little hard work to produce it. Further information gladly given if you will call 3063.
