E are guite sure the efficiency expert is not the most popular man in the business world of today and we do not think "bigger and better" is as good a slogan as it was some time ago.

Still we take some pride in progress and we found our figures of October 16th interesting.

On an ordinary day we pay about one thousand of our own checks, and on October 16th we paid twenty-six hundred and seventwo checks drawn on ourselves, the total volume for the day's business being $161,181.06.

UHLBERG-EDGAR WED-DING WAS BEAUTIFUL

While simple, no wedding ceremony here has been more impressive than that at 5 p. m. Sunday when Miss Norms Ethel Edgar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Edgar, of Dee, be-came the bride of J. Lawrence Uniberg,

J. J. Garrigus will be associated with him in the new business. The entire lower floor of the Kelly Bros. building, extending from Second to Third streets will be used for furni-ture displays. An exchange depart-ment will be prominently featured. The entire back room of the store will be used for this department. As soon as the quarters are complete home furnishings will be stocked.
