

ANNOUNCEMENT

COULTER MOTOR COMPANY

Announces temporary location in the rear of
WILLARD BATTERY SERVICE STATION

Where a Complete Stock of Genuine Ford Parts will be Carried.

We will also be in a position to immediately take care of minor repairs and do service work. We come to Hood River with previous experience in Ford Sales and Service where we have established a reputation of "REAL FORD SERVICE."
We like your Community---we want you to like us.

COULTER MOTOR COMPANY

"REAL Ford SERVICE"

Phone 2863

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Hood River, Ore.

Start the children right. Have them get the fundamentals of music through the Dunning system of improved music study. Mrs. Geo. I. Slocum, tel. 3934. If you do not get your Portland Telegram, or if you want to subscribe for this evening newspaper, Tel. 3364. Mrs. J. W. Armstrong.

CASCADE LOCKS

The Bridge of the Gods is now open for traffic. Saturday was the first day toll was taken and Sunday more than 200 cars went across.

Mrs. E. W. Wheeler was hostess Saturday night at a jolly Halloween costume party. Cards were played during the evening. A delicious luncheon, appropriate to the occasion, was served at midnight. Those who enjoyed, Mrs. Wheeler's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fretwell, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wigren, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lange, Mr. and Mrs. David Chamberlain, Mrs. Harriet Walte, Mr. and Mrs. Val W. Tomkins.

Mrs. T. B. Edwards spent last Thursday shopping in Hood River. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Agelinos have returned from a motor trip to California. Miss Petrea Nelson spent the week end in Portland visiting Miss Hazel Meyer.

Mrs. Chas. Lange entertained at her home on Levens Heights at an attractive Halloween party Thursday night. Decorations were novel and attractive; 500 was played in which Mrs. Franklin Johnson won the ladies' first prize and Mrs. A. Urney won the consolation prize. Albert Nelson won the men's first prize and the consolation prize went to V. A. Wigren. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Urney, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Johnson, Mrs. Harriet Walte, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wigren, Mrs. Chas. Hagblom, Mrs. Karl Rosenback, Albert Nelson, and Wm. H. Kurtz.

L. E. Day, formerly of Cascade Locks, but recently of Milton, has returned to Cascade Locks to operate the planing mill.

O. W. Badder and family, of The Dalles, were here Sunday visiting Thomas Badder.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lee have returned from a trip to California where they visited their son, Fred Gray, who is in the navy and stationed at San Diego.

The Christian Endeavor gave a Halloween party Saturday night at the Community church.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Duval have gone to Los Angeles where they will spend the winter.

Tom Monahan, old-time resident of Cascade Locks, but now living at Carson, Wn., and his daughter motored across the Bridge of the Gods and visited their friends here last week.

The planing mill of the Wind River Timber company has started up and will operate for about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Johnson, of Portland, visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Johnson, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wortman and Capt. and Mrs. G. H. Gentskow, of Portland, visited Mr. and Mrs. Val W. Tomkins Sunday.

Miss Barbara Hendrick spent the week end in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hammond motored to Portland Monday for the Pacific International Livestock show. Mrs. D. A. Alger entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid last Thursday. The occasion was the regular monthly meeting of the society.

MOSIER

W. A. Humbards motored to Hood River Monday. Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll left Tuesday for California, where they will make their home for the winter. F. A. Shogren and daughters, Miss Elizabeth and Mrs. A. Taggsell, were Hood River shoppers Tuesday.

George Forst, of Seattle, spent the week end here the guest of his sister, Mrs. Arthur Herr.

Donald G. Lyons visited here a few days with his wife, who teaches in the Hooker school near Mosier.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Emery, William Bailey and Clyde Bailey were Sunday guests of their mother, Mrs. Hattie Bailey. They have been working in the fruit in Washington. Mr. Emery is a contractor. They returned to their home in California Sunday evening.

Darrell Allington, of O. A. C., spent the week end here the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Allington. Miss Thelma Johnson came up from Portland Friday evening to visit her mother, returning to her school work Sunday evening.

Mrs. H. H. Nielsen was ill and absent from her school work Monday. Rev. W. O. Livingstone, of Hood River, conducted the funeral services of Ira Evans last Wednesday at the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

Paul Bailey and a friend motored up from Portland Sunday and visited his mother, Mrs. H. H. Nielsen.

Miss Josephine Clark spent the week end in Portland visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgenson and Miss Louise were dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Connaway in Hood River.

We are glad to report that Train No. 17 is a flag stop here Friday of every week. Mrs. R. Mobley and Mrs. Hollensted, teachers, took advantage of it last Friday to return to their homes in Portland for the week end.

Mrs. James Wilson and sisters, Elizabeth, Frances and Jean Shogren, motored to Hood River Saturday.

Rev. Schuyler Pratt, of Hood River, preached a splendid sermon at the Christian church Sunday evening.

Those in Hood River Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mosier and daughter, Jane, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilcox and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Vensel, Mrs. A. C. Holmes and daughter, Kathleen and Doris Cherry, Mrs. Marshall, and Mr. Cole.

Francis Howard motored to Portland Saturday.

Mr. Scott, the packing boss at the Fruit Growers Association, with his family left Sunday for their home in California.

One of the packers here several weeks ago was given her check. She put it in her pocket but it slipped out and unnoticed by her was nailed up in the box of apples she was packing and so was shipped out in a carload of apples. A few days ago the check was returned to Mosier Fruit Growers Association from Jacksonville, Fla. We still think there are honest people in the world.

Miss Louise Morgenson and Mrs. W. E. Clark motored down the highway to the Mitchell Point villa Sunday. J. H. Harden spent Sunday at his ranch near Hood River. Mosier people in Hood River Thursday evening seeing the show, "Stella Dallas," were Mr. and Mrs. George Chamberlain and Montana and Keith, Mrs. E. A. Race and Marcella, and Mr. and Mrs. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll have moved up from Portland to the John Carroll ranch. Ben Carroll attended the football game in Portland Saturday. Conrad Elder and sister, Mrs. Ben Veatch, motored to Portland Saturday, taking in the stock show, and then went to Beaverton, where they spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. George Banman. Thomas W. Hughes died October 7 in Seattle and was buried there the 6th. He was the son of Mrs. Annie Erhart and grandson of Mrs. Barbara Dunsmore. Death was caused by heart trouble. It was a great shock to his many relatives and friends here, where all of his early life was spent. Besides a young wife he leaves a mother and brother to mourn his loss.

Miss Lurine Dunsmore returned home after a 10-day stay in Seattle, where she attended the funeral of her nephew, Thomas Hughes.

Mosier High School Notes

The Hawaiian entertainment given at the school house Monday proved to be most enjoyable, being both instructive and entertaining.

The basketball players are practicing regularly every week. The players for the regular teams will be selected shortly.

The junior class entertained the high school Saturday night at a Halloween party. Montana Chamberlain was mistress of ceremonies. Elves and spooks were much in evidence. Games were played and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

The high school girls, also the girls over 12 years old in the grammar grades, feel very fortunate in being able to take the nursing course under the supervision of Miss Zena Peterson. Classes are held every Monday and Thursday. Miss Peterson will be glad to examine children on either of these afternoons.

APPLE EXHIBITS ARE MADE IN PORTLAND

A feature of Apple Week celebration made possible by the Hood River Traffic association has been exhibits of the valley's finest fruit in Portland. Immense and appealing displays have been placed at the Consolidated ticket office, at Lipman & Wolfe's store, at the Eastern Outfitting Co. and the Pittock block. E. E. House had a fine display at Mosier & Frank's.

Hood River's part of the Apple Week program is being carried on also through the distribution of apples at the luncheons of the Portland chamber of commerce, Lion's club, Kiwanis club, Ad club, Rotary club, Beauty board and City club; by the distribution of fruit to the various charitable organizations in the city of Portland, and to the hospitals.

The apples for the exhibits were furnished through the courtesy of the following Hood River firms: Apple Growers Association, Dan Wulfe & Co., Ltd., Kelly Brothers, Maynard & Child, Duckwall Brothers, American Fruit Growers, Inc., Hood River Fruit Co., Hood River Produce Exchange. These same firms also furnished the fruit for distribution to the various institutions.

GOLF NEWS

Matt Huckler, groundskeeper, has offered a weekly prize to ladies. He will clean the clubs of the one winning in a contest. This week Mrs. John Baker was winner.

Ladies' day at the club was well attended. Twenty were present. Mrs. H. T. DOWM entertained a table at cards. Mrs. C. A. Richards presented and won the ball and Mrs. C. T. Dewey, Mrs. A. E. Baker and Mrs. G. W. Thomson tied for second honors. Mrs. W. L. Nichols, Mrs. E. O. Blancher, Mrs. L. S. Boyd and Mrs. G. W. Thomson served refreshments.

Pythian Notes

The meeting of Pythian Sisters and Knights at the Pythian temple last Thursday was well attended. The program began with Halloween games followed by a playlet. After lunch of sandwiches, coffee and pie many enjoyed the music and dancing until four bells.

At the convention Tuesday it was reported that Bro. Harry Dobson had been taken to the Veterans' hospital in Portland for treatment.

Members of Waucoma No. 30 were very much pleased to learn that Bro. L. M. Baldwin will be their lodge deputy for the next year.

The Page rank drill was postponed until November 11, when all members are urged to be present.

Smoky and Smelly Oil Stoves Cured by using Eocene Oil. Try this high grade coal oil next time and see the difference. Any quantity, gallons to barrel, at E. A. Frass Co. 2284

WAIT-WATCH-COME SATURDAY
Supply your needs in useful household necessities.
Surprise Two Good Articles Cheap
COME AND SEE! PRICES RIGHT!
CARMICHAEL'S VARIETY STORE
ON THE HEIGHTS - PHONE 3883

Be a kid once more
Join the Guide Ski Club
Mt. Hood will furnish you the cold, crisp snow and invigorating air.
We will furnish the coal and wood to make it hot for you.
Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co.
Telephone 4121

THE NEW WINTER RED CROWN
A fine gasoline of the volatility and stability that produce quick starting, fast acceleration and a maximum of miles. Scientifically made to provide the greatest efficiency of engine operation - the product of 48 years of refining experience.
WILD TO GO!
STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA

Baby Beef
We have just what you have been wanting for a long time.
Choice Baby Beef
Young-Tender-Juicy. Steaks and Roasts cut from these young cattle will please you.
Economy Market Little Pig Sausage
Swift's Premium Hams and Bacon
Sure we have Sauer Kraut
Phone 4141
Economy Market, Inc.
R. E. STEELE