He left the Rose City on November 3 and reached the Florida city November 17, averaging 340 miles per day for the 4,780-mile trip. Mr. Kennan and family will remain in Florida until early spring, visiting relatives.
"I had various happenings today to keep Hood River freshly in mind, if such were necessary," writes Harry W. Farrell from New York City. "I met A. S. Steele, of the Association, on the street where the apples are sold and displayed, and while I was talking to him Crawford Lemmon, now of Medford, came along. Later in the day Sid Carnine came into the office and in addition to this I am calling up Jim Collier as I have just obtained his phone number. So you see one could hardly get out of touch with Hood River even if such were desired, and I assure you it is not."

PEARL CONTEST TO CLOSE SATURDAY

The contest, which is now attracting many to the Laraway Jewelry store, where that one who identifies a genuine deep sea oriental pearl, displayed with 99 imitation Bluebird pearls, will receive a $50 imitation necklace, will close at 10 a. m. Saturday. Those participating must write a short dissertation, explaining how the deep sea pearl differs from the Bluebird pearls.

Judges of the contest have been named as follows: Mrs. H. G. Cooper, president of the Woman's club; Mayor A. B. Bennett, and F. S. Knight, principal of the high school.

The display of Bluebird pearls is an interesting feature of the Laraway store, too, is now filled with an abundance of extremely appealing Christmas articles. Imitation pearls are being generally worn by the elite of society. Queen Marie, while in her American tour, wore a rope of imitation pearls; it was reported.

REV. F. GORDON HART TALKS ON ENGLAND

An illustrated address on England by Rev. F. Gordon Hart was a feature of the season's initial holiday dinner by the men's brotherhood of Riverside Community church. An excellent dinner was served.

Rev. Hart is a native of England, having left there when he was 15 years of age. He illustrated his lecture with stereopticon slides, many of which were photographed by himself while on a visit to England two years ago.

Mr. Hart's address was educational in nature and his serious and timely messages were well received and met with much laughter and wit.
