TABERNALE TOPICS

Some have told me they wouldn't accept Christ since it meant:

"TOO MUCH TO GIVE UP."

What is it that you are not willing to give up? Business? If you are in a business that is honest and honorable and so conducted, you certainly would not have to give it up. If you are in a business that is not pleasing to the Lord, you ought to give it up! True success in life is dependent solely upon the Laws of God. There can be no harvest without sowing the grain into the earth, and if God's blessing did not rest upon the grain in the field, there would be no business in the world. Luke 12:28. "If then God so clothe the grass of the field . . . how much more will He clothe you, oh ye of little faith?" If God feeds the Ravens; can He not feed you? (Luke 12:24) God's promises are definite to every believer. Phil. 4:19. "My God shall supply all your need, according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Math. 6:33. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." Next week—Too much to give up you—Companions?

Economy and Parsimony

President Hall of the University of Oregon has some very definite ideas as to the inadvisability of substituting Parsimony for Economy, and one of our good friends in the Glacier office has suggested that the subject would work into good copy for this space.

The suggestion is timely and good, for after a year such as we have just experienced there is a natural tendency toward undue retrenchment.

He is indeed a wise grower who can decide just how far he can economize and still keep an efficient organization and such equipment as will enable him to produce his next crop at a minimum cost.

On the other hand we know a man who, at a very small cost, could have reconditioned his car so it would have served him for a couple of years longer, but he just naturally wanted a new car so badly that he thought he would be parsimonious if he didn't get it—and you know the answer—he did.

A pair of spiked shoes may not make a man run 100 yards in 9.3-5 seconds, but without their help what chance would he have of even approaching that mark?

Same way with good appearance—it may not hand you success on a silver platter, but without it a man is under a real handicap.

So give yourself a fair chance by letting our dry cleaning service keep you looking like money in the bank. It costs so little that you can easily send us every suit every month. And you and the fellow in the clothing advertisements will be both members of the same club.

Scout's Plan Dance

The members of Troop 2, Boy Scouts, will be hosts next Saturday night at a "Good Turn" dance to be held at the dining room of the Mount Hood hotel. The Scouts are holding the dance in order to raise funds for increasing the size of their lodge, built last summer on the city automobile park. The troop now has 30 members. City Traffic Officer Morrison is Scoutmaster.

Watch for that new bread which the Hood River Bakery will soon put out.

FOOTBALL BANQUET FRIDAY

AMERICAN LEGION HONORS TEAM

Business Men Will Present Student Body With Fine Blankets Woven in Colors of U. S. A.

The Hood River high school football squad, accompanied by Coach Garber and F. S. Knight, principal of the high school, will be honor guests at a banquet to be given by the American Legion post at the Hotel Waukoma at 6:30 (tomorrow) Friday, evening.

The 20 handsome Pendleton blankets, purchased through J. Vogt by a fund subscribed by business men, will be presented to the student body by James H. Hazlett.

The Mandolin club will make music for the festive occasion.

The football squad includes the following men: Wayne Mendenhall and Mayhew Carson, ends; Dale Pike and Robert Gelin, tackle; Clayton Foreman and Lloyd Wallace, guards; Tom Johnson, center; Lawrence Wright, quarter; Victor Harper and Frank Stratton halves, and Victor Miller, full. Ray Hathorn and Max Calandra, end; Bonchar VonLubken and Jack Jones, tackle; James Carson and George Palmer, guards; George Wuest, center; Russell Acheson, quarter; Glenn Mendenhall and Wendle Hill, halves, and Richard Hills, fullback.

The local team made a total score of 72 points in the seven games played last season. Twenty-five adverse points were scored. The games were as follows:

Hood River 9, Grant 6; Hood River 10, Roosevelt 7; Hood River 31, Hill Military 0; Hood River 10, Bend 12; Hood River 21, Goldendale 0; Hood River 9, Wasco 0; Hood River 9, The Dalles 5.

Hood River the coming season will lose the following players: Mayhew Carson, Dale Pike, Clayton Foreman, Lawrence Miller, Victor Jack Jones, George Palmer, George Wuest, and Glenn Mendenhall.

The general public is invited to attend the banquet. Reservations, however, should be made with the chairman of commerce office immediately. Plates will be $1.

The fathers of the honor guests are urged to join in the banquet.

A committee has been appointed to have complete charge of the arrangements for the banquet, composed of four members of the Legion and four business men, as follows: Charles Gunn, chairman; W. Ray Lee, Walter Ford, Wayne Poland, R. B. Perigo, L. S. Boyd, Earl Weber and Ray Acheson.

ALLEY AND COLLMAN TO MIX TONIGHT

Tom Alley, the Missouri Farmer, will meet "Doc" Collman, local wrestler, in a finish match, the best two out of three falls or two hours to a decision, at the Rialto theatre tonight.

Collman, a medical student, will endeavor to win the Portland mat artist with his chiropractic headlock and other nerve-paralyzing tactics.

A 30-minute preliminary bout will be staged between Curly Cloe, of Yakima, and Ellis Woodford, of Hood River.

Tom Ray, of Rydewood, Wash., has arrived in the city and will be presented at the fight tonight to challenge the winner of the Alley-Collman bout.

Ray, who is a husky fellow and a wrestler of parts, says he hopes that Alley wins, as he is especially eager to meet the man from Missouri.

Many fans, too, are urging Alley to do his best to Collman, for they say a wrestling match between the two Toms will be a humdinger.

Ray is a clean-cut, upstanding man. He is a member of the Elks lodge.

CREAMERY NOW MAKES PLUM PUDDING

The Hood River Creamery has added to its list of notable confections a plum pudding. This new style of frozen food is served with a specially prepared rum sauce. Those who have tasted of the new Oregon plum pudding declare that the old English confection will never be the same.

The creamery is also prepared to make specially designed Christmas ice cream cakes and ice cream pies. Its ice cream makers have prepared a number of designs, and invite all who may wish such frozen confections for holiday dinners to come to the creamery plant soon and make a selection.

The creamery has made many friends with the ice cream cakes and pies.

The new plum pudding is destined to further popularize the city's most active industry.

Nothing has ever been found that is a greater delight to a child celebrating a birthday than the gift of the cakes, carrying its unique ornamentation and greetings.

"It certainly makes a birthday cake worth while," a little boy was heard to say, "not long ago when he was ready to blow out the candles and start cutting the handsome cake. 'But it does seem like a shame to eat anything so pretty as this is.'"

RODGERS AND ROBERTS TO FIGHT MONDAY

Val Bearson, local matchmaker, announces a match-event to go here next Monday night between Young Rodgers, Dee hopeful, 153 pounds, and Mickey Roberts, 152 pounds, of Pendleton. Rodgers, although youthful, has developed a remarkable physique in the logging camps of the Oregon Lumber Co. He has already won considerable note in the few fights in which he has participated. Dee will be well represented at the Monday night smoker, which will be held at Pythian hall under auspices of the Knights of Pythias band.

Spln McClaskey, 133 pounds, of The Dalles, will meet George Woolley, 131, of White Salmon, in a semi-windup.

Dean Hatch and Ernest Smith, both well known local fistic artists, will go four rounds next Monday night.

Roberts, who is training at A. La Chapelle's gymnasium, seems confident of getting Rodgers. At least his talk indicates a confidence. He said:

"I have been waiting here in Hood River for over three months to get this Rodgers boy. The matchmaker has tried to get us together on every card but for some reason or other Rodgers was never ready. Now he claims he is in the best of condition and that is when I want to meet him, so there will be no alibis to offer after the fight. I never want to fight anyone out of condition, for they always have an alibi."

"I have been training at Art La Chapelle's new gymnasium in the basement of the Davidson building, and never was more confident of winning a fight than I am this one. And I am not underrating Rodgers, either. I have seen his fight. I know what he is, I know he is a fighter and not a boxer; he is a good stiff puncher who likes to trade in and trade blows, but I think my boxing ability will keep me at a safe distance."

"Anyway you can tell the fight fans it will be a battle when a boxer meets a fighter. I never take a back step in a fight, and when the gong rings and

LEGION AUXILIARY NOTES

What better weather could one want as a reminder that now is the time to get out that discarded overcoat of dad's; that slightly used, wool dress of daughter's; and son's last year's sweater, and send to some ex-service man's family who may be suffering from the effects of this cold weather? Every day comes the plea from Portland for warm clothing, so today take your old clothing down to the Tum-A-Lum office where Mrs. Anderson is filling a box or boxes if possible, to send to the welfare committee of the Auxiliary for distribution among the needy ex-service men. Don't put this off any longer. Do it now, not next summer.

Mrs. Neal Nunamaker's address is Box 275, Route 5, Phoenix, Arizona.

Let us send those Christmas greeting cards by the end of this week so that she will be sure to receive them in time for Christmas. Do it now.

Do it now! What? Pay your dues. Have you responded to the little statement mailed you this week? Do it now. And now the most important of all items. The Auxiliary Christmas party for ex-service men's children and their mothers is to be held at the Oriental (Mt. Hood dining room), Saturday, December 18, at 2 o'clock. Spread the good news for Santa wants to meet each and every ex-service man's child.

Children's Christmas Party

The American Legion Auxiliary is pleased to have all the children of ex-service men come to the Oriental cafe (Mt. Hood hotel dining room) next Saturday afternoon, December 18, from 2 to 5 o'clock for he has promised to be there and would like to meet all of the children and their mothers.

Plans are now completed which include a program for the children, given by children, games and stories at a Christmas tree and a visit from Santa, and last but not least, eats.

The Auxiliary members with birthdays in December, under the leadership of Mrs. A. L. Anderson, will have full charge of the party.

Come early and stay late for this party will be interesting every minute. Nature has surely done her bit towards making the true Christmas spirit and the Auxiliary will do the rest.

Don't forget to specify Butter-Crust when ordering bread. It's good, clean and wholesome.

BARTOL TAKES OVER THE C. T. C. LINE

The Bartol Motor Co., which recently took the local distribution of the Chevrolet line, has announced this week that it had become the local distributor for the Columbia Tire Corporation, of Portland. A full line of C. T. C. tires will be carried in stock.

The Columbia Tire Corporation has been very successful since its organization in 1923, and many Hood River motorists have used the tires and have become C. T. C. boosters. Local folk about $95,000 worth of the stock of the concern. It has paid consistent dividends.

C. T. C. dealers are authorized to place an extraordinary guarantee on the Portland product and thus they have won many new customers. Apparently, patrons stick by the C. T. C. tire, for sales have been showing a constant increase.

A. G. Lewis, Jr., Elected Councilman

At the White Salmon, Wash., municipal election Tuesday of last week Geo. A. Reed was elected mayor for a term of two years, and L. W. Wood and Arthur G. Lewis, Jr., were elected councilmen to serve terms of two years.

Mr. Lewis was re-elected treasurer without opposition.

Mr. Lewis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lewis.

KIDDIES WILL HAVE A TREE

ELKS MAKE PLAN FOR CHRISTMAS

Santa Claus Will Visit Hood River Children and Appear at Rialto Theatre. O. E. Members to Distribute Baskets

Members of the Elks lodge will play good fellows for the children of the community Christmas day. Old Santa Claus will visit every child with a gift from a huge Christmas tree which will occupy the stage at the Rialto theatre. Baskets of food will be distributed among the poor families of the community.

Children will be guests at a tree moving picture show at the Rialto theatre. The committee in charge of Christmas tree preparations includes C. H. Castner, C. A. Richards and Earl Weber.

The following letter has gone forth to all members of the lodge from C. H. Castner, chairman of the Christmas committee:

"By a unanimous vote of our lodge, in 1925, it was decided to make a Kiddies' Christmas an annual event in this community. This entertainment is for all children, and is a method of expressing to the children and people of this community the big-heartedness of the Order of Elks.

"It is quite true that happiness cannot be measured in the number of dollars expended to furnish it; good cheer cannot be tabulated in statistics, nor is there any disposition on the part of this committee to say to this Lodge of Elks, 'Last year we did so much, make it even a bigger Christmas this year.' Experience has shown that Elks need no such exhortation.

"Yet, is there one among us who does not remember from the days of our own childhood, the consuming delight of that wonderful moment when the Christmas spirit was revealed to us in a splendor of toys, and gifts, and love? Who is there that in his heart does not know what black grief would have descended upon us if the great occasion had passed us by, unobserved, when we were little? Who does not know what a tragedy this world has been for childhood griefs are keener far than those which the advancing years have schooled us to meet with adult fortitude.

"None the less, throughout the length and breadth of this land, there are literally thousands of homes where just this poignant tragedy is being enacted this year; homes where not only no Santa Claus will pay with gifts, but homes where on occasion of this greatest of annual manifestations of goodwill, there will not be enough of the simple necessities of life to stave off actual want. These homes, besides you, my Brothers, just what is needed to avert these tragedies. You have proven it in the past, when you wrote a glorious and shining record of Christmas benefactions.

"The entertainment committee is arranging a splendid program at the Rialto and a light feed following, and of course, it takes money to make the entertainment a success, therefore a finance committee has been appointed to raise funds. In order that your lodge may properly exemplify the spirit of Charity and Goodwill, we are appealing to you for a contribution. Give all you can, freely, with an open heart, and God will bless you abundantly."

ODELL SCHOOL TO HOLD A CARNIVAL

One of the cleverest carnivals ever given by a high school in Hood River county is to be given by Odell high school Friday, tomorrow, evening at the Grange hall.

There will be two complete programs given during the evening. The programs, under the direction of Miss Eloise Reed, are made up of solos, group songs, student skits, and minstrel shows.

The students participating in the carnival have been working hard for the past three weeks to make the affair a success. No amount of labor will be spared in making it possible for everyone to have a good time.

Each class will have two booths, of which one will be used as a side show. Pretests, babyshow, and bowling alleys are to be displayed. About five booths will be used for the sale of novelties, candies and other edibles.

Money cleared on this annual carnival goes into the student body coffers and is used to defray expenses of carrying on the student enterprises.

Admission prices have been set at 25 cents and 50 cents.
