Did You Ever Hear

Of a hen waiting for the worms to come up to be eaten?
Of a bee that kept one eye on a time clock?
Of a dog that whined because another dog could run faster?
Of a cat that quit watching while the mouse was in the hole?
Of a goat that ever admitted times were hard?
Of a parrot that could say anything original?
Of a "CRAG RAT" who said enough?

Automobile Accident Insurance

THERE ARE THREE KINDS

1. Protects you against injuries to others.
2. Protects you against damage to others' property.
3. Protects your own car.

The first is the most valuable. Two states already make it compulsory; 46 other states will. Compulsory insurance sounds good, but there are objections to it. The first kind is not expensive to buy, cost depending on horsepower of car. Minimum cost $10.00.

NOAH BEERY

In "Beau Geste" at The Dalles Auditorium January 30-31.

"Beau Geste," one of the most celebrated motion pictures in years, will have its premiere January 30 at 8:30 p. m. at the Auditorium theatre, The Dalles, where it will show for two days.

The picture has broken attendance records in many cities and Manager Bloom prophesies similar results in The Dalles.

Adapted from P. C. Wren's sensational "best seller," "Beau Geste" is said to have been transferred to the screen without loss of any of the mystery, romance and heart interest that marked the book.

Ronald Colman, who became famous in his first picture, "The White Sister," and has been winning laurels ever since, is declared to have the best role of his career as "Beau." Other notables in the cast are Noah Beery, Neil Hamilton, Ralph Forbes, Alice Joyce, Mary Brian, William Powell and Norman Trevor.

A 20-piece orchestra will accompany the musicals. Showings will be given Sunday evening and Monday afternoon and evening.

MR. GRIFFITH JOINS IN FAMILY REUNION

J. M. Griffith returned last week from Sequim and Seattle, Wn., where, after a 30-year absence, he participated in a family reunion. At a dinner given in honor of Mr. Griffith at the Woman's Relief Corps hall at Sequim, 55 relatives of the local man were present. Forty others in Oregon and Washington were unable to attend.

"I certainly spent several joyful weeks there at Sequim with my old friends and members of my family. The country has certainly changed a lot since I was over there. Now a town of 500 people stands where I was wont to fish and hunt deer. I could have spent several more weeks there and then not have gotten around to see all of my old friends. My children and grandchildren treated me wonderfully. They had me going somewhere or engaged in some social affair constantly. The only thing to mar my visit was the illness of a stepson."

WHITE SALMON

(From The Enterprise)

On New Year's eve the so-called Men's Club of Husum entertained their wives and families at the school house. A delicious supper was served by the men consisting of cocktail, nulligan stew, hot rolls, pickles, and pies. This feed was consumed by the 75 present with great relish and the cooks were complimented on their unusual ability. Frank Fox, chief cook, and his retinue of assistants did their part in an ultra-professional manner. After the supper everyone retired to the gymnasium to hear the eagerly awaited program. The first number was a song entitled, "The Rocky Mountain Nightingale," which was sung by Husum's popular sextet, Sevittik, Carreno, Rubenstun, Stjowski, Wagner, and Bunyon—otherwise known as Mosses, Mitchell, Gray, Norris, Nash and Turk.

The annual joint installation of the Eastern Star and Masonic lodges was held Monday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall. The following officers were installed by the Masons: Worshipful master, R. L. Heaman; senior warden, S. F. Wink; junior warden, Harry Card; senior deacon, H. M. La Bertow; junior deacon, Herbert Zelgler; senior steward, Pearl Cravens; secretary, Ralph Bradley; treasurer, George Read; chaplain, George Gladden; marshal, Clyde Norris; Tyler, Semman Burdick. The officers for the Eastern Star were: Worthy matron, May Thomas; worthy patron, H. M. La Bertow; associate matron, Marie Kreps; conductress, Letha La Bertow; associate conductress, Ruth Warner; secretary, Clara Putney; treasurer, Harry Clatterbos; chaplain, Emma McGulm; organist, Edith Gladden; marshal, Kate Boyd; Adah, Ethel Crow; Ruth, Elsie Mountain; Esther, Harriet Clatterbos; Martha, Hazel Cravens; Electa, Margaret Shore; warden, Gertrude Reed; sentinel, Pearl Cravens.

Mr. Baylone Writes

Santa Cruz, Calif., Jan. 6, 1927.

Editor Glacier: I enclose my check for $4 covering this year's subscription for the Glacier and for next year also.

We always look forward to Saturday when the Glacier comes and are always glad to know what is going on in Hood River and whenever I read a familiar name on a box of Hood River apples it makes me feel at home. Nearly all the stores here carry them and they are so much better than any other apples that people are perfectly willing to pay the difference in price.

The weather here for the last two weeks has been rather cool for this part of the country but the other night we had a heavy rain and now it is much warmer again.

With very best regards I remain
Yours truly,
Geo. H. Baylone.

Daniel Pierson, of Hood River, a freshman in agriculture at O. A. C., has been pledged to Tau Kappa Epsilon, men's social fraternity. Gerald Cunliff, of Dec, has been pledged to Beta Kappa. These organizations are two of the 35 fraternities on the campus which provide living quarters for more than 1,000 men.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Band left Sunday night for a month's visit with their daughter, Mrs. Pearl Spear, and family, and other relatives and friends at Spokane and Coeur d'Alene.

Good Health Requires Good Elimination

To be well, you must keep the blood stream free from impurities. If the kidneys lag, allowing body poisons to accumulate, a toxic condition is created. One is apt to feel dull, languid, tired and achy. A nagging backache is sometimes a symptom, with drowsy headaches and dizzy spells. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by burning or scanty passage of secretions. If you have reason to suspect improper kidney functioning, try Doan's Pills—a tested stimulant diuretic. Users praise them throughout the United States. Ask your neighbor!
