Modern dance at Rockford Friday night. The Fatal "Third Notice" "Third notice." Every editor has received them. The postmaster sends them to the editor. For instance, there is a man by the name of—well, say Tim Short—who sent us three notices to stop his paper. He did not want it any longer; we wondered what was the matter. Upon investigating our subscription list we found that Tim was short five dollars and seventy cents. He had never paid us a cent and yet he stopped his paper as a matter of economy—to us. A few evenings ago we stepped into a church and Tim's melodious voice rang out clear in song, "Jesus Paid It All." We may have been mistaken, but his earnestness impressed us. The next day we sent him a receipt in full, begging his pardon for not knowing that he had made an assignment of his liabilities to the Lord. P. S. Tim didn't take the "bankrupt" law or we might have got a little something out of publishing the "retroter of economy—to us. A few evenings ago we stepped into a church and Tim's melodious voice rang out clear in song, "Jesus Paid It All." We may have been mistaken, but his earnestness impressed us. The next day we sent him a receipt in full, begging his pardon for not knowing that he had made an assignment of his liabilities to the Lord.
