KOBERG BEACH

CIRCUMSTANCES have made it doubtful as to the financial success of operating the beach this season; but the very nature of the enterprise will show up well and is an asset for Hood River and its residents.

The views of persons differ and it is well; but if KOBERG BEACH should have remained closed for this season, there are people in Hood River who would have called that a misfortune, and justly so.

So we ask all fair minded residents after they have paid their respects to Mt. Hood, not to forget that they have one of the finest Beach Resorts right at their feet. Children and grown-ups alike will benefit physically and morally greatly by regularly patronizing—

No Reputation

When GOVERNOR PATTERSON was visiting the STATE penitentiary up at SALEM a few weeks ago, WORD was brought to him that a COLORED woman inmate of the INSTITUTION wanted to INTERVIEW him in regard to a PARDON. The GOVERNOR very OBLIGINGLY listened to the DUSKY BELLE but could not seem to FIND OUT why she was so ANXIOUS to be released as she had no COMPLAINT to make about the way she was TREATED. Finally he asked her WHY she was so DISSATISFIED and she replied, "It's DIS way GUVNER, I's got just one 'JECTION to dis place and dad's de REPUTATION It's got out ovah de STATE."

A Striking Illustration

The railroads of the United States found their fuel bills were excessive. They decided to use less fuel. In the first four months of 1927 the average amount of coal consumed per 1,000 gross ton miles of freight service was reduced from 150 to 141 pounds. At this rate the saving in fuel cost for the year will be about $17,000,000. Just think of it; "By taking heed thereto" the railroads are in one item saving seventeen million dollars.

The money value of the various products of Hood River county for 1927 will be about six and a half million dollars. If the people of Hood River deemed it advisable they could, without serious inconvenience, reduce their overhead in the same proportion and have almost four hundred thousand dollars for other purposes.

And the fine part of it all is that it does not require unanimity of action. Each fellow can go after his portion of the four hundred thousand whenever he gets ready.

A PROFIT is now offered on the prices we are paying for APPLES and PEARS.

We advise selling within the next few weeks.

Prices have been named on various varieties as being prices that the GROWER may expect this season. These prices are not supported by Offers, and most of them are so high that if put into effect would have the result of greatly restricting the demand in what should otherwise be a favorable year.

We will BUY your fruit packed, or will do the WASHING and PACKING ourselves. —BUYING various varieties, both DOMESTIC and EXPORT sizes.

FIRE CHIEFS ARE COMING

MT. HOOD LOOP TRIP NEXT MONDAY

Local Firemen and Citizens Will Aid in Entertaining Visitors From Many Nations

Hood River firemen and citizens will take a prominent part in the entertainment of delegates to the International fire chiefs' convention, to be held in Portland next week. Members of the local department will go to Portland this week to attend the Pacific coast convention and will be present at the Oregon state convention next week.

J. F. Volstorff, chief of the local fire department, L. G. Morgan, city fire marshal, and Kent Shoemaker, secretary of the chamber of commerce, are members of the general committee which will be in charge of entertaining the visitors.

Firemen from many nations will be entertained at a picnic lunch on the grounds of the Parkdale grade school next Monday. The Men's Forum of the Upper Valley community church will be in charge of parking cars and arranging for the evening.

Members of the Hood River Boy Scouts, who are junior fire marshals, will accompany a delegation of local citizens to Parkdale to meet the caravan, which will arrive around the Loop highway.

The program of tomorrow night's concert will be:

CAMP FIRE GIRLS OFF TO LIMBERLOST

The Camp Fire Girls' camp staff has left for Camp Limberlost at Lost Lake to prepare camp and be campers for one day before the girls arrive Friday morning. Camp activities will be more complete this year in spite of the fact that several members of the Camp Fire Girls Board of Sponsors have opposed the camp. If girls' work in Hood River should progress it is impossible to carry on without a camp of our own.

The following comprise the staff: Miss Louise Knoll, director; Miss Gladys Bersch, nurse and first aid instructor; Miss Sybil Wakeup, K. P. and general counselor; Miss Harriett Fuller, swimming and handicraft and singing counselor; Miss Werdina Isbell, nature lore, swimming and singing counselor; Mrs. Wm. Sylvester, folk dancing and dramatics; William Sylvester, camp craft, life guard, canoeing, archery, fencing, riflery, etc. Miss Lorene West, junior counselor in charge of water-front, reports, handicraft, etc.; Mathilde Knoll, camp house and can-teen; Editha Hartwig, handicraft and dramatics; Katherine Volstorff, K. P. water front; Miriam Knoblock, K. P. typist; Mrs. D. H. McClain, cook.

Gifts have been given the camp by the following: Boy Scout Council, Oak Grove Parent-Teacher Association, Dr. J. W. Sifton, A. S. Kolstad, Chas. H. Castner, V. C. Follenius, Mrs. E. R. Pooley, First Church of Christ Scientist, Patrick Lumber Company, Mrs. C. King Benton, C. King Benton, W. H. Goodenough, Mrs. J. F. Volstorff. These donations, money, vegetables, trucks, etc., are very much appreciated. Thank you, kind friends.

Visitors are welcome at Camp Limberlost any time. Meals will be prepared at 50 cents per meal; director must know in advance when visitors wish to have meals at camp.

Parents and friends are requested not to send candy, fruits, or other food to individual campers but to send it as a gift to the entire camp. Eating between meals is not allowed. This rule is necessary to maintain the health of the camp.

The girls attending camp the first of the week are Viola Bryant, Anne Hounsell, Miriam Knoblock, Editha Hartwig, Katherine Volstorff, Nancy Ogden, Mathilde Knoll, Kathleen Cronyn, Mary Babson, Opalmae Green, Florene Berrier, Julia Frances Banks, Edna Barney, Eleanor Banks, Eleanor Hatfield, Dorothy Anderson, Elburna Volstorff, Dorothy Ruggles, Betty Peters, Lola Byrd, Lenore Lage, Maxine Ellis, Harriet Thomsen, Kathleen Hartwig, Ruth Crites, Georgia Creswell, Gertrude Backinger, Rebecca Thomson, Alice Pearl Colby, Helen Kirkpatrick.

CRAG RATS ASKED FOR CAMP PROGRAM

If plans suggested by John H. Barnet, program director of station KEX, Portland, are carried out, the Crag Rats will furnish an interesting monthly program for Pacific northwest listeners in on the air. Mr. Barnet's letter, just received by A. L. Anderson, follows:

"While at Cloud Cap Inn recently, when the Crag Rats were busy with the Mount Hood accident, I talked to members of your organization and asked them the possibilities of having your organization up to our studio in the Terminal Sales Building some night when it was convenient for you."

"We have given this some thought and would like to suggest to you, if the proposition is acceptable, that you people come into the studio in your hiking clothes and we will place the ' mike' in the center of our studio and scatter fire wood around and have an imaginary campfire. The Crag Rats would sit around the 'mike' and the fire and would tell of some of their experiences and perhaps sing some of their songs. We would broadcast a program for an hour, just as you were out in the woods around the camp fire."

"We think this would be a wonderful program for publicity for the Crag Rats and should the broadcast prove a success as we think it would, KEX could probably make it a monthly event. We know at the present time of no such broadcasting in the country and it would be a novel feature indeed."

Monday Was Hot

With an unusual humidity accompanying the heat, the temperature rising to 94 Monday, mid-Columbia folk sweated. The sky was heavily clouded part of the day.

Although the maximum temperatures reached only 90 degrees Tuesday, the heat, because of excessive humidity, was the most oppressive felt here this year. Thunder showers prevailed around the base of Mount Adams and Mount Hood, cooling the air somewhat Tuesday night.

BAND WILL SEEK FUND FOR EXPENSES

Backed by an endorsement of the chamber of commerce the Knights of Pythias band will visit the business folk of the city and raise a fund to carry on concert work and defray other expenses for the coming year. The band organization is one of the most popular in the city. Its members for a number of years have given lavishly of their time and effort aiding in putting enthusiasm into public gatherings.

The band the past several weeks has been giving weekly concerts each Friday evening. The concert of tomorrow night will be given between Third and Fourth on Oak street. Plans call for another street dance Friday evening of next week.

"It is not our purpose to apply any of the fund we raise," said Director Clyde Simpson, "toward any reimbursement for money expended in the past. We simply want a fund to offer from the merchants and business folk, all of whom benefit by our activities. Our annual expenses reach about $800, and the fund will, we believe, be cheerfully furnished us by the business folk of the town. We have set no appointment for anyone. Our committee will call and receive whatever free will contribution merchants and business folk seek to give."

The program of tomorrow night's concert will be:

March, "Salutation," Roland F. Selts; overture, "Princess of India," K. L. King; march, "Plume of Purity," Jos. Keller; baritone and trombone duet, "Imogene," Clay Smith, by A. L. Page and Louise Johnson; march, "Tomahawk Braves," Geo. B. Mann; selection, "Op-eratic Mingle," E. W. Berry; march, "Them Besses," Huffine; finale, "Star Spangled Banner."

MANY KIDDIES AT SWIMMING CLASSES

The swimming classes at Koborg's Beach have started well, according to Supervisor K. O. Garber. On Monday 45 boys were present, and Tuesday morning 30 girls were at the beach. Mr. Garber warns that classes will start promptly at 9:30 A. M., and it is essential that children be prompt.

An interesting event of Monday afternoon occurred when 9-year old Donald Bennett mounted the diving tower. Prince Koborg proceeded up the tower to bring the youngster back to earth. The lad climbed from the topmost diving board but ran out on the second board, which is 20 feet above water, and leaped into the river. He made a beautiful dive and won an applause from the crowd that watched him.

The warm weather has sent many to the swimming beach. More than 70 were at the beach Monday afternoon and evening.

The mosquitoes, which have been an annoyance along the river front lately, are disappearing, according to latest reports from Koborg's.

CREWS ARE RUSHING NEW WASHING PLANTS

In order to meet the emergency raised by the adoption of regulations that require removal of all spray residue from apples and pears, crews aggregating 75 men are rushing to completion two large concrete structures, which will house newly invented equipment for washing fruit.

Contractor L. C. Baldwin has a crew of 55 men working on a structure for the Apple Growers Association, which will equip it as a central washing and packing house. The building, which will be ready for occupancy by September 15, is 210 by 140 feet. It is three stories on the level of Railroad avenue and two stories on Columbia street.

L. M. Bentley, another local contractor, with 25 men is rushing a four story concrete structure, 108 by 40 feet for the E. W. J. Henry, Inc. The building will be ready for occupancy by September 1. It will be used in washing and packing apples of independent growers.

A BIG CROWD OUT TO HEAR REV. SUNDAY

Asbury Methodist church was packed to overflowing Sunday, when Rev. Wm. A. Sunday gave his annual sermon for his Hood River neighbors. Other churches were closed for the event, and long before the services started every seat was filled. When Mr. Sunday began his sermon the doorway was filled, and crowds stood listening at the windows.

Mr. Sunday was in excellent spirits Sunday.

Mr. Sunday took for his text Sunday, "Whatsoever Things are True, Think on Those Things."

DR. WILSON WILL PREACH AT ASBURY

Dr. Clarence True Wilson, head of the prohibition department of the Methodist Episcopal church, who is spending his vacation in Oregon, will preach at Asbury Methodist church here next Sunday morning.

Rev. Henry Young, pastor of Asbury church, will go to John Day next Sunday, when he will preach the sermon at the dedication of the new Methodist Episcopal church.

GROWERS TO OLD PICNIC

ASSOCIATION MEET ON WEDNESDAY

Preparations Being Made For Big Crowd at Koborg Beach—Sports Will Follow Banquet Dinner

Preparations are being made for an attendance of about 2,000 members of the Apple Growers Association and their families at the cooperative's annual picnic at Koborg Beach next Wednesday. The grower members of the cooperative organization and the scores of employes will lay aside all cares that day and don bathing suits at the popular beach resort.

While the climax of the day will, of course, be the picnic lunch at noon, when housewives from city and valley will heap pyramids of fried chicken, cakes, pickles, jellies and other delicacies on the tables, other activities will include field sports and swimming races.

The Association picnic, launched several years ago for the purpose of bringing about a closer acquaintance among the members and employes of the cooperative, has become one of the outstanding features of social life here in the summer.

Members of the committee in charge of the picnic preparations are: General committee, Victor Follenius, Arne Hukari, Paul Hoerlein, Eino Annala, Kent Shoemaker, Ralph Davies, D. E. Pierson, lunch, Antio Annala, Wm. Hukari, Arvi Hukari, John Mohr, Joe Jarvis; reception, Solo Annala, Arvi Annala, Wm. Goodenough, C. A. Beed, G. Wertgen; dance, Floyd Nunamaker, Solo Annala, J. Pierson, Jouis Plog; program, John Annala, T. J. Annala, Howard Shoemaker, A. J. Miller, Eugene Ewmer, J. Fletcher.

D. L. Pierson, chairman of the general committee says:

"Perfect weather is ordered and a large day should be had by all. As usual the East Side will try to put it over on the West Side in a ball game. Some of the best speakers in the west will be heard in the auditorium. Vast quantities of ice cream and coffee will be furnished free at noon. Dancing will be free in the hall during the afternoon. Beach games, swimming, horse shoe pitching, etc., will provide entertainment for everybody. If you wish to buy lunch instead of carrying it from home you will find everything in the line of fancy hot dogs, ice cream cones, cigars, etc., on hand at reasonable prices.

There will be special concessions in the hands of Hood River Crag Rats, and a Crag Rat dance will be held in the Koborg pavilion in the evening."

HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE IS COMING

The Trojan Five, recognized as the foremost minstrel singing aggregation in vaudeville or motion pictures house presentation work, come direct to Manager Kolstad's Rialto theater here Monday night after four sensational weeks at the Broadway theatre in Portland to head the vaudeville portion of the program. Manager Kolstad is sparing no expense in giving the vaudeville patrons of the city a big run for their money and in bringing this big time act here is a good proof.

Getting away from the old style of quartet harmony these young juvenile men offer this ultra modern in harmony singing in the fastest and most pleasing manner imaginable. The Trojans were for seven solid months at the Colony theatre at 50th and Broadway in New York, a season for Ziegfeld at his Casa De Mira club in Florida, have toured the Keith and Orpheum circuits in vaudeville and for the past six months have been featured in the biggest theaters on the Pacific coast. They are now on their way east to open in September a long route for the Keith-Albee circuit which is the best in vaudeville.

Other acts of merit on the coming bill are the Holland Duo and Giddy and Giddy. The former is an extremely high class piano, violin and song act presented in a very pleasing way by two real artists that are bound to win the favor of local music lovers. The Holland recently completed a tour of the Pantages circuit. Giddy and Giddy is a novel acrobatic act with special lighting and scenic effects in which are exhibited marvelous feats of skill.

ASSOCIATION CUTS MELON OF $125,000

The Apple Growers Association this week is forwarding to its growers checks aggregating $125,000, including the final returns on the 1926 apple and pear tonnage and refunds on various budget items.

The checks of this week will bring the total returns on the 1926 apple and pear crop to $2,500,000.

The basis of the distribution was as follows:

Refund on tentative budget charges, $01819 per box; refund on store accounts, 5 1/2 per cent; refund on trucking accounts, 20 per cent.

Refund per box on freight claims: Newtowns, $0.023; Splitsburgs, $0.041; Ortleys, $0.063; Jonthans, $0.067; d'Anjou pears, $0.046; Bose, $0.02; Winter Nellis, $0.01.

DR. WILSON WILL PREACH AT ASBURY

Dr. Clarence True Wilson, head of the prohibition department of the Methodist Episcopal church, who is spending his vacation in Oregon, will preach at Asbury Methodist church here next Sunday morning.

Rev. Henry Young, pastor of Asbury church, will go to John Day next Sunday, when he will preach the sermon at the dedication of the new Methodist Episcopal church.
