

ODELL
Last week we were hurried and were unable to have included in Odell notes the announcements for Sunday's services.

PARKDALE
Glen Monroe received word from Portland last week that his sister, Harriet, had broken one of her legs.

Mrs. Walton and Mrs. L. H. Rose entertained the children of the Cradle Roll and their mothers at the home of Mrs. Walton last Friday afternoon.

Miss Lucile Carlson, one of the Cascade League teachers, spent the week end with her friend and former schoolmate, Mrs. Harold McIsaac.

The Women's Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Grieves on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Warren (Gibbs) was the leader.

The Parent-Teacher association will give a box and pie social in the near future for the benefit of the hot lunch fund. Watch for the date.

The Apples Association held its monthly meeting on Monday night. R. J. McIsaac, Victor C. Follenius and I. R. Acheson were the principal speakers.

Bill Sommer has received word from Chicago that his mother is well and about to return home.

The Odell club basketball team defeated the Ringtown team on the Ringtown floor Wednesday, January 18, by a score of 39-23.

A. E. Jakku went to Portland Thursday and since that time has been under treatment at the Veterans' hospital. He suffered an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and Mrs. M. Hawthorne left Hood River by the 6:30 a. m. train Monday. Both women stopped in Portland.

Mrs. L. A. E. Clark went to Portland Tuesday for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Nickerson.

Quite a number of Odell friends of the J. O. Cameron family attended the farewell party given for them Saturday night at Central Yale school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Fletcher went to Portland via O.-W. R. & N. Tuesday morning. They expect to return home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen spent the day Tuesday last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Krohn.

Mr. and Mrs. Krohn received five hundred baby chicks, Barred Rocks, on Wednesday last week.

Mrs. L. D. Boyd was a visitor in The Dalles one day last week.

After having spent the past several weeks in Portland Miss Grace M. Chambers motored home Friday.

Mr. L. D. Boyd spent Monday in The Dalles.

A school clinic will be held at the grade school Friday, tomorrow, morning. Mrs. S. J. and Mrs. W. J. Peterson, dentist, assisted by County Nurse Carlton will conduct the clinic.

Odell High School Notes
We were disappointed last Friday night when the Corbett basketball team arrived, for only the boys came.

Couch Henderson has ordered several plays that will be selected for the basketball season. The plays are "Rival Ghosts," "Modern Ananias," "Dutch Detective" and "Captain Rackett."

Another game has been added to our game schedule. The Dalles club team will play our boys team on February 4 at Odell.—H. J.

Couch Henderson appointed a committee of five girls with Rose Griffin as chairman, to prepare refreshments for the Corbett and Odell basketball teams last Friday evening.

On account of the carnival, and the amount of school that has been missed, the semester examinations will be given February 8 and 9, instead of the regular time.—H. J.

The girls' basketball squad journeyed to Hood River for the game played by the girls there. It was evening game and the teams were evenly matched.

Clyde Perkins is caretaker of the building and school properties. Clyde loses his work clothes and commands respect of both the teachers and students.

There is an effort in the part of all to have the schools progress harmoniously. If we had a cat or a dog or any other school mascot we would want it to be good, to be happy and to have become more intelligent.

Louise Parker, Lavern Hatfield and Harold Booth have registered in high school for the second semester. Louise was in the freshman and Lavern was in the junior class last year.

Saturday night Parkdale high played a practice game with Hood River high and were beaten by a score of 29-17.—E. W.

Blennor Halliday, one of the star players on the girls' basketball team was back to school to take some of her beat us last time, but never again, so come on ye rooters, give a choo choo rah rah for Odell high.—M. S.

PARKDALE
Glen Monroe received word from Portland last week that his sister, Harriet, had broken one of her legs.

Mrs. Walton and Mrs. L. H. Rose entertained the children of the Cradle Roll and their mothers at the home of Mrs. Walton last Friday afternoon.

Miss Lucile Carlson, one of the Cascade League teachers, spent the week end with her friend and former schoolmate, Mrs. Harold McIsaac.

The Women's Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Grieves on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Warren (Gibbs) was the leader.

The Parent-Teacher association will give a box and pie social in the near future for the benefit of the hot lunch fund. Watch for the date.

The Apples Association held its monthly meeting on Monday night. R. J. McIsaac, Victor C. Follenius and I. R. Acheson were the principal speakers.

Bill Sommer has received word from Chicago that his mother is well and about to return home.

The Odell club basketball team defeated the Ringtown team on the Ringtown floor Wednesday, January 18, by a score of 39-23.

A. E. Jakku went to Portland Thursday and since that time has been under treatment at the Veterans' hospital. He suffered an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and Mrs. M. Hawthorne left Hood River by the 6:30 a. m. train Monday. Both women stopped in Portland.

Mrs. L. A. E. Clark went to Portland Tuesday for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Nickerson.

Quite a number of Odell friends of the J. O. Cameron family attended the farewell party given for them Saturday night at Central Yale school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Fletcher went to Portland via O.-W. R. & N. Tuesday morning. They expect to return home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen spent the day Tuesday last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Krohn.

Mr. and Mrs. Krohn received five hundred baby chicks, Barred Rocks, on Wednesday last week.

Mrs. L. D. Boyd was a visitor in The Dalles one day last week.

After having spent the past several weeks in Portland Miss Grace M. Chambers motored home Friday.

Mr. L. D. Boyd spent Monday in The Dalles.

A school clinic will be held at the grade school Friday, tomorrow, morning. Mrs. S. J. and Mrs. W. J. Peterson, dentist, assisted by County Nurse Carlton will conduct the clinic.

Odell High School Notes
We were disappointed last Friday night when the Corbett basketball team arrived, for only the boys came.

Couch Henderson has ordered several plays that will be selected for the basketball season. The plays are "Rival Ghosts," "Modern Ananias," "Dutch Detective" and "Captain Rackett."

Another game has been added to our game schedule. The Dalles club team will play our boys team on February 4 at Odell.—H. J.

Couch Henderson appointed a committee of five girls with Rose Griffin as chairman, to prepare refreshments for the Corbett and Odell basketball teams last Friday evening.

On account of the carnival, and the amount of school that has been missed, the semester examinations will be given February 8 and 9, instead of the regular time.—H. J.

The girls' basketball squad journeyed to Hood River for the game played by the girls there. It was evening game and the teams were evenly matched.

Clyde Perkins is caretaker of the building and school properties. Clyde loses his work clothes and commands respect of both the teachers and students.

There is an effort in the part of all to have the schools progress harmoniously. If we had a cat or a dog or any other school mascot we would want it to be good, to be happy and to have become more intelligent.

Louise Parker, Lavern Hatfield and Harold Booth have registered in high school for the second semester. Louise was in the freshman and Lavern was in the junior class last year.

Saturday night Parkdale high played a practice game with Hood River high and were beaten by a score of 29-17.—E. W.

Blennor Halliday, one of the star players on the girls' basketball team was back to school to take some of her beat us last time, but never again, so come on ye rooters, give a choo choo rah rah for Odell high.—M. S.

PARKDALE
Glen Monroe received word from Portland last week that his sister, Harriet, had broken one of her legs.

Mrs. Walton and Mrs. L. H. Rose entertained the children of the Cradle Roll and their mothers at the home of Mrs. Walton last Friday afternoon.

Miss Lucile Carlson, one of the Cascade League teachers, spent the week end with her friend and former schoolmate, Mrs. Harold McIsaac.

The Women's Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Grieves on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Warren (Gibbs) was the leader.

The Parent-Teacher association will give a box and pie social in the near future for the benefit of the hot lunch fund. Watch for the date.

The Apples Association held its monthly meeting on Monday night. R. J. McIsaac, Victor C. Follenius and I. R. Acheson were the principal speakers.

Bill Sommer has received word from Chicago that his mother is well and about to return home.

The Odell club basketball team defeated the Ringtown team on the Ringtown floor Wednesday, January 18, by a score of 39-23.

A. E. Jakku went to Portland Thursday and since that time has been under treatment at the Veterans' hospital. He suffered an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and Mrs. M. Hawthorne left Hood River by the 6:30 a. m. train Monday. Both women stopped in Portland.

Mrs. L. A. E. Clark went to Portland Tuesday for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Nickerson.

Quite a number of Odell friends of the J. O. Cameron family attended the farewell party given for them Saturday night at Central Yale school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Fletcher went to Portland via O.-W. R. & N. Tuesday morning. They expect to return home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen spent the day Tuesday last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Krohn.

Mr. and Mrs. Krohn received five hundred baby chicks, Barred Rocks, on Wednesday last week.

Mrs. L. D. Boyd was a visitor in The Dalles one day last week.

After having spent the past several weeks in Portland Miss Grace M. Chambers motored home Friday.

Mr. L. D. Boyd spent Monday in The Dalles.

A school clinic will be held at the grade school Friday, tomorrow, morning. Mrs. S. J. and Mrs. W. J. Peterson, dentist, assisted by County Nurse Carlton will conduct the clinic.

Odell High School Notes
We were disappointed last Friday night when the Corbett basketball team arrived, for only the boys came.

Couch Henderson has ordered several plays that will be selected for the basketball season. The plays are "Rival Ghosts," "Modern Ananias," "Dutch Detective" and "Captain Rackett."

Another game has been added to our game schedule. The Dalles club team will play our boys team on February 4 at Odell.—H. J.

Couch Henderson appointed a committee of five girls with Rose Griffin as chairman, to prepare refreshments for the Corbett and Odell basketball teams last Friday evening.

On account of the carnival, and the amount of school that has been missed, the semester examinations will be given February 8 and 9, instead of the regular time.—H. J.

The girls' basketball squad journeyed to Hood River for the game played by the girls there. It was evening game and the teams were evenly matched.

Clyde Perkins is caretaker of the building and school properties. Clyde loses his work clothes and commands respect of both the teachers and students.

There is an effort in the part of all to have the schools progress harmoniously. If we had a cat or a dog or any other school mascot we would want it to be good, to be happy and to have become more intelligent.

Louise Parker, Lavern Hatfield and Harold Booth have registered in high school for the second semester. Louise was in the freshman and Lavern was in the junior class last year.

Saturday night Parkdale high played a practice game with Hood River high and were beaten by a score of 29-17.—E. W.

Blennor Halliday, one of the star players on the girls' basketball team was back to school to take some of her beat us last time, but never again, so come on ye rooters, give a choo choo rah rah for Odell high.—M. S.

PARKDALE
Glen Monroe received word from Portland last week that his sister, Harriet, had broken one of her legs.

Mrs. Walton and Mrs. L. H. Rose entertained the children of the Cradle Roll and their mothers at the home of Mrs. Walton last Friday afternoon.

Miss Lucile Carlson, one of the Cascade League teachers, spent the week end with her friend and former schoolmate, Mrs. Harold McIsaac.

The Women's Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Grieves on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Warren (Gibbs) was the leader.

The Parent-Teacher association will give a box and pie social in the near future for the benefit of the hot lunch fund. Watch for the date.

The Apples Association held its monthly meeting on Monday night. R. J. McIsaac, Victor C. Follenius and I. R. Acheson were the principal speakers.

Bill Sommer has received word from Chicago that his mother is well and about to return home.

The Odell club basketball team defeated the Ringtown team on the Ringtown floor Wednesday, January 18, by a score of 39-23.

A. E. Jakku went to Portland Thursday and since that time has been under treatment at the Veterans' hospital. He suffered an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and Mrs. M. Hawthorne left Hood River by the 6:30 a. m. train Monday. Both women stopped in Portland.

Mrs. L. A. E. Clark went to Portland Tuesday for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Nickerson.

Quite a number of Odell friends of the J. O. Cameron family attended the farewell party given for them Saturday night at Central Yale school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Fletcher went to Portland via O.-W. R. & N. Tuesday morning. They expect to return home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen spent the day Tuesday last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Krohn.

Mr. and Mrs. Krohn received five hundred baby chicks, Barred Rocks, on Wednesday last week.

Mrs. L. D. Boyd was a visitor in The Dalles one day last week.

After having spent the past several weeks in Portland Miss Grace M. Chambers motored home Friday.

Mr. L. D. Boyd spent Monday in The Dalles.

A school clinic will be held at the grade school Friday, tomorrow, morning. Mrs. S. J. and Mrs. W. J. Peterson, dentist, assisted by County Nurse Carlton will conduct the clinic.

Odell High School Notes
We were disappointed last Friday night when the Corbett basketball team arrived, for only the boys came.

Couch Henderson has ordered several plays that will be selected for the basketball season. The plays are "Rival Ghosts," "Modern Ananias," "Dutch Detective" and "Captain Rackett."

Another game has been added to our game schedule. The Dalles club team will play our boys team on February 4 at Odell.—H. J.

Couch Henderson appointed a committee of five girls with Rose Griffin as chairman, to prepare refreshments for the Corbett and Odell basketball teams last Friday evening.

On account of the carnival, and the amount of school that has been missed, the semester examinations will be given February 8 and 9, instead of the regular time.—H. J.

The girls' basketball squad journeyed to Hood River for the game played by the girls there. It was evening game and the teams were evenly matched.

Clyde Perkins is caretaker of the building and school properties. Clyde loses his work clothes and commands respect of both the teachers and students.

There is an effort in the part of all to have the schools progress harmoniously. If we had a cat or a dog or any other school mascot we would want it to be good, to be happy and to have become more intelligent.

Louise Parker, Lavern Hatfield and Harold Booth have registered in high school for the second semester. Louise was in the freshman and Lavern was in the junior class last year.

Saturday night Parkdale high played a practice game with Hood River high and were beaten by a score of 29-17.—E. W.

Blennor Halliday, one of the star players on the girls' basketball team was back to school to take some of her beat us last time, but never again, so come on ye rooters, give a choo choo rah rah for Odell high.—M. S.

PARKDALE
Glen Monroe received word from Portland last week that his sister, Harriet, had broken one of her legs.

Mrs. Walton and Mrs. L. H. Rose entertained the children of the Cradle Roll and their mothers at the home of Mrs. Walton last Friday afternoon.

Miss Lucile Carlson, one of the Cascade League teachers, spent the week end with her friend and former schoolmate, Mrs. Harold McIsaac.

The Women's Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Grieves on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Warren (Gibbs) was the leader.

The Parent-Teacher association will give a box and pie social in the near future for the benefit of the hot lunch fund. Watch for the date.

The Apples Association held its monthly meeting on Monday night. R. J. McIsaac, Victor C. Follenius and I. R. Acheson were the principal speakers.

Bill Sommer has received word from Chicago that his mother is well and about to return home.

The Odell club basketball team defeated the Ringtown team on the Ringtown floor Wednesday, January 18, by a score of 39-23.

A. E. Jakku went to Portland Thursday and since that time has been under treatment at the Veterans' hospital. He suffered an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and Mrs. M. Hawthorne left Hood River by the 6:30 a. m. train Monday. Both women stopped in Portland.

Mrs. L. A. E. Clark went to Portland Tuesday for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Nickerson.

Quite a number of Odell friends of the J. O. Cameron family attended the farewell party given for them Saturday night at Central Yale school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Fletcher went to Portland via O.-W. R. & N. Tuesday morning. They expect to return home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen spent the day Tuesday last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Krohn.

Mr. and Mrs. Krohn received five hundred baby chicks, Barred Rocks, on Wednesday last week.

Mrs. L. D. Boyd was a visitor in The Dalles one day last week.

After having spent the past several weeks in Portland Miss Grace M. Chambers motored home Friday.

Mr. L. D. Boyd spent Monday in The Dalles.

A school clinic will be held at the grade school Friday, tomorrow, morning. Mrs. S. J. and Mrs. W. J. Peterson, dentist, assisted by County Nurse Carlton will conduct the clinic.

Odell High School Notes
We were disappointed last Friday night when the Corbett basketball team arrived, for only the boys came.

Couch Henderson has ordered several plays that will be selected for the basketball season. The plays are "Rival Ghosts," "Modern Ananias," "Dutch Detective" and "Captain Rackett."

Another game has been added to our game schedule. The Dalles club team will play our boys team on February 4 at Odell.—H. J.

Couch Henderson appointed a committee of five girls with Rose Griffin as chairman, to prepare refreshments for the Corbett and Odell basketball teams last Friday evening.

On account of the carnival, and the amount of school that has been missed, the semester examinations will be given February 8 and 9, instead of the regular time.—H. J.

The girls' basketball squad journeyed to Hood River for the game played by the girls there. It was evening game and the teams were evenly matched.

Clyde Perkins is caretaker of the building and school properties. Clyde loses his work clothes and commands respect of both the teachers and students.

There is an effort in the part of all to have the schools progress harmoniously. If we had a cat or a dog or any other school mascot we would want it to be good, to be happy and to have become more intelligent.

Louise Parker, Lavern Hatfield and Harold Booth have registered in high school for the second semester. Louise was in the freshman and Lavern was in the junior class last year.

Saturday night Parkdale high played a practice game with Hood River high and were beaten by a score of 29-17.—E. W.

Blennor Halliday, one of the star players on the girls' basketball team was back to school to take some of her

J. C. PENNEY CO. A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION. "where savings are greatest" Hood River, Oregon

Spring Silks Dress Goods Are READY for All Home Dressmakers. Springtime Prints Are Freshly Patterned. Dainty Voiles For Frocks and Undies. Plisse Crepe For Gowns and Undergarments. Plain 19c Fancy 25c

MUNICIPAL HYDRO PLANT. (By A. J. Derby) "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country."... CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NOTES. (From Apple City Progress) A special committee appointed by President Scott to consider the conditions of the streets in Hood River...

beat us last time, but never again, so come on ye rooters, give a choo choo rah rah for Odell high.—M. S.

PARKDALE
Glen Monroe received word from Portland last week that his sister, Harriet, had broken one of her legs.

Mrs. Walton and Mrs. L. H. Rose entertained the children of the Cradle Roll and their mothers at the home of Mrs. Walton last Friday afternoon.

Miss Lucile Carlson, one of the Cascade League teachers, spent the week end with her friend and former schoolmate, Mrs. Harold McIsaac.

The Women's Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Grieves on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Warren (Gibbs) was the leader.

The Parent-Teacher association will give a box and pie social in the near future for the benefit of the hot lunch fund. Watch for the date.