

CAMP FIRE NOTES

Miss Marjorie E. Knapp, connected with the Portland Camp Fire Girls, will talk on "What a Community Does from Camp Fire" at the Camp Fire Girls rally, Saturday evening, March 17, 7:30 p. m., to be held at the Junior high school auditorium. Specially prepared stunts will be given by various groups. The public is cordially invited.

Camp Fire girls, in a body, will attend a Sunday evening service at the Riverside church, 7:30 p. m. The service will be interesting and impressive.

Local groups are very busy working on baby layettes which form a part of the service.

The Solohé Camp Fire Girls were entertained at a Firemaker's dinner last Wednesday evening at the Riverside church.

The Barrett Camp Fire Girls are now known as the Zonta, Wyeast group. The new officers are Lois Isenberger, president; Grace Hillis, vice-president; Margaret Wylie, secretary; Priscilla Motziff, treasurer; Jean Isenberger, song leader; Wilma Isenberger, scribe. This group had a first aid lesson at the Barrett school last Wednesday.

Miss Frances Fuller is the newly appointed guardian of the Wauna fire-ho group, which meets Tuesday after school at St. Mark's parish house.

The Camp Fire guardians met Tuesday evening at St. Mark's church. The evening was spent in cutting stencils and stenciling leather honors.

All three ranks were awarded at the grand council fire held last Saturday. Eleanor Halliday of Parkdale has now joined the society of Torchbearers.

Eleanor has shown an active interest in all affairs local to Parkdale. She is an all around sport, at school, at church, at home, in the community. She has proved by service rendered and influence extended that she has the possibilities and capacity of a good leader.

My, aren't we glad the Pirates left the Treasure Chest in the Pacific Power & Light Co. window for you members to finish filling it up? If you have not been asked for some article—don't wait, but send something for the daughter. Girls awarded the first rank of Woodgatherer were Barbara Howell, Dorothy Anderson, Barbara Pooley, Athol Miller, Myrtle Swyers, Marian Shoemaker.

LEGION NOTES

Members of the Hood River post of the American Legion and Auxiliary attended the district conference held at Antelope Monday evening. They report a very enthusiastic meeting with 75 members from posts of this district in attendance. The Antelope post functioned as an ideal host, furnishing an excellent feed with all the fixings.

Two cars from Hood River carried the following delegates to the conference: Mr. and Mrs. Don McLeod, Mrs. Harold Hersher, Mrs. Chas. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Frey and Ed Krieg, Mr. Proctor and Mr. Blanchard were picked up by the Hood River delegation.

The Auxiliary treasure chest is on display at the office of the Pacific Power & Light company. Each day there are added new articles to the chest. Look the chest over. This chest will be given away at the Spring Frolic dance given by the Auxiliary April 11.

LEGION AUXILIARY NOTES

The Tri Council meeting held in Antelope Monday evening was well attended. The Antelope unit surely knows how to show the visiting units a good time.

The unit and post did not visit the U. S. Veterans' hospital 77, March 11 on account of weather conditions. However, we plan on making the trip next month, so keep this in mind.

If you want some attractive gifts call Mrs. W. E. Shay and let her show you the lovely line of leather goods and baskets she is selling for the boys in the U. S. Veterans' hospital. All these articles are made by the patients, so you will be helping a war article—don't you buy something.

My, aren't we glad the Pirates left the Treasure Chest in the Pacific Power & Light Co. window for you members to finish filling it up? If you have not been asked for some article—don't wait, but send something for the chest this week. Remember the Spring Frolic dance April 11. We all want to take that in and get the thrill of a life time when you and you are the lucky Mrs. Captain Kidd and carry of the prized treasure chest.

Tuesday, March 20, the hospital committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Walter Ford for a one o'clock covered-dish luncheon. We are expecting a large turn out that day, as our chairman has plenty of work to be done.

De Molay Notes

The De Molay members will observe "Devotional Day" Sunday, March 18 by attending the Methodist church. Mr. Young will preach a special sermon for the De Molays. Members will meet at the lodge rooms at 10:30 and will go to the church in a body. Let's have every member there.

At the regular meeting of the Hood River chapter, Order of De Molay, held last Monday, the De Molay degree was conferred on Louis Jones and Norman Friday. After the degree light refreshments were served, and the members enjoyed some fine speeches given by Masons and De Molays. The next meeting will be held March 26.

PARKDALE

Mrs. J. D. Smullin was on the sick list last week. We are glad to say she is feeling much better at this writing.

Rev. Scherer and Mrs. Scherer and Chas. Craven spent Thursday in Portland.

Tom Davis came over from Condon, where he is working, and spent the week end at home with Mrs. Davis and Fannie.

W. C. Smullin is confined at home with a severe cold.

Eleanor Halliday attended the Camp Fire meeting in Hood River Saturday evening where she was made a Torchbearer.

"Barbed Wire", a war story, will be the picture next Sunday evening.

Don't forget the "Gypsy Rover" tomorrow night.

ANNUAL REPORT GETS PRAISE

Hood River's Newtown apple crop the past season was an excellent one. Mr. Follett said. The Association still has 11 cars of the variety, and the general manager urged growers to visit storage warehouses and determine personally how well the apples have held up. Letters of commendation on the Newtown have been received from the export and domestic markets.

"The writers," Mr. Follett said, "declare that the quality of the Hood River Newtown from the 1927 crop remained them of the old days. The Newtown has staged a come-back in the British market. Buyers commend the practice of using corrugated cardboard pads on all sides of the boxes, thus reducing shipping damage. The Newtowns have topped the market with a substantial premium."

Mr. Follett said that collections of the Association had never been better. He predicted that collections for the season will be made 100 per cent. In spite of the small crop year, the financial report of the cooperative shows that liabilities, in fixed indebtedness, have been reduced to $45,000, and the construction of a new central packing plant has brought the assets of the company to a point of about $100,000 better than a year ago.

Mr. Follett said that the Association will continue to wash all apples. A policy of segregating the weak from the good keeping fruit will be worked out further. He declared that the sales department will send every effort toward advantageous sales of the 700 or 800 cars of Spitzenburgs expected the coming fall. Growers will be called on to help every department of the Association in getting the fruit into cold storage as soon as possible.

Mr. Follett said that wherever 25,000 to 30,000 boxes of apples can be assembled, there the Association will establish a community packing plant. He declared that the organization will profit by the experience of last year, and that the cost of packing will be brought down in another year.

Mr. Follett declared that he was gratified at the unity and cooperation existing among all departments of the cooperative. While the organization is primarily a sales concern, he declared that the inspection, supplies, warehousing and other departments are cooperating to make better sales possible.

I. R. Acheson, assistant manager, and H. M. Dexter, traffic man and sales official, were given high praise for their work of the past year by the general manager.

Mr. Davidson in an address to growers Saturday asked that in the future he be relieved from further duties with the Association. Since 1924 he has been sales advisor. He declared that his canning business demands his time exclusively. Mr. Davidson, however, is willing in the future, he said, to give the cooperative the benefit of his experience.

Mr. Davidson related how when he first became associated in an advisory capacity he found at the beginning of the harvest season that the Association had liabilities reaching around $1,200,000. He set about in such wise that before Christmas the indebtedness had been paid, growers had been given an advance of 25 cents per box for harvesting expenses and funds were available for a pre-holiday distribution.

Mr. Davidson declared that he considered the future management of the Association safe without his participation. He urged growers not to make radical changes at any time in the management policy or in the personnel of the management.

President R. J. McIsaac declared that

At the instance of Eugene G. Ewer the directorate was instructed to investigate the matter of changing the annual meetings, placing them at dates after the close of the business of each season and report back at the April meeting.

The annual report of the Association shows that the cooperative handled 566,476 boxes of apples. Of this amount a total of 352,548 boxes have been fully paid for, netting growers $498,588.00. The pear tonnage of the Association for 1927 reached 118,027 boxes, for which 97,080 boxes have been paid for, netting the growers $254,297.20.

The financial statement shows that the Association has real estate valued at $825,354.77. The value of other items is as follows: automobiles and trucks, $18,796.27; furniture and office equipment, $11,834.02; and tools and equipment, $83,132.38.

The total indebtedness of the Association is now only $208,000.00. Its working capital is as follows:
Building and equipment fund, $616,006.08; purchasing fund, $178,428.33; membership fees, $21,137.46; earned surplus, $71,429.41; total working capital, $887,001.88.
