BELMONT

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold have purchased the Wright home next to the Grange hall and are renovating it. They expect to move this month.

Miss Ethel Dixon of Centralia is visiting friends here.

Mrs. E. J. Nicholson entertained the Woman's Union of Riverside church last Friday at an all day meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Taylor and Miss Margaret were in Hood River last week end visiting their new grandson and other relatives.

Mrs. Manser, Mrs. West and Mrs. Hull motored to Walla Walla recently to visit the young people they are interested in at Whitman College.

B. H. Beell of Brampton Farms, Ontario, Canada, and Ivan Laughery, field man for the American Jersey Cattle club, were guests at dinner Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Acres. Later in the day with Mr. Acres and Mr. Larson they visited the Forden farm, ate ice cream and discussed dairying.

Speaking of tractor disc harrows, the John Deere can be adjusted to any cutting position from the seat of the tractor; it penetrates without weights and has many features that we would like to point out to you. Bennett Brothers.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

Mrs. O. L. Walter and her group of players put on the play, "The Old Fashioned Mother", at Odell Grange hall on Saturday evening, and again at the Baptist church in Hood River on Monday evening. This play was interesting and amusing, and those who attended enjoyed it and knew that their money was for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis.

The next regular meetings will be on C. Tuesday, March 20, at the home of Mrs. C. B. Woodport on 13th street on the Heights. Mrs. Wm. Munroe will have charge of the program. There will be talks and discussions on the different offices of state and on community life and spirit.

St. Mary's Card Party Saturday

St. Mary's parish will celebrate St. Patrick's day Saturday evening with a card party at the Mt. Hood hotel dining room. The party, it is expected, will draw one of the largest crowds ever present at such an event.

Each family of the parish will be responsible for a table at the St. Patrick party.

Low Temperature Halts Rain

The heavy rain storm, which had prevailed for three days over the mid-Columbia, was halted with lowered temperature Sunday night. A two-inch snowfall whitened the surrounding high points Sunday night, accompanying rain on the lowlands.

Orchardists welcome the lower temperatures, which will retard opening of fruit buds.

Calandra Out on Bail

Carl Calandra, indicted on a statutory charge by the grand jury last week, is free on $1000 bail.

In last week's report of the case, The Glacier erred in stating that young Calandra was 22 years old. He is but 20.

MOSIER

C. T. Bennett and his crew of men began working on the county road on Tuesday. This work that is being done is for the benefit of the mail route.

The Ladies Aid society entertained their husbands Wednesday evening by having a St. Patrick's radio party. There was plenty of blarney on the air. Every number on the program was enjoyed. The committee in charge wishes to thank each one who took part in making it an enjoyable evening. The "cats" committee surely served us a real delicious banquet. Those present pronounced it a most enjoyable affair.

Miss Ruth Howes of Hood River was here Wednesday evening to accompany R. J. Seavare in his violin solos.

Two have been added to our population within the last week. On Wednesday a little baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frakes. To Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Huskey a boy was born.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Blanchard drove to Hood River Thursday evening.

Mrs. Winifred Marshall, Miss Elizabeth McClure, Miss Klara Gehmert and Miss Brainard were Thursday evening dinner guests at the home of Mrs. R. D. Wilcox.

H. H. Nielsen was in The Dalles Thursday.

James Wilson was in The Dalles Tuesday.

Mrs. W. E. Clark and daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. C. Clark, spent Wednesday in Portland. The latter and her little daughter returned to their home in Heppner Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Thompson were business visitors in The Dalles Thursday.

Mrs. E. A. Race went to Moro Thursday to be with her mother, who is convalescing after an attack of pneumonia. Marcella accompanied Mrs. Race as far as The Dalles.

Mrs. A. C. Holmes delightfully entertained a few women at a bridge party Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. O. Beldin made the highest score.

Mrs. James Wilson was in Hood River Friday. Also Mrs. Barzee and her daughter, Dorothea, drove over after school. Mrs. Barzee and daughter left early Saturday morning for Fossil to visit with Mr. Barzee, who is opening a new meat market there. Mosier friends wish him success in his new enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Taggenell are spending a few days visiting at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vensel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Horn and daughter, Miss Irene, attended the aviation field dedication in Hood River Monday.

Mrs. Cattie M. Bigbee, the esteemed teacher of Boyd, drove to Mosier Friday evening to spend the week end with her cousin, Mrs. Marshall.

W. E. Chown and son, Roger, motored Friday afternoon to Mosier and spent the week end at the home of Dick Wilcox.

Harry Wilson drove to Corvallis to bring a truckload of household goods to Mosier for Ernest Evans, who is moving back to our little burg.

E. M. Strauss has been suffering from a very severe cold. He was in Hood River Thursday consulting his doctor.

James Cherry is now manager of the Laurnell market in Hood River.

The 500 card club was most delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. James Wilson. Mrs. Bigbee, Mrs. O. E. Wilson and Mrs. W. J. Kocken acted as substitutes. Mrs. E. M. Strauss received the highest score and consequently carried off the prize. The dainty, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Wilson assisted by her mother, Mrs. F. A. Shogren.

G. L. Davenport of Portland visited Mosier Saturday and Sunday.

James Cherry and family were dinner guests at the Gunning home in The Dalles Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson returned from Tacoma Saturday and spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nielsen. She reports Mr. Johnson as getting along nicely and recovering from his recent operation.

The Hard Times dance Saturday evening at the O. O. F. hall was well attended. All report having had a good time.

Guy Duvall has moved his family into the house lately vacated by Bill Halley.

The Legion will give a dance in the auditorium Friday evening, March 16. Claude Rowland is working at the Laurnell market at Hood River with Mr. Cherry.

Mosier High School Notes

Friday night the Mosier high school basketball team met those of Shaniko-Anelopo. The girls' game ended with a score of 10 to 64 in favor of Mosier. The boys were evenly matched, and their game ended with a score of 5 to 15 in favor of Mosier. After the games refreshments were served and several hours of dancing were enjoyed. The main feature of the night.

Mosier is going to send delegates to the annual typing contest to be held April 14 at Pendleton. An elimination contest will be held soon to determine who is not known yet whether we will send a first year student and a second year student or teams from both classes.

Rockford Grange News

The Home Economics club will meet with Mrs. J. R. Forden, Wednesday, March 21. After the business meeting there will be a short parliamentary study in charge of Mrs. Wm. Munroe. The main feature of the program will be a discussion on flower gardening by Mrs. Geo. Friday. There are several other matters of interest to bring before the members.

The moving pictures shown at the hall last Saturday evening were instructive, interesting and entertaining. Another good program is being arranged for Saturday, March 17.

The main feature bill will be "The Yankee Clipper."

The play to be given some time in April is progressing nicely. Of course, some things seem quite terrible, as for instance when a young lady, "so young and fair" is suddenly reduced to infamy one realizes the awfulness of "second childhood."

The degree team met again for practice Monday evening. Good work is being done and we will be proud of our team when they make their initial appearance before Pine Grove grange the 20th of this month.

State Master Palmiter attended a meeting of the board of regents of O. A. C. at Corvallis on Tuesday of last week. He and A. I. Mason also attended a meeting of Shearer grange in Sherman county on Saturday.

The old time dance given at the hall last Friday evening was one of the most enjoyable and hilarious given in some time. All who were present are looking forward to the one to be given on March 23.

BARRETT

Mrs. Fred Glicher and son, Dan, and little daughter, Barbara, returned to their home near Longview, Wash., after several days' visit with friends.

Mrs. John Griffith returned home from The Dalles Sunday afternoon. She had been caring for her granddaughter, Mrs. Wm. Ross, the past week.

Willard Naught was quite sick a few days the past week.

If buying a tractor disc harrow this spring, see the John Deere Model L at Bennett Brothers. It is built flexible for easy turning, penetrates without weights and has features which insure a job that will please you.

SCREEN AND STAGE

Gary Cooper's new Paramount vehicle, "The Last Outlaw," is a fine example of virile, he-man drama. It is western, outdoor, open-air, ride 'em cowboy action celluloid at its best. And men, women and children are going to like it. That, being the test of a motion picture, the Rialto is automatically placed on the list of "places where a pleasant hour may be passed." The show will be run Saturday.

This boy, Cooper, has taken long strides during the last twelve months. Prior to "The Winning of Barbara Worth" he was practically an unknown. He leaped to fame in "Children of Divorce" and became a western whirlwind in "Arizona Bound." If he keeps up his present speedy rate, Cooper will soon find himself at the very top of the ladder.

Mary makes a surprising and happy discovery in "Demons of the Darkness," the seventh chapter of "Hawk of the Hills," showing Saturday at the Rialto theatre with Allene Ray and Walter Miller. After a terrifying night in Lost Canyon, the morning's early sun reveals to the sorely tried girl the location of her father's gold claim. But happier news would be the finding of her father. In this chapter, Lieut. McCready and his soldiers are searching for Mary, who is imploring Laramie to tell her who he really is, so that she may put her entire trust in him. How can she absolutely trust a member of the Hawk's band, no matter how many times he saves her from death?

A desperate machine gun battle in the streets, with gangsters and police declaring war to the finish forms one of the thrilling scenes in Thomas Melghan's new Paramount production, "The City Gone Wild" which comes to the screen this Sunday. It is a story of underworld leaders who hold important places in society circles.

While the street battle, marking the start of a new and terrible crime wave in a certain American metropolis, serves as the opening scene of "The City Gone Wild," it is but one of the thrilling incidents during the enactment of the picture. Thrills have been packed into this Melghan story, but at the same time the whole central theme is based on the love of a criminal lawyer for the daughter of a capitalist, the latter being in reality the king of the underworld, despite his cloak of respectability.

This is the most thrilling picture Col. Tim McCoy has ever made! The story is a terse description of "Foreign Devils," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer historical film drama which will be at the Rialto theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

Based on authentic details of one of the most sensational episodes in modern history the story gives the star the best opportunity he has had to show his wares since he began starring in M-G-M historical pictures a little more than a year ago.

The snow scenes in "The Last Walks" which will be on the screen at the Rialto next Wednesday and Thursday, are among the most beautiful that have ever been made. They were shot at St. Moritz, Switzerland, the most famous winter resort in the world.

"The Last Walks" company was in the need of a blizzard with which they might be able to photograph one of the main episodes in the picture. After having arrived at the desired location, they found to their dismay that there had been no blizzard in that vicinity for nearly a month and that none was expected. The next morning, however, when the company was ready to go to work, there was a blizzard raging that was as perfect as if it had been made to order.

"The Last Walks" was taken from the operetta of the same name which had a very successful run in New York. Willy Fritsch who made a tremendous hit in "The Waltz Dream" has the male lead. Suzy Vernon who was the winner of a French beauty contest that was sponsored by Le Journal, a French publication, has the female lead. The picture was directed by Arthur Robison who, though born in Chicago, has spent the major portion of his life in Germany.

There is no Performance like Chrysler "72" Performance

Demonstration Will Prove it to You

There is a new performance sweeping the land—Chrysler "72" performance—obsolescing everything in its field today as completely as did the first Chrysler four years ago.

75 horsepower from an engine of surprisingly small size for such capabilities, through Chrysler's special genius in design and precision manufacturing.

72 miles and more an hour—now made still more smoothly, more easily because of the counterweighted 7-bearing crankshaft.

In traffic, it whisks to the fore in a way that out-Chrysler even Chrysler. Mountain grades literally melt before it.

You owe it to yourself to know this superb Chrysler performance. A demonstration entails no other obligation.

New Chrysler "Red-Head" Engine—designed to take full advantage of high-compression gas, giving 12% greater torque with greater speed, power and hill-climbing ability; standard equipment on all body models of the 112 h. p. Imperial '30, also standard on the roadsters, and available at slight extra cost for other body types of the '30 and '32.
