

ODELL

After having spent the winter visiting his daughters and son in Portland and Oregon City, Mrs. E. E. Gould has returned to Hood River, the Gould family home.

Some of the residents who have spent the winter elsewhere and have returned here are Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Davidson, who wintered in Portland and Mrs. Mary Neider in San Francisco, Calif., Alex. B. Brooks in Tacoma, Wash.

Manure Arthur, Bill and Robert Fletcher are improving from several weeks illness of bronchial pneumonia. Mrs. Fletcher has also suffered from an attack similar to that of the boys.

Mrs. J. H. Davis entertained a party of small boys and girls Saturday afternoon in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Ruth. Those present enjoyed the afternoon after the manner of little folk. They also appreciated the dainty refreshments served by Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal J. Martz and son, Blaine, and Mr. Martz's sister, Miss Laura Martz, motored from Portland Friday of the week end. With the exception of Mrs. Martz the family returned to Hood River Sunday. Mrs. Martz stayed over to attend the Rebekah convention at Parkdale Thursday, today.

Mrs. W. E. Byars of Goldendale, Wash., is spending the week here visiting at the home of her son, W. N. Byars.

Saturday Rev. Geo. Pemberton received notice of the passing of his father, who resided in Illinois. Rev. Pemberton visited his father last year.

Henry Eggert passed away recently at his home in Lawrence, Kas. In 1905 and several times since Mr. Eggert visited at the home of his son, J. H. Eggert, when the Eggert family resided in Odell. Last summer J. H. Eggert and his brother, Fred, visited their father at his home and as will be remembered, Chris Eggert while visiting at the home of his brother, passed away.

W. B. Cunningham received news of the passing of his grandfather, who had reached an age several years past ninety. Death resulted following a fall and a fracture of the hip. Several years ago he visited the Cunninghams at their home in Odell.

The steam shovel to be used in construction of the new Tucker grade arrived in Odell Tuesday via Mt. Hood R. R. Blasting crews have been at work and all indications point toward uninterrupted progress until completion.

Bonnie Weidheimer and Dorothy Pemberton students at Willamette, will be home Friday for a ten days vacation. Irene Ingalls, student at U. of O., is coming home Saturday for the week end.

After having spent the winter at Taft, Ore., and in Portland, J. M. Martin has returned to Odell.

Mrs. L. D. Boyd spent the first of the week in The Dalles at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Shelley.

Saturday night, March 3, was the date of a surprise birthday party given for Mrs. A. C. McCoy. Mrs. Howard McCoy was hostess, and the evening was spent in playing cards. Light refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. McKillip, Mr. and Mrs. Upson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrish, Mr. and Mrs. Paul, Mrs. Jarvis, Mr. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCoy, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McCoy. Everyone enjoyed the evening and left wishing Mrs. McCoy sincerest birthday greetings.

The Odellian is progressing very well. There are some real jokes concerning the faculty and members of the student body, being turned in. The snaps that are coming to the editor will also be one of the interesting features of the Odellian, which will be published about May 15. The seniors spring vacation.

The opera, "Peter Rabbit," gave evidence of careful training on the part of Miss Sherwood and the teachers of the grade school and of attention and continued effort on the part of pupils having parts therein and provided an interesting and entertaining program for those who attended.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will be held Wednesday afternoon of next week at the home of Mrs. Algie Weidheimer with Mrs. Andrew Weidheimer assisting.

The new Club of Maids and Matrons met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hagen, Miss Esther Hagen and Mrs. Nellie Smith, hostesses. Next week Thursday afternoon, the club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Udelius, Miss Linda Udelius, Miss Mary Slute and Miss Irma Ewerman, hostesses.

The drill staff from Hazel Rebekah will put on the initiatory degree at the convention in Parkdale Thursday, today.

Under the auspices of Odell grange the comedy, "Two Days to Marry," will be put on by local talent, Wednesday, March 28. The Oak Grove band will provide the music.

Saturday evening, March 17, next Saturday, is the date announced for the DeMoss concert. This group of musicians and readers has entertained thousands of people in various cities including the states of our own United States, in every province of Canada and in many countries in Europe, and we believe we should consider ourselves fortunate when we realize how small is our place of showing compared to those points usually included in DeMoss tours.

The play, "An Old-fashioned Mother" merited and received enthusiastic applause.

Odell Cash store greatly improved the appearance of the store interior by having kalsomine applied. E. E. Gould was the decorator.

Miss Marguerite Beck of the high school faculty spent the week end with home folk in Portland. She motored back to Odell Sunday night.

Rev. C. L. Dark motored to Portland Tuesday for a few days' business visit. He will also visit his mother, who resides in Portland.

The regular meeting of Odell grange will be held Thursday, this evening at the hall.

Edward La Comb is the new man at the Odell Cash store. W. S. Bristow has a very satisfactory position in a grocery store in Oregon City.

Announcements for next Sunday at the Methodist church: Sunday school, 10 a. m. Allison Fletcher, Supt. Morning Worship, 11 a. m. Sermon subject, "The Stewardship of Life." Epworth League, 7 p. m. Evening service, 8 p. m. Sermon subject, "Ministry Not Mastery." Rev. C. L. Dark, Minister.

After having spent the winter at Taft, Ore., and in Portland, J. M. Martin has returned to Odell.

visited the Artcraft studio and the results were great.—R. G.
As pleasant weather is approaching, much interest in tennis has been aroused. Quite a number of girls are planning on playing this year, so there will be keen competition to win the cup that is being awarded to the champion girl tennis player.—E. J.

The work on the tennis courts will soon be finished, and Coach Henderson will start giving lessons. The student body has purchased two new tennis balls, because the old ones are no good. There will be two four-club silver-leafing cups given to the boy and the girl who win the most games of the season. Three cups are to be presented by the student body, and undoubtedly they will stir up more enthusiasm and keen competition among the players. Last year the freshmen won both boys' and girls' championships, but this year there are several new players, and there are likely to be some fast games or competition among the players. Last year played for these cups.—W. S.

A basketball game between the "Orange O" and a picked team from the second squad and the rest of the high school was won by the "Orange O" by a score of 59 to 17. It was played on Tuesday, and the new members were to pay their dues and receive their initiation. They lost the game; therefore the older members will have the fun of ducking them.—H. T.

Last week the pitchers of this year's baseball team were ordered by Coach Henderson to do some warming up. The prospects look good, and as soon as weather permits will be practicing. The baseball field was waterlogged by the heavy rains prevented further work being done on it.

One of the biggest of the school's annual social events was the basketball banquet given in the Grand Hotel last night, Wednesday, Lillian Hull, student body president and head of the general arrangement committee, planned a program of merit for the enjoyment of the 75 people who were seated at the table. Responding to toasts were: The Boys, Arvo Annala, captain of the boys' team; The Girls, Ruth Ingalls, stellar guard of the girls' team; The Parents, Mrs. James Taylor; Basketball, Principal W. N. Byars; Just Toasts, members of the two squads; Presentation of the letters, Coach V. G. Henderson, Lillian Hull, captain of the girls' team, acted as toastmistress. Following the banquet, which ended at 9 o'clock, a party was held and all friends of the school were invited to attend. Committees for the banquet were: Refreshments, Mrs. James Taylor, chairman; Mrs. J. Hull, Mrs. W. L. Shelton; decorations, Arvo Annala, Richard Walters, Howard Taylor; table decorations, Ingalls, chairman, Elene Darrin, Lillian Hull; service, Rose Griffin, chairman, Helen Coppel, Margaret Stott, Leona Shelton, Mary Lewis, Iola Lamm, Murna Beadell, Marguerite Johns.

Mrs. Frank L. Keating spent several days last week in Portland and was registered at the Sevard hotel.

Sunday morning our pastor received word that his father had passed away. Mr. and Mrs. Scherer immediately left for Tillamook, where the burial will take place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cooper entertained the teachers of the high school at dinner last Thursday night. Miss Maurine Johnson, Miss Carrie Gilstrap, Wilmer MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Black, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bee were the guests.

Radio fans in the Parkdale townsite have been subjected to lots of worry recently. On Tuesday the P. P. & L. leak finder spent the day in the village.

Mrs. Henry Kile of Spokane, Wash., spent the week end at the home of her husband's mother, Mrs. D. A. Kile.

Regular Rebekah Assembly on Thursday, March 22.

The Missionary society will serve lunch to the visiting Rebekahs and the Ladies' Aid will have charge of the dinner.

Nearly five inches of precipitation fell in the three days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Most all of the Parkdale men folk attended the A. G. A. primaries last Saturday.

The Merrie Maids and Matrons met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. E. Van Nuy. Lots of business was attended to.

Next Thursday, March 22, the Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. E. Van Nuy.

Last week Charlie Perkins' little son had the misfortune to have his fingers crushed in the car door. He lost the tip of one index finger and the wounded member is healing rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Griese spent the week end in Fossil.

Today the local Rebekahs entertain the district convention of the Rebekah Assembly, comprised of lodges in Wasco, Sherman and Hood River counties. At 7:30 there will be a public meeting to which everybody is invited.

Owing to the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Scherer the young people were invited to eat the evening meal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. McIssac.

Irene Huff was hostess in the high school students on Saturday evening. They danced in the L. & P. apple house.

The grange social last Friday was a complete success. More than 445 were taken in. This goes to swell the painting and repair fund.

Parkdale School Notes
Miss Johnston presents "The Gypsy Rover" Friday evening. You will be delighted to see it.

Miss Romo, Miss Cosine, Miss Bayley and Mr. MacDonald visited either the home folk or friends in Portland over the week end.

Mrs. J. P. Cooper visited the high school a few days ago and told of the finer values that came from the basketball season. The young people listened intently while she spoke and appreciate her graceful outlinings.

By clearing the land for his new home Eric Gordon is letting in the light on the east side of the high school campus.

One of these bright afternoons the pupils and teachers will tidy up the Apple Grange Association warehouse preparatory to turning the keys back, and give the high school a beauty treatment.

Last Friday evening, coaches, Miss Gilstrap and Mr. Black, gave a reception in honor of the basketball squad at Colonel Steinhauer's. Punch, cake, sandwiches and ice cream were served. It was a lively, gypsy party and when "Home Sweet Home" rang out it was not very popular. The teams appreciated the hospitality of their coaches. Thank you heartily.—M. S.

Tuesday, to end the basketball season, Miss Gilstrap took a "snap shot" of the girls' squad dressed in their green and white suits.—M. R.

Monday the competitive ticket sales for the operetta began between the four classes. Eltonor Halliday, the manager of the operetta, reports a heavy distribution already. A social night will be given in honor of the winners.

Mr. MacDonald is measuring his pupils in all science courses by the Columbia Research Bureau Science tests. He wants us to find out what other science teachers expect their pupils to know. Results have not yet been tabulated.—D. D.

Last week the report cards were given out and the marks were, as a whole, very good. Mary Steinhauer, Robert Beal, Alma Lassen and Louise Parker had four A's. Maurice Walton, Gorham Babson, Elizabeth Langille, Addie Shearer and Erwin Laurance had three A's and no grade below B. Gertrude Johnson had two A's and no grade below B. The first six weeks period has been very successful and the rest of the semester should be the same.—E. L.

With the balmy weather, all thoughts turn to out-of-door activities. Many students not inoculated against the spring fever germ are wont to emit long sighs in classes, and one just aroused from lethargy by an instructor's question is just about to answer, "Well—what's that?" Thoughts were elsewhere, borne on the spring breeze, and all that is necessary to set a student's mind racing to visions of baseball, track, tennis, and the frothy forms of sport in the open air is a whiff of the spring air.—R. P.

Mr. MacDonald has arranged the periods so that there are recitations one day and laboratory work the next day.

The plan seems to be working well. While in Portland Saturday Mr. MacDonald obtained a new kind of indicator.

"The Gypsy Rover" is to be given at Melshar's hall this Friday night. The production, we may say without hesitation, is going to be the best performance Parkdale high school ever put on the stage. There is plenty of action, romance, thrills, laughter and dancing coupled with clever acting and bright costumes. Maurice Walton and Addie Shearer, hero and heroine, portray love scenes as romantic as though they were true. Ross Muma and Frances Smullin furnish another romantic scene as does Ralph Priest and Emily Benedict who also perform a real gypsy dance. Gorham Babson and Gracemary Riekman are the two older gypsy characters; Robert Beal, Ralph Priest and Gorham Babson furnish the thrills and laughter. Joseph Smullin and his lady hunting chorus are real fox-chasers. Besides these there are Daniel Davies and Kenneth Payne and Gypsy choruses and dancers. The whole play is a riot of color and delight.—G. B.

Pythian Notes
The February 13 session opened at 7:35 with almost all of the chairs occupied by the regular officers. There was a good attendance for a stormy evening. Bro. Alex Brooke was present, having just returned from Tacoma. Bro. Hatch was reported home but not feeling quite as well as when he left the hospital.

The proposition of installing an Iron Fireman or automatic stoker furnace was taken up and discussed at length. The saving on coal and extra labor would soon pay for the furnace and installing. The trustees were authorized to order the new furnace installed.

The public speaking class held a very interesting session at the close of lodge, there being 19 present. L. M. Baldwin acted as chairman for the evening. The discussion was of the advantages and scenic beauties of the Hood River valley. A big improvement was shown over previous meetings and much good is being accomplished. Some of the members showed as much as 100 per cent improvement. The next session will be held March 20, after lodge closes.

BEAN DUSTERS
A great many growers have conditions that make dusting for all or part of the work desirable instead of spraying. In order to give these growers an advanced type of duster we offer the BEAN Self-Mixing Duster.
Puts 50% of Dusting Expense back in your pocket!
The BEAN Self-Mixing Duster is now in its fourth year. From a machine designed originally to produce nicotine dust by mixing liquid nicotine sulphate with dehydrated finishing lime, it has been developed into a machine which will quickly and thoroughly mix dusting materials in any combination used in orchard or crop dusting. The wonderful ability of the BEAN Duster to quickly and thoroughly make any dusting mixture required in any dusting operation saves the grower from one-third to one-half the cost of ready mixed materials. No longer does the grower have to take what mixture happen to be available in town and pay the high cost of factory mixing and handling, together with excessive freight charges. He simply buys his clear materials such as dusting sulphur, arsenate of lead, dehydrated copper sulphate dust, hydrated finishing lime and liquid nicotine sulphate. Then his BEAN Duster in from one to three minutes of mixing will make for him any combination of these ingredients he desires, at a saving of from one-third to one-half in his bill for dusting mixtures.

For greater "pack-outs"
Spray with S-W Dry Lime Sulfur!

Thousands of growers in the Pacific Northwest have found the surest, safest way to have healthy trees is to spray with S-W Dry Lime Sulfur. Their profitable "pack-outs" prove the soundness of their judgment.
Look what these prominent growers of apples, pears, prunes and peaches write about their success with this improved spray. It cleans up their orchards from San Jose scale and Blister Mite. Keeps them clean, too!
S-W Dry Lime Sulfur is unusually effective. Use it at the solution recommended. It is proved safe, effective and economical, by years of scientific research and practical use.
Read what these growers say about its economy of use. They tell you that the "powder" cuts down trucking costs—saves time and labor expense in the field—is easier to handle. Talk to your local dealer about these advantages. Secure your requirement of S-W Dry Lime Sulfur from him. Beware of imitations.

Six years of satisfactory control!
A. B. REID of the Buena Packing & Supply Co., Buena, Wash., writes: "I have used S-W Dry Lime Sulfur for five or six years and am completely satisfied with the results obtained. Having proved its efficiency against scale, I have since used S-W Dry Lime Sulfur exclusively. We get better control of Peach Twig Borer with S-W Dry Lime Sulfur. Our percentage of wormy and gummy peaches is noticeably less than when spraying with liquid sulphur."
Secures 100% control!
Mr. W. E. SHERMAN of Hood River says: "In the fall of 1926 I discovered that I had San Jose scale in my 40 acre apple orchard. In the spring of 1927 I applied a dormant spray of your S-W Dry Lime Sulfur, 25 lbs. to 100 gallons of water, with one hundred per cent control of the scale. I prefer using the dry material on account of time saved in applying the spray and had no trouble whatever in dissolving the same."
Certainly well pleased!
C. B. McDERMOTT of the Monitor Orchards, Wenatchee, Wash.: "Last spring we sprayed our orchard with S-W Dry Lime Sulfur and had such good results we feel like passing on to other people our experience. Our harvest is over and the crop all packed out. Am glad to say we had practically no scale whatever. I am certainly pleased with S-W Dry Lime Sulfur."

SPRAY MATERIALS
Powder form gives better control!
Just read of Mr. T. W. SCOTT'S success at Medford:
"I have used Sherwin-Williams Dry Lime Sulfur for the past three years for the control of San Jose scale. I have been getting good results with 50 lbs. powder to 200 gallons of water and expect to continue using the Dry Lime Sulfur as my control of scale has been better with the powder than with the liquid."
"I have experienced no difficulty in dissolving the material or of clogging strainers and nozzles."
"It has been a convenience and a time saver and I feel the net cost is no more than the liquid."
Finds the powder a saving!
Mrs. D. W. LUKE of Medford writes:
"I used your S-W Dry Lime Sulfur last year for the control of San Jose scale and obtained very good results; in fact just as good as the liquid has ever given me. I used the strength recommended by the company."
"The fact that I could haul your material out in my car and thus save drayage and had no barrels to return, was a decided advantage to me."
