VOL. XXXIX

HOOD RIVER, OREGON, THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1928

No. 43

PATRICK HENRY WAS THE MAN

MARCH 20, 1776, was the date. Richmond, Virginia, was the place. The second Revolutionary Convention of Virginia was the occasion. Then and there was born the Battle Cry of Freedom—"Give me liberty or give me death!"

Even though many of us today do not appreciate the priceless bequest of political freedom as much as we should, all of us certainly do glory in it.

But what about financial freedom? Are we, and will we always be, shackled to the drudgery of hand-to-mouth living? Or are we fighting daily to build a fund that will make us financially independent?

Enlist the services of the greatest ally you can have—an account at this institution, with the security, the helpful cooperation, and the prestige it gives.

Hood River, Oregon, March 20, 1928.

To Legionnaires and the Public of Hood River:

Next Monday there starts at the Rialto for a four-day run, "THE BIG PARADE", the greatest story of the world war that has ever been produced. I had the privilege of viewing this wonderful production during its run in Portland at advanced prices and can assure everyone that they are indeed fortunate in being able to see this picture in Hood River at usual picture prices. I hope that the American Legion members will give this picture their hearty support and help make it possible for more pictures of this calibre to be shown in Hood River. I can only say that it is without doubt the most realistic and wonderful picture I have ever seen and I cannot recommend it too highly to the public and my fellow legionnaires.

SERIAL BONDS ARE PROPOSED

COUNCIL WORKS ON WATER PLAN

Elected Will Soon Be Asked To Pass On Municipal Water Issue Of $250,000.

At a meeting of the city council Monday night it was announced that the City Attorney, E. C. Smith, who has associated with him the Portland legal firm of Teal, Wintfree, McCullough & Johnson, is making good progress in the formalities preliminary to voting on the proposed $250,000 bond issue, to be utilized in constructing a new municipal water system. A pipeline of approximately 18 miles will be constructed to Cold Springs, in case the voters pass favorably on the issue.

The council, it was announced, has decided on issuing the bonds in series, the first falling due five years after the issue is voted, and the last of the bonds being called in 50 years. City officials declared that they are pleased with the prospects for a good sale of the securities. It is also pointed out that the probabilities are that an exceptionally advantageous contract on the work can be secured, inasmuch as those engaged in such projects are now in keen competition. It is estimated that an approximate $75,000 of the bond fund will be spent on labor.

ANTHONY EUWER AND MISS PALMER COMING

Anthony Euwer, whom Hood River valley claims in part, and Miss Esther Palmer, harpist, will be presented to the people of Hood River next Sunday evening by the Men's Brotherhood of Riverside Community church. It is certain, because of the popularity of the noted poet, humorist and artist, and of the sweet playing of Miss Palmer that the overflow crowds will be great.

Anthony Euwer, brother of Eugene C. Euwer, Upper Valley orchardist, is internationally known for his writings, his poems and his paintings.

"As a beauty I'm not a great star. Others are handsomer far; But my face—I don't mind it Because I'm satisfied it."

This lyric, a favorite of President Wilson and Chief Justice Taft, has gained a record wide publicity. Mr. Euwer has received merited praise from contemporary men and women of the literary field and world of art. Some of his best writings have been inspired by his visits in the Upper Valley.

Miss Palmer is a general favorite with southern Oregon audiences. She is known throughout the state for her work as a musician.

The full program to be given by Mr. Euwer and Miss Palmer is as follows: "Rall Weary", "A And The", "Song of the Average Man", "Gossip" and "Did You Ever Bust Your Leg" by Mr. Euwer; "Trols Pre'ludes" (Marcel Grandjany), 1. "Allegretto", 2. "Moderato", 3. "Allegretto" (arr. by Szidaco), Miss Palmer; "The Little Boat", "The Saw Fish", "The Gold Fish", "Cats" and "Heaps And Heaps" by Mr. Euwer; "Chaconne" (A. Durand); "Berceuse" (Hasselmans) and "Romance" (Hasselmans) by Miss Palmer; "The Waltz Ad of My Soul", "Love's Labor Lost", "The Tamarack", "The Monterey Cypress", "The Jones' Nurse", "Kiddy of France" and "Hobnobbing with the Firmament" by Mr. Euwer; "The March of Arthur Heft"; "March of the Marionettes" (Van Venchton Rogers); "Scherzino" (Alberto Salvi); Miss Palmer.

DALGLEISH WINS P. P. & L. HONORS

At The Dalles Monday evening when members of the various office forces of mid-Columbia branches of the Pacific Power & Light Co. met in an elimination public speaking contest, R. G. Dalgleish, of local office won first place among the 18 contestants. Mr. Dalgleish will represent this district at a final contest to be held soon at Walla Walla, Wash.

The next best speakers were: Herb Speigleberg, A. C. McDaniel, A. A. Johnson and Miss Mildred Boardman.

All of the Pacific Power & Light Co. employees have been participating in public speaking contests. The subject has been, "The Government in Business". The speeches of Monday night represented a great deal of interested effort.

Chamber Program Short

The program of the Tuesday forum of the chamber of commerce Monday was short. Robert Butler, home from the University of Oregon, announced the recital to be given tomorrow evening by George Hopkins, musical instructor at the U. of O. As the proceeds of the recital will go to the memorial fund in honor of President Campbell, Mr. Butler urged that as many as possible attend.

George Morrison told of the Boy Scout rally, which will be held at the high school gymnasium Friday evening. The piano recital will be held at the auditorium of the high school.

"Bob and I are working together," said Mr. Morrison. "We want a crowd at the high school. The Scouts start at 7:30 and Bob's show later. If you do not like us, you can go see his show. But we want a crowd at the high school."

Dr. W. E. Nichol was a guest at the luncheon Tuesday.

Jensen Association Candidate

Through an oversight the name of Laur Jensen, Des orchardist, was omitted from the list of Apple Growers Association candidates last week.

Mr. Jensen was among those nominated Saturday before last at the annual primary meeting. The directorate of the cooperative will be elected at the meeting to be held the first Saturday in April.

On his yonself, boss, Ah's got everything deranged. Odell Grange hall, March 28.

LOCAL FIREMEN ARE THE DALLES GUESTS

Accompanied by Fire Chief Volstorff and Fire Marshal Morgan 14 members of the Hood River Fire department journeyed to The Dalles Thursday night by Columbia motor coach and were guests of The Dalles department. The members of the Wasco capital were present 100 per cent, the attendance reaching 66.

Judge Fred W. Wilson gave an address of welcome, declaring that it is highly satisfactory to observe the spirit of neighborly good will as it exists between the Hood River and The Dalles fire departments. Other speakers were Chief F. C. Leonard of The Dalles department; Capt. Geo. Stokes, deputy state fire marshal; Walter Gleason of Seattle, former deputy state fire marshal; Chief Volstorff and Geo. Brown, who told of his experiences during 39 years of membership in The Dalles department.

Two new members were initiated in The Dalles department with a clever ceremony. Art Latta was given a touch of electricity.

An excellent lunch was served.

STUDENTS TO PRESENT NOTED PIANIST

University of Oregon students home for the spring vacation will present George Hopkins, noted pianist, in a recital at the new high school auditorium tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The committee in charge is headed by Misses Agnes Chipping and Verdana Isbell. The fund cleared from the recital will be given to the Fine Arts building fund now being raised by students and alumni. Mr. Hopkins is one of the foremost pianists of the Pacific northwest, and his recital is arousing a keen interest among local music lovers.

Miss Alice Carson and Miss Verdana Isbell will appear in a duet at the recital. They will be accompanied by Miss Prudence Spight at the piano.

John N. Mohr will give vocal selections.

THE WAUKOMA OPENS NEW DINING ROOM

The Waukoma hotel has opened its new dining room, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Palmer are justly proud of the many improvements that have been completed at the hotel by Contractor Albert Krieg. The Tuesday luncheon forum of the chamber of commerce met this week in the new dining room for the first time. The members voted to continue their weekly luncheons there.

The dining room is as attractive as will be found in any modern hotel. Mr. and Mrs. DeLesse are now equipped to handle large banquet gatherings.

BOY SCOUT RALLY TOMORROW EVENING

Only those who have had the privilege of watching a big Boy Scout rally can appreciate the inspiration and pleasure to be gained from seeing one hundred and fifty boys each of whom is doing his best to help his troop to win the award of prizes to the winning troops. The most impressive of all will be the Taps song sung by all Scouts standing in one great circle with their arms on each other's shoulders at the close of which the prayer for the benediction of the Great Scoutmaster will be given.

Watch for the Scout parade which will start at 4 p. m. and will pass through the downtown streets.

There is absolutely no admission charge. Everyone is urged to attend the Boy Scout rally at the gymnasium of the new high school at 7:30 p. m. on Friday, March 23.

PROGRESS MADE ON K. P. COMIC OPERA

Rehearsals began last Monday night at the Pythian temple for what promises to be one of the leading musical events of the season, the production of Gilbert and Sullivan's famous comic opera, "The Mikado", by local talent at the auspices of the Hood River K. of P. band. This organization has been most liberal in giving its services in the past and is meeting with a hearty response from the singers and actors of the city.

There will be about fifty people in the cast and although Director Wilson has not definitely selected all of the cast of principals we hear that George R. Wilbur will be The Mikado; Mrs. G. P. Coe, Katisha, the husband-hunting old maid; George Smith, Nank-Poo, the Wandering minstrel; Mrs. F. S. Gilbert, Yum-Yum, the ward of the Lord High Executioner, and Mrs. N. O. Coulter and Mrs. L. R. Alexander, the other two of the Three Little Maids from school. Mr. Holmes is Fish Tumb.

When the cast committee announces the names of Koko, the comedian, Lord High Executioner, and Poo-Bah, Lord High Everything Else, it will be found that the band boys have rounded up one of the best casts of principals that has appeared on a Hood River stage in many moons. Rehearsals are being held nightly at the Pythian temple.

SPRING COMES VERY SUDDENLY

WORK RUSH FOLLOWS WARM DAYS

Orchardists, Who A Busy Week Spring-ing, all Fresh Heavy Blossoms and Crop

The past 10 days of high temperatures, warm and sunny weather, have resulted in a surprisingly rapid development of the buds of pear, cherry and apple trees. The early arrival of spring has caused an advancement in orchards that growers are busy in all lower valley sections applying early sprays.

Indications this year point to a heavy bloom of apple trees at normal time. From present indications Hood River Valley and other mid-Columbia points will celebrate Apple Blossom Sunday around April 22. Blossoms of the few apricot trees in the city are already beginning to open.

Strawberry growers of all districts report that their tracts are in excellent condition. T. J. Miller of the Oak Grove district found a strawberry bloom in his fields Tuesday.

All local growers are optimistic this season over prospects for a heavy crop of pears, cherries and apples. Trees are looking well in all sections and the bloom will be uniformly heavy.

Numerous growers are making preparations to protect their fruit buds against frost in case of low temperatures at blooming time.

The following spray recommendations have been issued by Leroy Childs: "Since our previous suggestions relative to the spring application of apple trees, examination of apple buds from many sections of the Valley has been made and we are finding that these contain more blight mites than had been anticipated earlier. This condition seems to be particularly true of the orchards located along the edge of the Valley or where associated with timber or uncultivated areas. In all orchards where there was any indication of blight mite last year, lime sulfur should be used for the insect's control. We have found 1-12 lime sulfur effective for this work. However, if scale insects are present, the strength should be increased to at least 2-4.

"Blight mites are best controlled before the bud development is too far advanced. Oil is effective during a very limited period and where used for the blight mite should be applied just as the buds are cracking.

"Warm weather the past few days has caused rapid development of buds, with the result that all dormant sprays should be applied immediately."

County Spelling Book Work
The annual spelling contest of the county schools, according to announcement of County School Superintendent J. W. Criss, will be held at the junior high school auditorium next Friday night. Keen interest is being manifested in the event, and a large crowd from all parts of the county is expected at the meetings.

LITTLE THEATRE CLUB PLAY FINE

The Little Theatre Club, members of which gave "The Whole Town's Talking" at the Rialto theatre last Friday evening, won high praise. Many declared they had never seen a better amateur theatrical production. The principals and their director, Mrs. E. D. Barrett, have been receiving general compliments.

The Hood River hospital, which received the proceeds of the show, which amounted to more than $100," says L. M. Baldwin, "wishes to express sincere appreciation for the support of the people in general and for the generosity of the Little Theatre Club members who devoted so much time and effort in preparing the show."

Odell Grange Play

The cast of characters for the three-act comedy, "Two Days to Marry", by Walter Richardson, is as follows: Simon P. Chase, as black as his race, Loyal Rhodes; James J. Dare, a wifeless heir, Archie McKeown; Axford B. Sawyer, a timid lawyer, Allison Fletcher; Emily Jane Pink, blacker than ink, Mrs. Loyal Rhodes; Sadie L. Poles, a widow by choice, Mrs. Willis Shelton; Imogene McShane, the sweet young thing, Mrs. Archie McKeown; Walter M. Blair, a millionaire, J. J. Krumsacker.

Musical will be furnished by the Oak Grove band, Wednesday evening, March 28, is the date announced for this play at the Grange hall under the auspices of Odell Grange.

Drama Tournament Near

Much interest is being shown by the high schools of the state in the coming drama tournament to be held at the University of Oregon May 2, 3 and 4, according to Dan E. Clark, assistant dean of the extension division, who is secretary of the committee in charge of the plans for the tournament.

The Hood River high school has been invited to enter the tournament this year with a one-act play put on by its students. Last year the cup, which is presented by the University Guild Theatre players to the school giving the best presentation of a play, was won by the Resuburg high school.

Schools desiring to enter the May tournament are urged to send in their names early since it is expected that a full quota will be reached soon. Due to the time it takes to arrange staging and to produce the plays it is necessary to have only a limited number of participants each year.

Lost Man Lings In

Robert Lennon, 22, Portland youth who fell, injuring a leg while on a hill south of the Columbia River highway near Cascade Locks, returned to Cascade lodge last Tuesday. Mr. Lennon suffered the injury about 8:30 Monday.

His absence from the lodge Monday night alarmed friends and relatives and a search was instituted Tuesday.

Hood River Cray Sate were preparing to join the searchers Tuesday night when Mr. Lennon jumped in from the wilds. His injury was not serious.
