Miss Jessie Nasshahn and Clyde Foulkes surprised their Cascade Locks friends Monday by slipping across the river into Washington and getting married. Miss Nasshahn, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Nasshahn of Gresham, has been making her home with her brother, W. A. Nasshahn, principal of the grade school. She graduated from the high school this spring and has the distinction of being the first member of her class to marry.

Mr. Foulkes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foulkes. He is a graduate of the Marshfield high school and is in the employ of Cannon Brothers, who have the contract for sinking test holes of the Bonneville dam.

Numerous friends and acquaintances dropped in on Al Barber, of the Roosevelt Bar & Lunch, last week. Among them were Dr. Joe Kelly, Butte, Mont., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer and Mrs. Frank J. Jones, Portland. Two brothers, C. J. of Bellingham, Wash., and A. H. of Ransom, Kansas, stopped to renew acquaintance. The two latter are no relation to Al. They had not seen each other in years.

Rolf Enquist and Hal Babbitt are developing a lively trade in their new place, Bonny Villa, on the highway a mile west of Bonneville. Quite a crowd of Cascade Locks people, en route home from the chamber of commerce meeting in Portland Monday, dropped in to get acquainted. Jean Fitzgerald, professional artist and a former member of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin staff, is doing a picture in oils of the Bonneville dam for them. It will be hung this week. Mr. Babbitt, who paints in spare time, has just finished a painting of Beacon Rock. Mr. Fitzgerald recently finished a new cottage in the woods, just off the highway below Tanner creek.

Acting in behalf of a group of Portland creditors, the Credit Service Corporation obtained a writ of attachment in the Polk county circuit court against Frank Bennett and Fred Anderson, owners of the Dam Inn. The restaurant was closed last Friday by the sheriff and will remain closed until sold to satisfy claims against it. Several Cascade Locks business firms have claims against Bennett and Anderson, but they are not among creditors who brought the court action. Wadhams & Company, wholesale Portland grocers and distributors for Olympia beer, is said to be the largest creditor. Several people have been looking at the property with a view to buying when the opportunity offers.

Saturday night and Wednesday night parties in Cascade Locks continue to grow in popularity. Last Saturday night the fun makers gathered at Erick Erickson's Rapids club. Mrs. Albert Geitner played the piano and her son, Harold, played the drums. As far as we have been able to learn, everyone who attended had an excellent time. There was no boisterous talk or rowdyism.

Oscar C. Hyde, proprietor of the Men's Store, went to Portland Wednesday to seek additional stock. The new store which caters exclusively to men, with the exception that it carries a line of women's house dresses and silk stockings, is fast becoming known throughout the Bonneville dam area. The stock is all new and well selected, and Mr. Hyde is an experienced merchant. His store of yarns is the best in the district. If he has not told you a funny story, ask for one.
