TOUGH LUCK OVERTAKES
THREE BEARS WHEN THEY VISIT HOLLYWOOD DAIRY

The three bears who lived in the woods came over the mountain the other day. They did not come over the mountain in search of Goldilocks, but to feast on the carcass of a hog at the Hollywood dairy, near Dodson. Papa Bear had been to the dairy a few days earlier. On his return home he had told Mama Bear and Baby Bear all about the big time he had enjoyed in the valley. They were very much excited and begged to go back with him.

When the three bears reached the ranch, Papa Bear saw a large trap near the hog carcass. He carefully dragged it away and the family squatted down to its breakfast. Midway of the meal a strange man slipped up with a gun. The three bears saw him and started to run. The man threw the gun to his shoulder and fired. Papa Bear rolled over and over and in a moment was dead, but Ma Bear and Baby Bear ran fast as ever they could and escaped. They didn't stop running until they reached their home in the mountain.

ELECTRIC SERVICE

Applications for light or power service left at the Andrews store in Cascade Locks will receive our prompt attention. This makes it unnecessary for people on the Oregon side of the river to visit our office in Stevenson. If you have any complaints, make them at the Andrews store. You may pay your light and power bills there, too. We pick up orders or applications every day.

WEST COAST POWER CO.

Bridge of Gods Hotel Dance.

Mrs. Silva, of the Bridge of the Gods Hotel, is turning over the dining room, lobby and parlor to the team for dancing. She is giving the club the use of the hotel without cost. This will permit the team to employ music and manage the dance.

Like all of the dances held by, or for the benefit of the team, an admission charge of 50 cents will be made for men. Ladies will be admitted free.

Celebrates Birthday.

Jack McCrary is going to celebrate his eighty-second birthday Saturday. The Chronicle congratulates him and hopes he may see many more years pass in review in the life of Cascade Locks. His has been a busy life and it has been only through such men as Jack McCrary that this western country has become the great empire that it is. May his birthday be a happy one, and, again, may he have many more of them.
