Birthday Party.
 About 35 friends, mostly old timers, gathered at the Broliar home Thursday evening, June 7, to help C. A. Broliar celebrate his 80th birthday. Mr. Broliar was born in Mansfield, Ohio, June 7, 1854, and is the youngest of a family of 11 children and is the only one still living. His family was quite devout and named their youngest son Christian Anthony.

When he was 36 years of age Mr. and Mrs. Broliar boarded a train for the west, and for the past 44 years they have been residents of Cascade Locks. There were three children.
 Leslie, who was born in Iowa; Sevilla, born in Kansas, and Erwin, born in Washington.

During the evening old fashioned games were played and a spelling contest was held. The women were easy victims of the men in the spelling bee, and in the finals Otis Mac-Kinnon won the championship.

Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. O. MacKinnon, Mr. and Mrs.
 V. G. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. J.
 Barry, Mr. and Mrs. L. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. V. Wigren, Mr. and Mrs.
 Erwin Broliar, Mayne Osborn, Mrs.
 Isabelle Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Chas.
 Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Hoff, Miss

Marie Nelson, Mrs. H. Cramblett, Mrs. Thomas Harrison, Miss Stella Woodward, Everill Broliar, Mrs.
 Vanstrom, Mrs. Chas. Haggblom, Melvin Collins, Peggy Barry, Nell Rae Broliar and Howard Broliar.

WARRENDALE.

L. O. Ladd, of the Warrendale camp, is the proud owner of a new Dodge which he and his family are enjoying to the utmost.

W. B. Beecher, who is employed on the dam, is now living in one of the Lively cottages.

Mrs. Wolcott Cashman, one of the heirs to the Gorman estate, which lies directly across the highway from the Warrendale store, has returned from California and is now living in her house opposite Lamb's tavern.
 Mr. Cashman died a month ago in Manila. His body was brought home on the General Perishing, but due to removed from the boat at San Francisco. He was buried Saturday in the longshoreman's strike had to be Portland.

SPRINGDALE.

East of Sandy people are rounding up a crowd to attend the Fourth of July celebration to be held in Cascade Locks.

Two new citizens are added to the population of our community. A girl to Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Carpenter, and a son to Mr. and Mrs. George Kneriam.

The Springdale Needle club met with Mrs. Dan Burgois Wednesday.
 A pleasant time was reported and delicious "eats" were served by the hostess. The club will meet with Mrs.
 E. Enquist two weeks from Wednesday.

A califlower meeting was held at Springdale school house Friday evening.

Strawberry picking is almost at an end, according to John Larson, and Bing cherries and Royal Anns are now ready to pick. Crops look well and we hope some good weather is ahead of us. Link Davis says it is a sure sign of rain when he cuts his hay. And it is.

Mrs. Lew Warner, Mrs. Minnie McCarty and Mr. and Mrs. Ehren, from Kellogg, Idaho, on their way to visit relatives in Salem, stopped and visited at the Babbitt home. They are looking for a location and were very much impressed with this part of the country. Mrs. Warner, whose husband is head man at the ore mill at the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine at Kellogg, wants to buy a home.
 Mrs. McCarty would buy a highway stand or a good location for one where she can build. She and her husband are restaurant people, but wish to leave such hard work for something more pleasant and yet in their line of work.

We are sorry to learn of the disastrous fire at Jim Pounders' mine in Southern Oregon. Many of our neighbors bought stock in that mine.

L. Davis, Miss Thelma Davies, Gail Davies and Miss Juanita North-way climbed to the top of Mt. Hood Sunday. The girls' faces were blisterered and they were tired out but had a thrilling time. They said 100 people reached the top Sunday. Some started climbing the evening before. The party started at midnight and it took 11 hours to reach the summit. Gail Davies, who has been teaching at Dufur, and wife visited with her folks in Portland.
