

TABLES FOR LADIES

Open All Night

MERRILL'S BARBEQUE

J. A. MERRILL, PROP.

MEALS and LUNCHES

WEINHARD'S AND ALT
HEIDELBERG ON TAP

EIMER ELECTRIC

P. O. Box 96 Cascade Locks

MAZDA LAMPS RCA RADIO TUBES
WIRING MATERIALS FIXTURES

Let us do your wiring. No charge for preparing estimates. We are licensed electricians.

CHICKENS

for your

Sunday Dinner

SPRING FRYERS

Special for Saturday and Sunday
While They Last
23c POUND

ANDREWS MEAT MARKET

CASCADE LOCKS : : : : OREGON

DRIVE A PLYMOUTH

AND BE HAPPY

See the Plymouth Sedan to be given away July Fourth in Cascade Locks. Ask us for a demonstration. We are dealers for Cascade Locks and the Bonneville Dam area.

GARRABRANT BROS.

Phone 1053

Hood River

LOCAL NEWS

Kin. Lynch has purchased a new Essex sedan and is sporting it around.

James Lamarr of Portland was a Cascade Locks visitor Saturday.

Jack Eimer, of the Eimer Electric, spent Tuesday in Portland attending to business connected with his store.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd have been attending the dog races at Portland quite regularly.

Mrs. John Folgham is quite ill and has been taken to a Portland hospital to undergo an operation for tumors.

Miss Geraldine Rankin was a weekend guest at the home of F. C. Rankin last week.

R. C. Scott is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller this week.

Mr. Carlyle Harrison is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Harrison at their new home at Larch Mountain.

Mr. Hank Kyle has returned to Cascade Locks from a visit in Corvallis.

Mrs. J. Miller of Portland was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. Alicia Doran and Mr. Ross of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martinson Sunday.

Mrs. Susie Woodward, Bud Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Glazier and Howard Glazier were business visitors in Yakima Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Snyder and Miss Doris Persley of The Dalles were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Martinsen Sunday afternoon.

Oscar Morris, member of the U. P. railway bridge crew, who is employed this month in work at the Bonneville road station, spent Sunday at his home in Beaverton.

Jess Forester of Marshfield, who as an engineer built the Mosier railroad tunnel a number of years ago for the Union Pacific, spent several hours in Cascade Locks Thursday with V. L. Wiggins.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Spalinger have returned to their home at Sundry ranch after two weeks at Oakride visiting their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Spalinger, Mrs. Matheny and Mrs. Dell Bradburn made a weekend pleasure trip to Lost Lake.

George Thomas and Addison Harrison went to Portland Thursday to attend the Rose festival parade and then continued on to Oswego.

Misses Muriel Whyte, and Gloria and Zolita Vincent were guests of Dr. Fred Folsom and Louie Folsom over the weekend. Miss Zolita is staying some time longer visiting with Betty Burt.

Quite a number of people surprised Mr. and Mrs. Richard MacKinnon with a charivari Monday evening. After a great deal of noise they were invited in and the usual treats were passed out.

J. C. Yager, owner and manager of the Yager Shows, Inc. was in Cascade Locks Tuesday attending to business arrangements for bringing his show here for the celebration.

Mrs. W. M. Schei, daughter of Mrs. E. Finlay, had an operation for appendicitis last Monday. Mrs. Finlay was called into Portland Saturday. Mrs. Schei is recovering as rapidly as can be expected.

Sam Heppner, Hood River valley orchardist and for years an employe of the Wind River Lumber company, died at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, Tuesday. He was widely known to residents of Cascade Locks.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Prendebale of San Francisco, Calif., who are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Meyer in Portland, spent Monday here, visiting old friends. Mrs. Prendebale (nee Nettie Walsh) spent her childhood days in Cascade Locks.

Harold Hershner, president of the Hood River chamber of commerce, was in Cascade Locks Tuesday visiting at the local chamber offices.

Edgar Pitman, son of Mrs. Pearl Pitman of Cascade Locks, was among the 19 cadets graduated from the Hill Military Academy of Portland. Edgar was cadet captain when graduated. He intends being an aviator and will continue his education in the University of Washington. He is spending his vacation with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Holland, accompanied by Jean Finlay, were visitors of Mrs. E. Finlay, of the Craigmont, for a Sunday dinner last week.

Clark Morris of Portland was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Morris here over the weekend. He returned home late Monday.

GRAND OPENING

S. E. PERRAS MEAT MARKET

An old name in a new location

Saturday, June 23

Our new building, next door to the postoffice in Cascade Locks, is ready for occupancy and we will open Saturday. Friends, old and new, are invited to visit us.

MUSIC, FLOWERS,
LEMONADE, COOKIES

Drop in and have a drink on us. And there will be carnations for the ladies.

In the future, as in the past, we will stock the best meats that are obtainable—and we will sell at Portland prices.

Erick Erickson

WILL ENTERTAIN WITH ANOTHER

PARTY

at the

Rapids Club

FRIDAY NIGHT

Good music, a good crowd and a good time. If you have not attended one of these parties you are missing something. They are held every Friday evening. Come along tonight. Tell the neighbors and tell your friends.

You will find the Rapids Club the brightest spot in the Bonneville Dam Area. Everyone is friendly and orderly and jovial. You meet new people, get acquainted. Excellent food is served—and there are tables for the ladies.