We Are Sorry.

The Chronicle occasionally, like the average human being, makes mistakes. Not intentionally, of course, but mistakes will now and then creep in, strewn along from the copy writer, the linographer and proof reader.
Pleading guilty to an omission, the Chronicle hereby extends apologies to Henry Nelson for omitting his name from the list of people who helped make the Cascade Locks float a success in the recent Portland Rose Festival parade.

Mr. Nelson had direct charge of providing the feus, moss, roses and other things that went into the float.
While only a few months in Cascade Locks, we have learned to appreciate ability and effort, and Mr. Nelson is an asset to any community, measured from any standard.

To Hold Demonstration.

The Andrews store promises to be a popular spot with the women of the Bonneville Dam area Saturday.
Reason: The Davidson Bakery, Golden West coffee, manufacturers of Shredded Wheat and manufacturers of Sky Flake wafers are putting on a 4-way, all day demonstration, and the ladies will have something to exclaim over.

The store is giving away free coffee and cake, so there is reason to believe that trade will not be confined exclusively to the ladies. The demonstration will be one of the largest held in a long time in the district.

To Dance at Craigmont

Mrs. E. Finlay, manager of the Craigmont hotel, has obtained a license to sell beer at the new restaurant which she has completed on the grounds and will open at once. She has announced that she will hold free dances during the four days of the celebration. The dances will be held in the hotel. Music is being provided by an orchestra from Carson.

Wedding a Surprise.

Another surprise wedding to local folks was announced Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Harrison when they let it be known that their son, Carlyle, had been married to Miss Alice Palmer in Yakima, Wash., last Sunday.

Miss Palmer is a graduate of Monmouth normal school and Pacific University. She has taught school for the past three years, at one time being intermediate teacher in the Cascade Locks schools.

Mr. Harrison is employed by the state in the fish hatcheries at Bonneville. He is a graduate of Cascade Locks high school. The young couple will make their home here following a short honeymoon trip.
