EAGLE CREEK

By Mrs. Hugh W. Copple.

A large, partly rotted snag in front of W. H. Reed's place has been cut out. It was feared that a strong wind might fall it on some one's house. Its removal not only improves Mr. Reed's yard and flower garden but has given Mr. Reed a chance for his morning exercise in converting it into fire wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGilvary spent Saturday and Sunday at their home in Amboy, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Rudolph have as guests this week Mrs. Rudolph's sister, Mrs. J. Lawson and small son from Oak Grove.

Fred Cellers and Mrs. M. Cellers and children went to Battle Ground, Wash., to visit a sister. They enjoyed the trip over the Evergreen highway and returned Monday through Portland.

Ernest Mehrkens has his brother-in-law, J. C. Johnson from Portland with him this week.

We are soon to have electricity. The power company has been busy the past week putting in poles and stringing wire. Those having their houses wired will be able to have lights Tuesday evening.

Mrs. L. A. Bellanger took her small son, Bobby, to the doctor in Portland Saturday. He had the cast removed from his leg and is now getting along nicely.

Mrs. R. R. Rudolph spent a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. V. Cochran.

The E. B. Cosby family have moved into their new home.

Mrs. Clyde Hubbard was a visitor with Mrs. Robert McGilvery Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Minor and Mrs. Harris spent Thursday with the M. Cellers family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Habs of Portland and their friend, Mrs. W. Snell from Iowa, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ingerlund Sunday.

Sunday guests at the home of W. E. Carpender were Mrs. Edna Fagman from The Dalles and Al Huff from Dufur.

Miss Gladys Oliver spent the weekend in Portland, returning Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bergin as company during the week: Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Youngblood, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Dempsey and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Davis.

Miss Florence Ladd from Portland is spending a month with her mother, Mrs. W. H. VanOrmand.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Schrepping and Albert Cargren from Portland spent Saturday night and Sunday at the John Ingerlund home.

W. E. Carpender is enjoying a visit with his father from Peoria, Ill. He arrived from the east Sunday and is going to make his home in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Kissinger spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

Miss Daisy Smith and Mrs. L. L. Hiccock spent Wednesday in the Rose City.

C. M. Smith and Frank Ratayczyk spent Sunday in Portland.

Mrs. Emil Parmentier spent a week in Hood River with her mother, Mrs. Laura Clapp.

Mrs. Earl Wilson and son, Jack, spent Monday in Portland. Mrs. G. E. Wagner returned with them after spending a week in Vancouver. She expects to leave soon for her home in Herimston.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ping spent the weekend in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Parmentier were Portland visitors Friday.

The Columbia Construction company brought up its first dredge Wednesday, preparatory to beginning work in the river.
