BONNEVILLE

By Aino Ferrington

D. E. Root returned from Coulee last Friday evening.

Mrs. George Atkinson left this week for Spokane where she will make her home.

Captain John J. Torkelson returned from his vacation last Thursday.

Mr. Harris had as his guests Sunday his wife and mother from Portland.

The invitational dinner dance held by the Columbia Construction Company in celebration of the completion of their new mess hall was held last Monday evening, rather than last Thursday evening.

The regular Thursday night entertainments held at the Community Center have been changed to Friday nights so that the school children may enjoy them also. This Friday a local talent program will be given.

Bill Arndt, chief cook for the Atkinson Company has gone to San Francisco where he will undergo an operation.

The hatchery crew enjoyed an outdoor supper last Thursday evening in the park. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Virgil Anderson, Jesse Bales, Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Harris, Carl Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson.

Mrs. Jesse Bales who underwent an operation recently was able to leave the hospital Monday. She will stay in Portland for a while before coming home to Bonneville.

Mrs. E. J. Collins, Depot agent at Bonneville, is now on her vacation. She is being relieved by Mr. W. W. Smith.

Samuel C. Lancaster has been confined to his home in Portland for the past ten days on account of illness. He expects to return to Bonneville sometime this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wood motored to Portland Sunday where they purchased new, modern equipment for a two-chair barber shop. Mr. Wood expects to open a new shop at Tyrell's Tavern within a very short time.

Mr. Hyndman, ex-mail pilot and now mechanic for the Atkinson Company, and his father recently flew to San Francisco.

H. R. Skinner, Frank Linnton, Leo Miller and Harold Richen, all of the U. S. engineers at the dam, traveled down to Portland over the week end to meet a team from the U. S. Engineers office in the Pittock block at bridge. They won 2 match points. It was the second time that the four players from Bonneville have defeated the Portland team.

Larry Sherman is closing his restaurant and garage on the highway preparatory to seeking a new location. The ground on which his building stands is said to have been leased to a syndicate which will open a large store and recreational center. The plans are said to include a hotel.
