CASCADE LOCKS

Mrs. Erland Rosenbeck spent the weekend in Portland.

By Martha Carns.
George Nelson returned Monday from a hunting trip in the Ochoco district. Hunting was good and he got a three point buck.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Critchfield were business visitors in Portland Friday.

Ira Graybeal of Stevenson visited his sister, Mrs. Frank Strader, Friday.

Miss Gretchen Grandstom, who is teaching in Alsea, visited her parents here over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carns were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Allen in War-rendale Sunday.

Mrs. Palmer of Lexington, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Carlisle Harrison, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Jack Buce and children of Mosier visited friends in Cascade Locks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Glazier of Linnton visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Alger Sunday.

E. Erickson, who has been confined to his bed from injuries received from a fall while painting his home, is much better and able to be up and around.

Mrs. John Martinson and daughter, Lillian, were visitors in Hood River Monday.

Mrs. Melvin Andrews of Boring visited her husband, who runs the Andrews meat market, over the weekend.

Mrs. C. Weil was a Portland visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Central Lumber company were visitors in Albany and Corvallis over the weekend.

Mrs. Edna Finley of the Craigmont hotel was a business visitor in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Erickson of Vancouver visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. Erickson Sunday.

W. H. Cirak was in Portland on business Monday.

Mrs. Owens of Portland, who has been visiting her husband of the Cascade Lumber company, returned to Portland this week.

Mrs. Jerry Woodward and Mrs.
J. Ellis will entertain the Ladies Aid at the church on October 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Tolbert and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brolliar were business visitors in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Ed. Matheny has returned home from a week's stay at Government Hot Springs, back of the town of Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Hyde are remodeling and enlarging their house by adding on a sun porch and making other changes.

Don Francis, proprietor of the Cascade Bargain House, will start work at once on a 25-foot addition to the store room he occupies, next door to Glazier's garage.

When the addition is finished he will increase his stock of used furniture and put in a larger stock of stoves. He has been doing quite a business in stoves.

Bob Andrews is preparing to make his temporary store building so snug and warm that it will serve him until the first of the year, when he hopes to be settled in the new Odd fellows building. He will build on a small wing and install a stove to heat the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller of Portland visited Mrs. Miller's parents, Captain and Mrs. Charles Nelson, over the weekend. Saturday evening Mrs. Nelson gave a dinner party, celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Miller. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carns, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson and daughter, Marie.

Del Bradburn is down from the mountains, where he is employed all summer by the forest service.
Incidentally, he is suffering with a sore toe. So is Jack Kirby, who dropped a weight on his foot. And Noble Hyde, who has been taking the weight off his toes.

Mr. and Mrs. William Knopp have just finished laying a new roof on their house, beyond the Red & White store. Mrs. Knopp proved herself unusually handy with hammer and nails and established something of a reputation as a carpenter. She beat the rain by a few hours.

Walter E. Bates, district circulation manager for the Oregonian in the Bonneville Dam area, has entered the fuel business and is now busily engaged in stacking up fir for future deliveries. He is taking the fir off the group of lots now being cleared by W. C. Anderson, of the Central Lumber company, in Hyde Park—the newest subdivision in Cascade Locks.

E. A. Colony, who is holding a position with the state at Salem, was a visitor in Cascade Locks Monday. He and Mrs. Colony operated Lamb's Inn at Warrendale until a month ago. Mrs. Colony now has charge of the dining room at Multnomah Falls.

Teacher: "Come here, Henry.
This essay of yours on 'Our Dog' is word for word the same as your brother's."
Henry: "Sure. It's the same dog
