CASCADE LOCKS, OREGON

WARRENDALE

By Aino Ferrington

Mr. and Mrs. D. Noble Reynolds of Astoria were visitors Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson. Mrs. Reynolds who is the sister of Mr.
Johnson was married to Mr. Reynolds the last of the week.

Sunday afternoon considerable excitement was caused at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stat-tery when their home caught on fire around the stove pipe in the front room. Neighbors rushed to their assistance and the fire was soon put out.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clifton spent several days in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Steiner made a business trip to Portland Tuesday. Mrs. Steiner who has been ill for the past two weeks went in to receive medical care.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Patterson and family are now living in one of the houses on the Lively estate.
Mr. Patterson has been employed on the ram for some time, but his family has not been with him until the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilley and family spent the week-end in Seapose.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Withrow have been spending the past week visiting in Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rowe left for Vancouver Wednesday where they will spend the Thanksgiving holidays, at the home of Mrs. Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Klinger spent a couple of days at Sandy last week where they enjoyed an early Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. Klinger's parents.

TROUBLE STALKS CREACY

Trouble stalked Tom Creacy, engineer for Pacific Coast Steel, last week. First he fell and broke two ribs and cut a nasty gash in his hand at the power house site.
Next he went for a ride with friends. Returning Saturday night to the dam from Cascade Locks his car was sidetracked on the Eagle creek bridge. He suffered only minor injuries, but O. E. Albinson, another Pacific Coast Steel engineer, who accompanied him, had to be taken into Portland for stitches in a gash in his chin.

ECHOES OF DAM INN

Echoes of the Dam Inn will be heard Friday when Sheriff Edick sells property of Frank Bennett and others to satisfy a claim held by creditors. The sale will start at 11 a. m. and will be held at Clark's cold storage plant. It appears improbable that returns from the sale will go far toward satisfying the judgment.

"Kissing a girl is like opening a bottle of olives."
"How so?"
"The first may come hard, but it's a cinch to get the rest."

Hubby: "I miss the old cuspidor since it's gone." Wife: "You missed it before—that's why it's gone."

Trial by Torture by Police Banned in China

Peking.—Trial by torture is banned in Kwangtung province by the authorities. It has long been the practice for Chinese police to secure confessions of suspects by beating with bamboos or forcing the arrested persons to kneel for long periods on chains with pieces of wood locked behind the knees. Simultaneously, the authorities issued instructions that all death penalties must be held up until a thorough reconsideration has been given each case.

Drouth Makes Fish Get Along on Just One Fin

Topeka, Kan.—The great drouth in the West may prove an insurmountable difficulty to many human beings, but Mother Nature, as usual, has provided means for her charges to survive.

Lee Larabee of the Kansas state fish and game commission reports a new species of fish has appeared since the dry spell. The newcomer is possessed of only one fin, enabling it to lie on its side and wiggle along the practically dry streams.

Marital Kiss Unknown in Sixty-Year Marriage

Athens, Tenn.—Mrs. Nancy Mary Ann Trammell West, who says that she never kissed her husband during nearly sixty years of married life, saw her first movie here and then exclaimed: "Ain't it a sight the things folks think up now a days—kissin' and huggin' like that."

Mrs. West, who has lived in the mountains of North Carolina all of her life, is the mother of 14 children, including triplets and twins.

Still Stealing Cattle

Pocatello, Idaho.—Cattle rustling may have lost its glamor of the early days, but not commercially; it still is a thriving business. However, Max D. Cohn, president of the Cattlemen's association, reported improvement in the situation in southeastern Idaho this season.
Modern "rustlers" use motor trucks.

Many out of town people will spend Thanksgiving in Cascade Locks with friends or relatives.
