The Parent-Teacher association will hold a business meeting on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the grade school building. All parents are urged to be present.

William Schroeder spent the week-end in Portland with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jenkins, of Portland, spent Sunday at the R. Woodward home.

Tom Ramey, of Portland, spent the Thanksgiving week-end visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lange and daughters, Dorothy and Elinor, of Linton, spent Thursday with Mr. Lange's brother, William Lange.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hunt and son, James, Jr., of Portland, spent Saturday visiting Mr. and Mrs. August Peterson.

Miss Gwen Welch, who has been living at the E. Granstrom home has moved to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martinson and daughter, Lillian, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall spent Thanksgiving in Portland.

Gordon Scradar, of Portland, stopped Sunday morning for a short visit with his brother, Frank Scradar. Other guests at the Scradar home over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sauted and son, Lewis, of Hood River.

Miss Marie Nelson was home from Washougal to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Captain and Mrs. Charles Nelson.

The steamer Beaver, of the Shaver Transportation company spent Saturday and Sunday forenoon in the government locks due to the channel being blocked by the contractors at Bonneville.

Mr. and Mrs. August Peterson spent Monday in Portland with their son, Lawrence, and family, of Clatskanie.

Mrs. Frank Strader was a visitor in Hood River Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nassahn and family of Stanfield were week-end visitors here. Mrs. Nassahn will remain here for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Erickson entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. Haggblom and sons, Lawrence and Herbert, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Haggblom at dinner Sunday evening.

Mrs. C. Haggblom and Mr. and Mrs. G. Haggblom were in Portland Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts have recently moved into one of the Nelson apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harrison are the proud parents of a son born on Thanksgiving Day at the Hood River hospital. The boy has been named Thomas John Harrison.

Walter Nelson, of the Lakeside market, is back in his old haunts again after having been confined to the hospital in Hood River with a severe cold which threatened to develop into pneumonia. He spent a few days in Albany after whipping the cold. Upon returning to Cascade Locks he was accompanied by his brother, Harry Nelson, who will probably remain in the district for a time.

"Scotty," the town's most interesting character, and a popular musician by any language, is back from Coulee dam, where he entertained the boys—and girls—with his manipulation of the ivory keys. He wandered away nearly two months ago, but returned with Leo Ellis, who was sent up to the Washington project by the Guy F. Atkinson company.

"Bill" Beeler is thumbing his nose at the weather man this week as he rushes work on a new garage, which he is putting up on the old homestead, just east of the telephone office.

W. H. Clark is busier than a bird dog these days building an addition to his cold storage plant. The addition will be used for storage purposes in putting away proto-logs and briquets and is putting up another small one in the Bonny Villa district. It will be used as an office and for fuel. It will set some way.
