BONNA VILLA

Mrs. Anna Gage, mother of Mrs. M. Holt, returned to her home in Portland after a short visit in Bonneville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Brandes and son, William, spent several days this week visiting friends and relatives in Portland.

Lieutenant William R. Poulson was host to a stag dinner Thursday night for the following: Jack Bowen, Harry Atkinson, William Thompson, Walter Chaney, Dan Hallowell, Jack Oswell and Lawrence Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Ballinger received guests at open house Tuesday.

Mrs. William R. Poulson attended Eastern Star in Portland Monday.

Government guard Henry Moore has been off duty for several days, having his teeth taken care of.

Mrs. A. Winslow and baby returned to her home Saturday after visiting relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Roy Lusch was hostess to the Bonny Villa Pinochle club Wednesday.

Hal Babbitt, of the Bonny Villa tavern, was a "pleasure bent" Hood River visitor Saturday. Hal and his partner, Rolf Enquist, entertained the Misses Elizabeth and Maxine Morgan, of Corbett, Sunday.

William Mishey has returned to his home in Springdale, after an extended visit at the inn here.

Mrs. Christenson, Bonny Villa resident, is seriously ill with the flu, and, it is reported, is in danger of contracting pneumonia.

Portland visitors from Shady Nook last week included Al Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson, Paul Cook, Roy Griffin, Arthur Bellen and the Dunmire brothers, Ernie and Roy.

Mrs. E. F. Enquist, of Springdale, visited her son, Rolf, at the tavern last week.

Three Shady Nook residents transferred their personal belongings to new homes last week. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perrin moving to the Tooth Rock cabins and Wayne Peterson taking up abode in the Columbia bunkhouses on the reservation.

Beverly Jean Collins has returned to her Portland home after a two week's visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. David Collins.

R. G. Monk and brother, of Portland, have taken up residence in a Shady Nook trailer house, as has Kenneth Kenton, who is spending the week here.

Mrs. W. Venohr entertained at luncheon Friday for Mrs. A. B. Stark, of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lusch had as guests for dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Perley Shipp, Mrs. F. B. Shipp and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skelton, all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buell and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bently, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Buell, of Salem, were dinner guests of the W. Venohr's Sunday.

A stranger has returned! Lem Sandres is back in the Bonneville colony, sporting two lacerations on one hand, and accompanied by his good friend, Brother Hall.

Six women were guests of Mrs. W. S. Hicks at an informal card party last week at her Bonny Villa home. Those attending were: Mrs. William Sharpe and Mrs. L. E. McGinnis, of Warrendale; and Mrs. Charles Clifton, Mrs. Oscar Eklund and Mrs. Tom Ostrom, of Bonny Villa.

R. A. Shortridge, J. A. Tucker and Fred Worth are building new homes in the Enquist addition to Bonneville, commonly known as Bonny Villa.

HOMES NEAR COMPLETION

Two new homes are nearing completion in the district in back of the Cascade Lumber company. J. L. Drummond and Percy Allison are building the houses.

"I call that new maid of your wife's a peach, don't you?"
 "Not while my wife's about."

SCHOOL NEWS

The resignation of the high school's officers, President Faye Douville, Vice-President Helen Gray and Treasurer Howard Harrison, was accepted by the student body last week and other officials elected. The newcomers are Jim Johnson, president; Dave Johnson, vice president; and Buster Helvoigt treasurer. The resignations were tendered because of alleged criticisms by students.

Six seniors, Faye Douville, Lois Merrill, Helen Gray, Al Jenkins, Howard Harrison and Earl Johnson, will graduate from the Locks high school Monday night, May 20. Vern G. Henderson announced last week. Speakers and the program for the bi-yearly commencement exercises will be announced next month.

The prep Pirates have billed two basketball games for this week, tangling with Parkdale in a highly important game Friday night on the latter's floor, and with Stevenson here Saturday night. The Locks quintet must score a win over the Parkdale squad to remain in the sub-district tournament, which will be held at Dufur, March 1 and 2. The winner and runner-up of the rounds between the two Hood River county teams, three from Wasco county and a similar number from Sherman, will then enter the district tournament, to be held in Eastern Oregon late in March. The Stevenson tilt will wind-up a home and home series in which the Washington squad won the first clash on its home floor, 24-11.

Dr. D. V. Polling, of Oregon State college, will address the seniors of the high school on March 4, using "The Future" as the theme.

The Columbia hotel's new coffee shop and dining rooms, in what was formerly the basement of the building, was formally opened to business Tuesday.

OLD-TIME DANCE

William Baldwin, better known as "Bill the Mrangler," and his gang, will furnish the music for an old-time dance Friday night in Jim Merrill's pavilion at Cascade Locks. The five-piece orchestra has played on the air for four years and last summer accompanied the famed Atlanta Wranglers on their coast-wide tour. Baldwin has lived in the district for several months and recently joined the local Exotic lodge.

NEW FUEL BUSINESS

H. H. Clow and C. F. Ewing, of Portland, opened a fuel business last week in the Enquist addition at Bonny Villa. The pair will carry all types of wood at reasonable prices, serving both the Oregon and Washington side of the river. They announced, dealing under the trade name of the C. & E. Fuel company.
