

CABIN SITES

For Those Who Wish to Build

Centrally Located

Archie Cook

Tyrrell's Tavern

THE DALLES FREIGHT LINE

Daily Freight between Portland, Bonneville, Cascade Locks.

UTAH COAL AND PRESTO-LOGS

Delivered Anywhere in the District at Any Time

Portland Phone: Broadway 0441

Cascade Locks Phone: 131

R. J. WUNER, Agent

Coffee Shop

Bar

Cigar Counter

Magazines

Barber Shop

Spacious Club Rooms

MEETINGS

EAGLES

THURSDAY

V. F. W. Tuesday February 19.

FRENCH'S

COFFEE SHOP AND RECREATION CENTER

ON THE HIGHWAY AT GATE IN BONNEVILLE

Let Us Give You An Estimate

on Materials if You Plan to Improve, Remodel, or

Build Your Home

ALSO

LUMBER & BUILDING MATERIAL

FIRE WOOD FOR SALE

Central Lumber Company

Phone 241

Cascade Locks, Ore.

CASCADE LOCKS

Cascade Locks' lone St. Valentine's day party was held Thursday night by Ida Glazier, with the following present. Norma Sweeney, Jean Anderson, Jerry Rankin, Norma Jenkins, Clara Achord, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glazier, Alma Glazier, Averill Brolliar, Howard and Nick Harrison, Sy Jenkins, Bob Miller and Ed Glazier. The evening was spent in playing games.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Beck, of Stevenson, were dinner guests of Dr. and Louie Folsom Wednesday night.

Frank Strader's mother, from Portland, is visiting with him this week.

The Lin Dinghan's have sold out their interest in the Cascade Locks hotel to their partner and moved to Portland.

Mrs. Mae Silvia has returned to the Bridge of the Gods hotel, following a week's vacation in and around Portland.

Miss Betty Jo Cooper, third grade student at the Locks school, suffered with an unknown ailment several days last week.

Mrs. Charles Haggblom's daughter and family visited from Astoria last week.

Mrs. Lola Anderson and Mrs. Doty Davis, of the Dew Drop inn staff, were Hood River visitors on Friday.

Portland guests from the Locks last week included Mrs. Rene Keith, Dewey McDaniels and Mrs. C. B. Kimmell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Williams and son, of Portland, were guests of the Jack Elmer's over the weekend. It was the first trip to the Locks since August for Jack's brother.

Leon Moore, The Dalles fire chief, visited his mother, Mrs. Jessie Moore last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keeler were Portland visitors Sunday and Monday, as was Ira Owens, also of the Cascade Lumber company, who spent the day with his wife.

Mrs. Anna Williams, of Portland, visited with her sister, Mrs. Agnes Brennan, of the Columbia hotel, Saturday.

The Townsend old age pension petitions, which were placed last week in Locks business houses were returned with more than 100 signatures. Mrs. Edwin Brolliar announced.

Mrs. Clarence Cairns will be hostess to the Ladies Aid society in their monthly meeting at her Locks home Thursday, the 28th.

Portland visitors from the Columbia hotel last week included Charles Pearson and George Vandrickson.

Fred C. Anderson, of the Dew Drop Inn, and Sam, Johnny and Chuck Hill, who live next door, have been ill with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morris attended a dance in Hood River Thursday night.

Jack McCreary has moved his house from the rear of Hyde's store to a more favorable position on the Glazier property.

The Locks most expensive home of the new year is well under way by the A. Alger family on their ranch property east of town. The modern four-room structure will be completed at a cost of more than $2000.

Frank Glazier, married two weeks ago to Miss Sylvia Spicer Roth, will build a small cabin in the rear of his father's Texaco filling station.

Mrs. F. J. Richards and daughter, June, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mason, of Hood River, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wuner Sunday.

Miss Erland Rosenback entertained a group of Locks friends at an after-dance supper Saturday night. Among those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strader, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morris, Mr. and Mrs. William Keeler, Mrs. Martha Keeler, Jack Travis and Henry Rosenback.

Captain Nelson took advantage of a slack week in river trade to spend a short vacation in the Locks.

WARRENDALE

Two new houses were started in the Warren addition to Warrendale last week, one by the brother of Joe Westerlund and the other by Wilbur Westerlund, nephew of Joe. The pair will swell the total of homes built in the district since summer to 15.

Vic Bellanger, star officer of the government guard service, is adding a gravelled driveway to his new home.

Warren K. Dunn's daughter and family, of Camas, visited at his Warrendale home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wall and Mrs. Andy Johnson and son, Stanley, at an informal party Sunday night.

Portland visitors last week from the Warren addition included Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Butterfield and Mrs. Carl Erickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wickheiser, former Warrendale residents, visited with his relatives, the T. Silver's last week.

James Wall is adding modern plumbing fixtures to his home this week.

Relatives of E. B. May from Portland, visited with him Sunday.

Saturday night parties were held at the homes of the Charles Clifton's and George Houtz's, it was reported, but few details are known, except that hilarious times were had by all.

With his latest new house completed and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Billyer, D. B. Lively has started construction of another the modern homes in what is known as the Lively addition to Warrendale.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Ladd, popular Warrendale residents, moved suddenly to Grand Coulee the early part of the week when Mr. Ladd, who is employed by the G. P. Atkinson company, was ordered to report at the earliest possible moment.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stfener spent the week-end at Newport beach, reporting the weather to be exceptionally nice.

CASCADE LOCKS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Roberts, who recently moved into Julius Carlson's apartment, gave a house warming Wednesday night to a number of their friends. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Stanley DeRossier, of Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. Kirt Potts of Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Schlosser, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Major L. P. McGinnis and Ed Johnson also dropped in during the evening. The last five are all of the Locks.

W. C. "Tuck" Anderson, of the Central Lumber company, inspected the Bonneville project Monday, and expressed approval of the progress made to date.

Ralph Nelson, of the Lakeside Market was visited by his wife and brother John, last week.

"Old Gentleman" Hauser, senior member of Bert and Hauser, has been confined to his quarters with a sore throat. "Doc" Millisap is in attendance.

Miss Audrey Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Schlosser is now employed at the Lakedise Hotel.

The Cascade Locks Parent Teacher's Association will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 in Room number one at the high school.

Noble Hyde is busily engaged in decorating the interior of his home near the Red and White store east of town.

OLD TIME DANCE

BILL THE WRANGLER AND HIS GANG

IN PERSON

MERRILL'S PAVILION

Friday Night

Cascade Locks

Regular Admission

C. & E. FUEL CO.

BONNY VILLA

CORD WOOD

1 & 2 Grades

Reasonable Prices

Small Orders Taken

WINES

PRIMA VISTA

VIRGINIA DARE

OLD MONK

ITALIAN SWISS COLONY

"Sold by the bottle to take out."

TYRRELL'S TAVERN

Opposite the Gates in Bonneville

"ARCHIE" COOK MANAGER