BONNA VILLA

"I don't care about the black suitcase, but I need my teeth." So said William Doty over the radio over the radio last week in his desperate search to find the wretch who got away with his plate. Roty, who is a truck driver for Orino, Malcom and Bell, lost his teeth and clothes when a thief got away with his suitcase some days ago. For almost a week he has lived on soup, coffee and chili, and he needs his teeth!

Mrs. Mona Bell Hill spent the week-end at her Hill Crest home, entertaining many of her Bonny Villa friends during the day.

Seven lots were sold in Bonny Villa during the past seven-day period by Eric Enquist. Names of the buyers were not announced.

Mrs. Tom Dippery's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harris, of Portland, were visitors at Bonnevue last week.

Mrs. Bud Winslow's wire haired terrier was run over by a speeding motorist on the highway Friday, but seems not to be suffering from his accident.

Lieutenant and Mrs. William Poulson were Portland visitors Sunday and Monday, the latter attending her Eastern Star meeting Monday.

Present at the railroad engineer's dance from Bonnevue and Bonny Villa Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lusch, Mr. and Mrs. C. Black, Mr. and Mrs. R. Knapp and Hal Babbitt (partner unknown.)

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson spent the week-end at their Shady nook cabin, the first time in many months.

James Tanner and Rolf Enquist of the Bonny Villa tavern, were present at a hilarious party in and around Portland Saturday night.

Miss Grace Butler, so it is said, is very good at naming twins.

Mrs. E. Wade, Portland, spent several days last week with the Pulkerson's, newcomers to the Shady Nook community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turrish spent the week-end in Veil, visiting with an old friend, Dr. Clyde Walker.

Mrs. J. E. Scheufelle spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Portland, taking care of her mother, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Seahers, of Corbett, were Friday guests of the C. R. Grimm's.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Jones, in Bonny Villa, were Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Christenson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fuhrman and Miss Grace Butler.

Portland visitors last week from Shady Nook on their various days off were: Al Jensen, Ray Griffin, O. I. Gentry, Paul Cook and David Collins.

Former Oregon State college schoolmates dropped in at the Bonny Villa tavern Sunday to see Hal Babbitt. Those who visited the popular young free-hand artist, all of whom now live in Portland, were: Mr. and Mrs. John Reiff, Mr. and Mrs. Del Nickerson, Gene Duncan and Miss Rita De-Temple and Mr. and Mrs. George Knutsen.

Glen Ferrington is bringing up the government's new runabout from the Rainier factory this week. Mrs. Ferrington is visiting at her parents in Springdale while he is away.

The weekly get-together of the Bonnevue Women's Pinochle club was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. O. H. Johns. Mrs. Walter Venhor and Mrs. Ed Wolfe were guests of honor.

Mrs. W. Venhor spent the week-end in Portland, being accompanied in Friday by Mrs. McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Winslow were also in the city over the week-end.

Mrs. Charles Black went fishing down the river Sunday, but it was not a profitable business for she lost three pieces of bait and failed to catch a fish. However, it is rumored in Bonnevue that she will soon be approached by the Isaac Walton league, and that is an honor.

EAGLE CREEK

Miss Marguerite Fee, sister of Mrs. Frank Moran, has returned to take over the position as assistant in the popular tavern, which she held last summer. She will reside with the Moran's.

Art Sheriff was called to Portland Thursday night. He has not been seen nor heard from since, and some worries as to his safety have been expressed.

Albert Jensen was a Portland visitor last week, as was Mrs. Bellanger, who spent the week-end with relatives. Mrs. Frank Moran motored to the city Monday.

William Paul spent the week-end with his family in Hood River.

J. H. Johnson returned to his Eagle Creek heights home last week from Eastern Oregon, but was called to Portland on business the following day.

Jack Cummings has sold his modern cabin on the heights and moved to Portland, with his family.

Mrs. Barney Ranke was the guest of honor at a surprise birthday party held in her honor Sunday at the Matlock home in the Enquist addition to Bonny Villa.

Miss Florence Buchanan, pretty attendant at the cigar store counter in the Community Center at Bonneville, who was taken to Portland last week with a severe case of flu, returned to her Eagle Creek home and work Sunday.

SPIRITLESS PIRATES

DROP FINAL TILT 18-13

Showing a decided lack of interest in their play, the Cascade Locks high Pirates wound up their sub-district basketball season Friday night by dropping a tilt to Parkdale, 18-13. The defeat dropped the Locks into a second place tie with Parkdale, and a play-off will now be necessary to see which team goes to the district tourney, to be held next month at Dufur.

Parkdale jumped into a 5-2 lead at the quarter, increased it to 8-6 over their spiritless rivals at half time and then cinched the game with a lead of 12-7 at the third period mark. Jim Johnson led the local scorers with five points.
